17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." - Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND ELDERLY:

In 2021, Pope Francis established the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus (July 26th). The theme for the 2025 celebration, selected by the pope, is: "Blessed are those who have not lost hope." (cf. Sir 14:2) About this day, Cardinal Kevin Farrell remarks: "These words, taken from the Book of Sirach, express the blessedness of the elderly and highlight the hope placed in the Lord as the path to a Christian and reconciled old age. In this Jubilee Year, the World Day aims to be an opportunity to reflect on how the presence of grandparents and the elderly is a sign of hope in every family and ecclesial community."

Here at the Parish of the Holy Spirit, we will offer a blessing to grandparents and seniors at all of our Masses this weekend. Who qualifies as a senior? I will leave that up to you. I assure you ... all those who are willing to admit that they're elderly (or a senior) will receive the blessing during Mass, at the appropriate time.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY IS COMING UP:

Friday, August 15th is a Holy Day of Obligation this year; that of the glorious Assumption of our Blessed Mother into the realm of heaven, body and soul. Catholics throughout the world are obligated to attend Mass on this day. Here at the Parish of the Holy Spirit we will celebrate a Vigil Mass for this solemnity on Thursday, August 14th, at 6:00 PM. We will also have an Assumption Mass on Friday, August 15th, at 9:00 AM. If these Mass times are not convenient for you, then please consult the Mass schedules at our neighboring parishes.

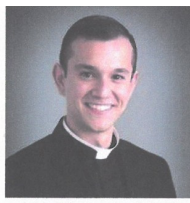

God's blessings,

E. Michael

MIGRATION AND PRIESTLY VOCATIONS: PERSONAL STORIES FROM OUR YAKIMA PRIESTS AND SEMINARIANS

Nicolas Felipe

Fr. Edgar Quiroga

Fr. Jesus Mariscal

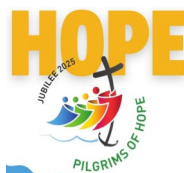

Only fourteen of our priests come from within the geographic boundaries of the Yakima Diocese. Migration is often a part of our priests' lives.

Join us to hear how some of our Yakima priests and seminarians have navigated migrating to Central Washington to share Christ with you!

The next presentation will be at Christ the King Parish in Richland on Tuesday, July 29, 2025, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

If you have any questions, please contact Valeria Flores at (509) 965-7117 or via email at valeria.flores@yakimadiocese.org.

HOLY SPIRIT'S PARTICIPATION IN THE UPCOMING JUBILEE MASS FOR YOUTH TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 5:30 PM ST. PAUL CATHEDRAL, YAKIMA

The upcoming First Tuesday Jubilee Year Mass—at St. Paul Cathedral, Yakima—will be dedicated to honoring the youth of our parish and our diocese. It is scheduled for 5:30 PM on Tuesday, August 5th. Together with the members of our Parish Council, Fr. Michael is encouraging Holy Spirit's participation at this Mass. As Pilgrims of Hope, let's make a pilgrimage to our diocese's "mother church" on August 5th to ... pray for, recognize, and affirm the young people of our parish who are vital assets to the Church of today and will be the leaders of the Church of tomorrow. Young Catholics under the age of 30 (students, workers, youth in the military, single people, and married people) will all be honored at this Mass, but people of all ages are welcome—and encouraged—to attend.

Fr. Michael will be assisting at this Mass as a concelebrant. Let's start planning NOW to carpool to Yakima with friends and family members on August 5th for this Mass. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available at St. Paul Cathedral at 5:00 PM (1/2 hour before the Jubilee Mass begins). Also, the special Holy Year Indulgence will be granted to everyone who participates in the Jubilee Mass for Youth. All Holy Spirit parishioners who attend the Mass will receive a gift certificate from Dairy Queen, so you can stop for a cone or some fries on the way back to Kennewick. (There's a Dairy Queen on Yakima Avenue in Yakima, adjacent to the Convention Center.)

STEWARDSHIP: Jesus is describing God's immeasurable generosity when He says in today's Gospel, "Whoever asks, receives; whoever seeks, finds; whoever knocks, is admitted." But it should also be the description of us as Christian stewards—those seeking to follow Christ by using our gifts in the service of others.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When I Called, You Answered

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we find out they're a direct descendant of a former president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they might say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of complacency, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want or need is simply going to roll out before us. We read our Bible and we hear about all the amazing promises made by the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. "He's got this," we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for detours and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be active, receptive participants in our own salvation. We all see God's patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the few righteous people of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

God wants us to stay awake for the drive.

LUKE 11:9

The Ways of Praying

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Consider how there are five levels of communication, each level taking us deeper into a relationship and what it means to be human. One, the greetings we offer as we pass: Good morning! How’s it going? Two, a sharing of activities: what we did, what someone said. Three, an expression of ideas, as in what we think about raising children or our political opinions or why we believe there may be conflicts in the world. Four, revealing our feelings both positive and negative: feelings of love or gratitude or contentment as well as of being hurt or rejected or disappointed. Five, a sense of intense closeness and being with, perhaps even without speaking or using any words. Each level, then, takes us deeper into a shared relationship.

Consider, then, how ever-deepening prayer may follow that same pattern. One, memorized or rote prayer. Two, telling God what is on our mind, even though it is a one-sided conversation. Three, commonly called “meditation” but, more simply, thinking about God and life and our faith response, as in the musing that may follow spiritual reading. Four, often referred to as “praying our feelings,” such as reflecting on our human emotions and what they might say about us, our faith, and how the journey of our faith life is unfolding. Five, a sense of simply being with God, even without words, and simply resting in that holy presence. Each level of prayer, then, leads us ever more into a shared relationship with our God. ●

Reflect

How do I pray? Should I ask for the grace to grow in my prayer life?

Dear Padre,

Who wrote the Lord's Prayer? I know the Lord's Prayer comes from Scripture, but who composed it as we say it today?

When the disciples asked the Lord to teach them to pray, he taught them the prayer we know as the Our Father. Two versions of that prayer appear in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. The version used in the Church's liturgies is derived from Matthew 6:9–13. In fact, citing St. Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologiae, the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the Lord's Prayer the "most perfect of prayers" (2774), teaching us not only what things to pray for in our prayer but also in what order, or priority, we should desire them. It is at the heart of every individual and communal prayer.

We pray the Our Father, bearing in mind and heart the intimate relationship we have with our God as sons and daughters by adoption through our baptism. The specific wording of our prayers is a work in progress. What we think of as the final wording is that which the Church has approved and makes the most sense for prayer as a community. What is most important is that the substance of the prayer reflects the same matter the Lord used in the prayer. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Herein lies the novelty of Christian prayer! It is a dialogue between people who love each other, a dialogue based on trust, sustained by listening and open to a commitment to solidarity. It is the dialogue of a Son with his Father, a dialogue between children and their Father. This is Christian prayer.
