MEMORIAL DAY:

Our daily Mass on Monday, May 26th will be celebrated at its usual time: 9:00 a.m. We will pray for all the women and men—from the U.S. Revolutionary War to the present—who gave their lives while serving in the Armed Forces of the United States of America, to promote and protect the many freedoms we enjoy in our country.

Let us also continue to pray for all our servicewomen and servicemen—on active duty, in the reserves, or in the National Guard—both at home and abroad. May the following patron saints also pray for the safety and protection of all who are serving in our nation's military: St. George & St. Sebastian (Army), St. Barbara (Marines), St. Brendan the Navigator (Navy), St. Joseph of Cupertino (Air Force), and St. Michael the Archangel (Coast Guard).

CONFIRMATION MASS FOR HOLY SPIRIT YOUTH:

This year, our middle school and high school youth who have been preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation will be joining the youth of Christ the King Church, Richland in a combined celebration of the sacrament. The Confirmation Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Joseph J. Tyson on Tuesday, May 27th at 6:00 p.m. at Christ the King Church. Everyone from the Parish of the Holy Spirit is cordially invited (and encouraged) to attend. I will be concelebrating the Mass along with Msgr. Thomas Champoux, the Pastor of Christ the King Church. I hope to see many of you there. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will powerfully bestow upon our youth His sevenfold gifts: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

Blessings of the Easter Season,

E. Michael

Join us for our annual Parish Celebration
on Saturday, May 31
at 5:00 p.m. outside the PCC.

ABSOLUTELY FREE

Share a meal and spend time with fellow parishioners.

We'll have food, drinks, games, and ponies to pet.

Everyone is welcome!

Please feel free to attend even if you didn't get a chance to register.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's reading from the Book of Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But," the U.S. Bishops' Pastoral on Stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

The Young Ladies' Institute (YLI) is a Catholic women's organization (16+ years) with institutes in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Hawaii. Our local institute #214 serves Richland and Kennewick in the Diocese of Yakima. Our monthly meetings are held at Christ the King Parish in Richland. We are over 100 members strong. We exist to support other women through Unity, Sisterly Love, and Protection. Our patron saint is the Blessed Virgin Mary. Our motto is May Christ Triumph! We also do a little fundraising for the diocese's Seminarian Fund. If you are interested in finding out more about YLI, email presidentyli214@gmail.com or text/call Cheryl Ledesma, President, at 509-943-5395. Visitors are welcome at all our events! Here is what is coming up:

Saturday, June 7: 70th Anniversary YLI #214 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. at Christ the King Church Gathering Space (Grand President's official visit).

Tuesday, June 17: Monthly luncheon social, location to be determined soon. RSVP to Helenrobinson@charter.net.

The June Ultreya of the Cursillo Movement will be held Monday, June 2 at Christ the King Parish in Richland. The Holy Rosary will be prayed in the chapel at 6:30 p.m., and the meeting will follow at 7:00 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. Come one and all.

The Stewardship Committee continues to encourage and promote the growth of Holy Spirit Parish. Whether you are a parishioner or a visitor to our parish, thank you for participating in our name tag wearing at all our Masses this weekend. Let's strive to get to know more of our parishioners by name, both during Mass and during our social time afterward.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Management According to the Apostles

If you've ever worked in any kind of organization, for-profit or not-for-profit, I'm sure you have attended a conference or two. Whatever our expectations going in, I usually find that these conferences expose me to communication and problem-solving styles that are different from my own, nudging me into a little unexpected self-discovery. And they serve as great opportunities to meet new people and do something different.

Here's my idea for a leadership conference: The Management Style of the Apostles. Think about it, the only thing the Apostles had more abundantly than holiness was problems. Lots and lots of problems ... most of them of the human resources variety. It's no small feat, starting Christ's Church on earth. I wouldn't want to be project manager of that endeavor.

The Acts of the Apostles is, in some ways, a big book full of problems and ways to solve them. It's a blueprint for tackling interpersonal issues in the manner of a true steward, who approaches every problem starting from the same place: "What would my Master want?"

It's a question we should be asking ourselves every time we, too, encounter a problem — especially problems relating to other people. What is the truth in this situation, and how would God have me communicate it? How could I handle this in a way that is worthy of the name of my Master?

In Acts, we see a lot of characteristics of everyday stewardship. We see the Apostles mindfully acknowledge the lack of peace in the Christian community that is posed by problems like false teachings. They prayerfully confront the obstacles to salvation posed by such issues. Always, always, always, their main objective is to know and reveal the will of God, remaining committed to the truth while helping newcomers to Christianity find avenues to salvation.

Maybe I'm just saying it because it's my idea — but it sounds like a leadership conference we could all use.

Summer with the Saints on Formed!

Summer with the Saints offers weekly opportunities to celebrate saints' feast days by pairing family-friendly movies and shows with engaging activities that kids of all ages will enjoy. Whether you're throwing a birthday party for St. John the Baptist (don't forget the locusts and wild honey!) or marveling at the glory of God on a walk in his creation, your summer will be filled with faith, fun and heavenly friendship.

Sign up for Summer with the Saints to receive a calendar with a saint for each week of the summer, titles for accompanying content on Formed, and activity ideas so you can plan ahead. You'll grow together in faith as a family and find inspiration from the lives of these holy men and women. To sign up, visit www.formed.org/summer-with-the-saints to have 12 weeks of faith-filled videos and family-friendly activities delivered weekly to your inbox, starting June 1.

When traveling, visit www.masstimes.org to find Mass and Reconciliation schedules and Catholic church locations worldwide.

[Jesus said,] “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”

JOHN 14:27

The Wisdom Channel

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

There is a difference between common sense and wisdom. The former can be taught and is usually passed on by our culture. It includes such practical tips as wash your hands before you eat, don't drink and drive, and save some money for a rainy day. Wisdom, on the other hand, tends to be the fruit of reflection upon one's life experiences. It tends to be insightful, containing greater depth and richness.

While we presume everyone will eventually arrive at some level of common sense, not everyone becomes wise with time. Wisdom tends to see what others may not. Jesus taught his followers, “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything and remind you of all that [I] told you” (John 14: 26). It is God's Spirit that brings us to wisdom.

I invite you to list five pieces of wisdom you have drawn from your life experiences—five truths for life by which you try to live. You may not live them out as perfectly as you might hope, but they are the five foundation stones upon which you have chosen to build your life. For example, from my own life, I've concluded that patience works. Everything has its own rhythm, and things generally work out, given enough time. Another foundation for me is to live by what I need, rather than by what I want. I readily admit that I don't live that out perfectly, but, when I do, life is much less stressful. ●

QUESTIONS? PLEASE EMAIL CELDER@CKSCHOOL.NET. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Dear Padre,

I know Catholics with spouses who cheat and abuse them. What should they do?

If someone is in an abusive marriage, the Church wants you to help that person reach safety. The Church doesn't tolerate anyone staying in a place where physical or mental abuse occurs. Separation is often a first and necessary step. However, there is always hope for reconciliation. If a husband is abusive, and his wife leaves, but he then seeks treatment and changes his ways, the Church hopes that the marriage could be saved.

The same is true for an adulterous spouse. If he or she is repentant and takes steps to change and make amends, the Church hopes for and encourages reconciliation. But if a spouse refuses treatment or continues the adulterous behavior, the next step would be a civil divorce. It is only after separation and a civil divorce that the annulment process can begin. However, even after a civil divorce, there is still hope of reconciliation.

It's important to remember that when a couple gets married, they marry for better and for worse. This means there is a call and an expectation to work things out, to forgive, to repair the hurt, and to not rush to divorce. But, to be sure, if you are dealing with addiction, abuse, or infidelity in your relationship, the Church supports your need to be secure. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The more we feel our hearts are agitated, the more we sense we are nervous, impatient, angry inside, the more we need to ask the Lord for the Spirit of peace. Let us learn to say every day: "Lord, give me your peace, give me your Holy Spirit."... And let us also ask this...for those we meet each day.
