HOLY SPIRIT'S PARTICIPATION IN THE UPCOMING JUBILEE MASS FOR YOUTH:

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE 2025

The upcoming First Tuesday Jubilee Year Mass—at St. Paul Cathedral, Yakima—will be dedicated to honoring the youth of our parish and our diocese. It is scheduled for 5:30 PM on Tuesday, August 5th. Together with the members of our Parish Council, I am encouraging Holy Spirit's participation at this Mass. My suggestion? As Pilgrims of Hope, let's make a pilgrimage to our diocese's "mother church" on August 5th to ... pray for, recognize, and affirm the young people of our parish who are vital assets to the Church of today and will be the leaders of the Church of tomorrow. Young Catholics under the age of 30 (students, workers, youth in the military, single people, and married people) will all be honored at this Mass, but people of all ages are welcome—and encouraged—to attend.

I will be assisting at this Mass as a concelebrant. Let's start planning NOW to carpool to Yakima with friends and family members on August 5th for this Mass. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available at St. Paul Cathedral at 5:00 PM (1/2 hour before the Jubilee Mass begins). Also, the special Holy Year Indulgence will be granted to everyone who participates in the Jubilee Mass for Youth. All Holy Spirit parishioners who attend the Mass will receive a gift certificate from Dairy Queen, so you can stop for a cone or some fries on the way back to Kennewick. (There's a Dairy Queen on Yakima Avenue in Yakima, adjacent to the Convention Center.)

[I would recommend planning for 1 hour + 15 minutes of travel time from the Tri-Cities to get to St. Paul Cathedral, which is located at 15 S 12th Avenue in Yakima.]

Jubilee Year blessings,

E. Michael

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, over 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and those working on the margins to help alleviate the economic insecurity of the poor. Donation envelopes are attached to the letter from Bishop Tyson inserted in this bulletin. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's scripture readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests everything that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire—a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Natural Family Planning Awareness Week July 20 - 26, 2025

Natural Family Planning (NFP) is the general title for the scientific, natural, and moral methods of family planning that can help married couples either achieve or postpone pregnancy. NFP Awareness Week, as promoted by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, is a perfect time to educate and articulate Catholic teachings on human sexuality, conjugal love, and responsible parenthood. This week commemorates the anniversary of the publication of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae, written by St. Pope Paul VI in 1968.

NFP methods are based on the observation of the naturally occurring signs and symptoms of the fertile and infertile phases of a woman's menstrual cycle. No drugs, devices, or surgical procedures are used to avoid pregnancy.

Since the methods of NFP respect the love-giving (unitive) and life-giving (procreative) nature of the conjugal act, they support God's design for married love!

For more information about NFP, visit www.usccb.org/topics/natural-family-planning. To find out about NFP methods taught locally, contact Emily Gonzalez at forhealthandfertility@gmail.com or Carol Gaulke at 509-619-5464 or micaжере@msn.com.

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, the members of Holy Spirit's Parish Council are praying for all members of our parish—daily. We are grateful for all the individuals, families, ministries, and groups that work to build up the community of our parish.

THANK YOU TO OUR ADVERTISERS

We will have one more Life Teen Camp informational meeting for those who missed the first one!

Our parish's Life Teen Team has made plans to take our teens to a Life Teen Camp next summer. The team is holding an informational meeting Sunday, July 20th after the 5:00 p.m. Mass in PCC room 3. This may sound early, but there will be some major fundraising that will need to be started soon, and it also means that we will need a commitment on both the teen's and parent's part for this endeavor to be successful. The camp will be open to teens who just finished their freshman year of high school, through teens that just finished their junior year in high school. We would like the teens and parents who are interested to attend this meeting. This does not mean you are committed, it just means you are interested and want more information. This camp will be in place of the Steubenville NW Conference in the summer of 2026. Please come to the meeting with suggestions for fundraisers and any questions you may have. Pizza will be provided.

Everyone is invited to the Pack-a-Picnic hosted by the Elizabeth Ministry next weekend on Sunday, July 27th.

Following the 9:30 a.m. Mass we'll gather in the shade between the church and First Avenue.

Pack a picnic lunch, a blanket and/or seating for your family. Popsicles and water will be provided.

SAVE THE DATE FOR EDGE/LIFETEEN SUMMER FUN!

Friday, August 8th—Indoor mini golf for Life Teen/Edge at Tee Time in Kennewick from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Life Teen and Edge will take care of all costs. There will be food and fun games including mini golf, shuffleboard, pool, and cornhole.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Be Ready for God to "Stop By"

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

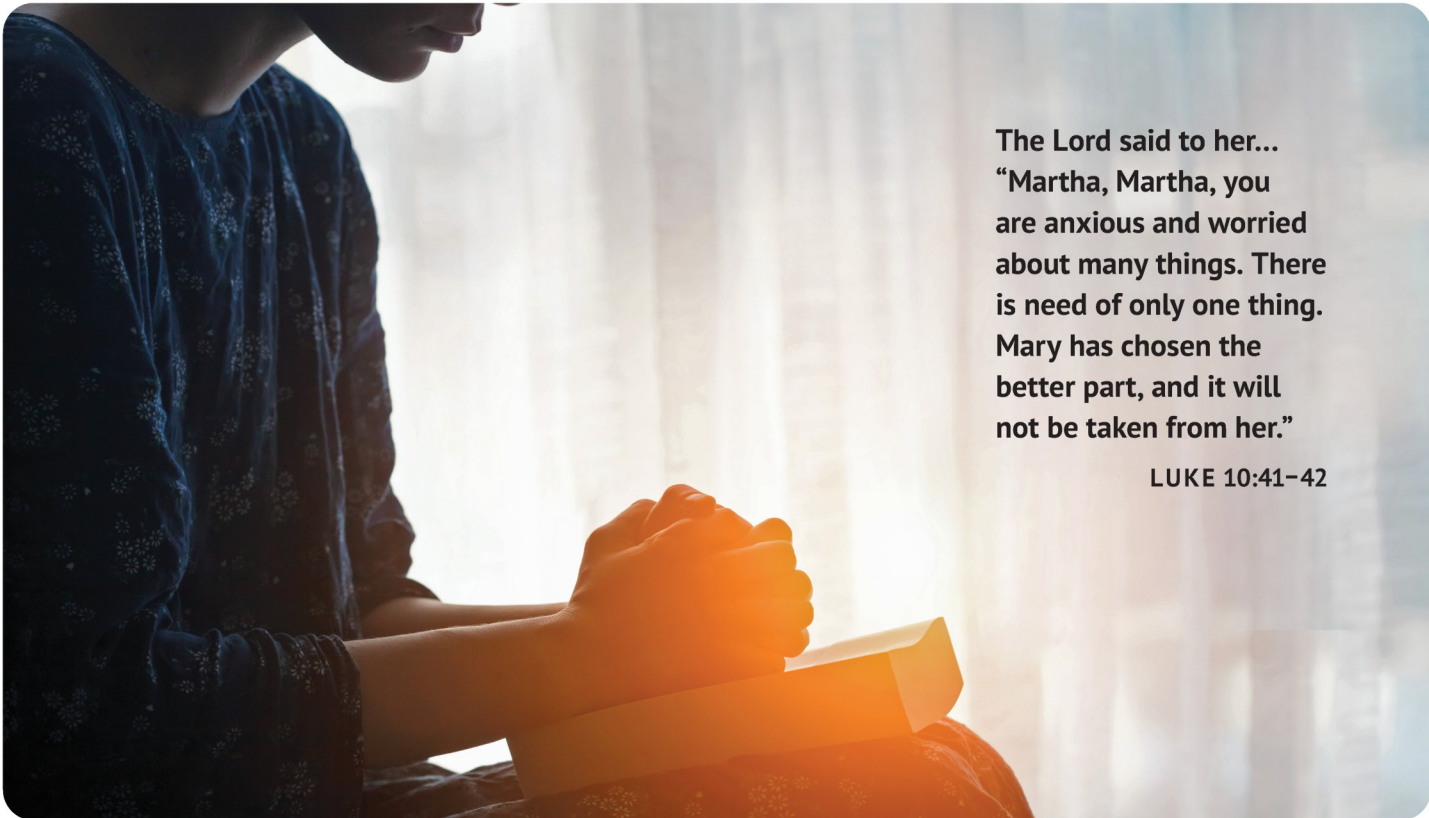

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called "stopping by." They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. Pop in. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. "I was just in the neighborhood," they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready to welcome visitors.

"Crazy," you might exclaim. "People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?" Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always prepared.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things. Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Pray your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready to greet the Lord as your welcome guest.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Lord said to her...

Keeping Your Balance

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

These days, when people come to confession, they seldom list their sins by name and number. Quite often, it seems, they simply talk about their lives, about the chaos in which they seem to be living, about the relationships that are less than what they would hope, about the values they’ve let slide sometimes into the muck, about how they’ve turned in upon themselves, and about how caring for others has faded from their lives. After they’ve told their stories, I will usually ask if they take any time in the day to be quiet and if they pray in whatever way they find helpful and with some regularity. Invariably, they will say that they’ve let such prayer time slip away; that they have not been praying the way they once did. In such cases, I often suggest that as penance, they take some time—even just a little time—in the next day or two to simply quiet themselves in the presence of God.

Life will always tend to be chaotic. These days, there is too much going on for life not to be. But, quiet and reflective prayer seems to bring a balance, a refocusing upon what is important and what is trivial. Without that, we can become overwhelmed and lose our way. It is what the Martha/Mary story is about. It’s not that our own Martha-service is not worthwhile. It’s crucially important in order to make life hum along in an orderly fashion. But without Mary’s reflective part, our lives can become muddled drudgery. ●

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

July 19, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our diocese will soon take up the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Your support for this collection brings change to communities across the country and empowers those living in poverty to transform the places they live into reflections of the Kingdom of God. In addition to making an impact nationally, those living in poverty in our own diocese are empowered through the 25% share of our collection that stays here. One of the principles that has made CCHD successful at reaching people on the margins for more than 50 years is its support for community-based solutions rather than uniform, top-down programs that do not account for local needs or include local voices.

With CCHD funding, the Community Lighthouse program, developed by Together New Orleans, has transformed churches and other neighborhood institutions into solar-powered facilities where people can shelter when natural disasters such as hurricanes cause power outages. In 2023, Together New Orleans expanded its project to nine facilities, and it garnered recognition—and project funding—from the mayor's office and the US Congress to expand the program even further. In addition, the organization implemented solar power training programs at the Community Lighthouses while working with local government to reform regulations, thereby making solar power more available to low- and middle-income residents.

This record of success shows how your support for CCHD makes a positive impact in vulnerable, under resourced communities across the country. When you give to the CCHD collection, you make an impact nationally and at home, because 25% of your contribution stays within your own diocese. This way you help your own community build on this legacy of success while also helping communities across the country.

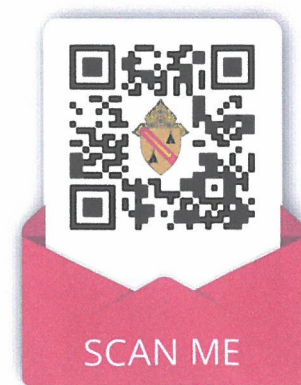

Please prayerfully consider how you can help CCHD this year. If you would like more information about the collection and the people it supports, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

With every best wish and blessing,

Most Reverend Joseph J Tyson
Bishop of Yakima

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church has always taught us, through the words of Sacred Scripture and the witness of saints like Francis of Assisi, that the natural world is created by God, that it is good, and that humans have a special duty to care for creation so that it benefits not only themselves but also future generations. Today we live in a time where pollution, climate change, and poor agricultural practices harm creation and place us all in danger.

In 2015, Pope Francis responded to this environmental crisis by issuing the encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home), in which he emphasizes the connection between humanity and nature and calls for "the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development" (no. 13).

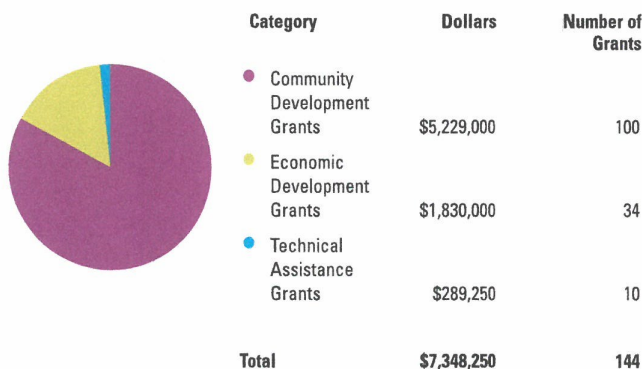

This spirit of cooperation, sustainability, and human dignity animates the work of organizations like La Cosecha Community Supported Agriculture, a cooperative farm network in Albuquerque, New Mexico, which makes locally grown, sustainable, and nutritious foods available to low-income people. With support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), La Cosecha has expanded its outreach beyond Albuquerque to 11 rural New Mexico counties, increased year-round accessibility to healthy produce and other food products, and obtained a US Department of Agriculture Good Agricultural Practices food-safety certification for its cooperative farm partners.

CCHD-funded organizations show how we can care for the environment, address the needs of the poor, and support responsible and sustainable local businesses at the same time. When you participate in the CCHD collection, you help not only other communities but also your own, because 25% of your contribution remains in your diocese to create local solutions to poverty.

Dear Padre,

“Lead us not into temptation...” God does not lead us into temptation, so what is this saying?

You are of the same mind as the pope! In 2019, Pope Francis approved changing the Lord’s Prayer, that is, changing the phrase “lead us not into temptation” to “do not let us fall into temptation.” Pope Francis said that the original appeared to suggest that God caused the temptation. However, most Scripture scholars agree that “lead us not into temptation” is the best translation from the Greek. It’s a subjunctive verb. It’s used in the second person, addressed directly to God. And it really does say “do not lead us into temptation.”

What did the pope hope to accomplish? Those who are most familiar with the pope say that what he was trying to clarify was not anchored in the intricacies of translation but rather anchored in pastoral life. He wanted to focus the attention of God’s people on their action, “falling into temptation,” and not on a misunderstanding of what Jesus was teaching. It was a point of focus and clarification to help us in our spiritual journey and our understanding of our relationship with God. Understood in this sense, the new translation would accomplish this pastoral purpose. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

When I start my day, do I throw myself headlong into the things to be done, or do I first seek inspiration in the Word of God? At times, we begin the day automatically, we start doing things...like hens. No. We must start the day by first of all looking to the Lord, taking his Word... allowing this to be the inspiration for the day.
