From the Pastor's Desk ...

A FITTING PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR OF OUR LORD 2024:

From the pen of St. Francis de Sales [1567-1622] comes one of my favorite prayers, which I would like to share with you. The New Year 2024 will be filled with many possibilities and uncertainties, to say the least. In times of anxiety, St. Francis reminds us that we can always look to God with confidence and trust. The Lord is with us ... always. He accompanies us. He strengthens us. We are never alone.

Be at peace.

Do not look forward in fear to the changes of life;
rather look to them with full hope that, as they arise,
God, whose very own you are, will lead you safely through all things;
and when you cannot stand it, God will carry you in His arms.

Do not fear what may happen tomorrow;
the same understanding Father who cares for you today
will take care of you then and every day.

He will either shield you from suffering, or will give you unfailing strength to bear it.

Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations.

HERE TO STAY ... FOR A WHILE:

As the New Year begins, I just want to let everyone know that I have no plans of requesting a change in assignment within the diocese; so I won't be moving anywhere else any time soon. I suppose that could either be good news or not so good news for some, depending on one's perspective. But here's what you need to know: Sunday Masses at the Parish of the Holy Spirit will continue to last between 1 hour and 10 minutes. Daily Masses will continue to last about 40 minutes. Days for Confession will continue to be Tuesdays and Sundays (not Saturdays). I am the only priest you've got. Even the parish in Benton City has two priests. So, if you're not pleased with my spiritual leadership—or if my personality or style of serving Jesus Christ as a priest has, in any way, become a stumbling block to your spiritual growth—then perhaps it's time for you to consider what other priests or parishes in our local area may have to offer you. For my part, I hope you will continue to remain with us here at the Parish of the Holy Spirit.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year,

F. Michael

A Prayer before Mass

O God, my God, Mass is about to begin.
You have called me to be part of this liturgy;
you have prepared a place for me at the table;
you want me to be here today.
Help me to enter into the Mass with heart and mind, body and voice: with my whole self.
Around me are the others you have called:
not strangers, but my family in faith.
Help me to recognize your presence in them.
May we honor each other's gifts,
put up with each other's weaknesses,
treasure our unity and rejoice in our diversity.
As we celebrate Mass together,
may we truly become what we receive:
the Body of Christ for a world in need.
Amen.

Gratitude Corner

To all those who teach, listen, encourage, strengthen, and fortify the faith of our youth, we can never thank you enough. Your dedication to Holy Spirit's vibrant religious education programs is inspiring. In sharing your time, energy, and, your patience, you are vital to the future of our children's spiritual life and their witness to Jesus in the world. We are entirely and utterly grateful. May God bless you richly as you engage in His service as catechists and volunteers.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

I have heard people say, “You don't get to choose your family!” I believe that to be only partially true. I did not choose my father and mother, but my family is greater than my family tree of ancestors. My family includes those who have been there for me when both my father and mother passed away. My family includes those who came to see my newborn children in the hospital. My family includes those who celebrated my greatest triumphs and consoled me in my greatest times of trial. Each and every one of them I have chosen to be a part of my family.

Most of the time we talk about stewardship in terms of time, talent, and treasure. We quantify the size of our gifts, seeing them as things that have a finite value. However, true stewardship has no limits. When we fully empty ourselves into another and into the reality of God we find ourselves transformed. We truly grow into our own as the creations we became at baptism.

It is in that transformation that we find ourselves connected to others in a profound way. Those who are not connected to us by blood are connected to us by spirit. Our family, the Body of Christ, grows and becomes stronger. In this family, a man or a woman can be a father or mother to a son or daughter not of their flesh. In this family, we find our hope and our home.

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

"By faith, Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance ... " (Hebrews 11:8)

"When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord ... " (Luke 2: 22-23)

Just like Abraham, Mary and Joseph were also obedient to the Lord. If you should be called to serve the Lord as a priest, permanent deacon, or brother or sister in religious life, pray for the faith to obey the Lord in love.

HOLY SPIRIT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE

December is a five-Sunday month. After every Mass this weekend, a second collection will be taken up to support our parish's St. Vincent de Paul Conference. This month, among the many people our Vincentians served, we met a lady who has been unable to work for about a year due to an injury. We helped her with food and gas, and pointed her to other resources. Thank you for your contributions this weekend.

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES IN EVERYDAY LIFE (SEEL)

Ignatian spirituality encourages us to ask the question: What more does God want of me? Through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, we can explore God in creation, develop various prayer methods, learn the rules for discernment, but these all work together to help us discover the deeper questions: Why am I here on earth? What does God want of me now? As we watch Jesus grow and begin his ministry, we learn how to love him and follow him, so when God calls, we are ready to answer. The Spiritual Exercises show us how to listen to that call, and discern how to proceed.

The next meeting of the SEEL will be Saturday, January 13 at 9:00 a.m. in PCC rooms 6/8 and online on the Zoom app. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

According to the IRS rules for charitable donations, if a check made out to the Parish of the Holy Spirit is dated before or on December 31, 2023, but the check is received in the office January 1, 2024 or later (by U.S. mail or hand-delivered), that check amount must be recognized as a donation in 2024.

THE HOLY FACE OF JESUS

"Seek the Lord and His strength; Seek His face continually." Psalm 105:4

"Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
And teach me Your statutes." Psalm 119:145

St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face

Show us thy face and we shall be saved. Throughout the history of the world people have longed to see the face of God. The face of Jesus Christ is both a sign of God's divinity and his humanity. Jesus knew we would seek his face and long to see it. He showed us his Holy Face during his life, death, and resurrection.

On Epiphany 1849 he answered that call again. When the pope had to flee Rome due to a revolution, God allowed the veil of Veronica to be miraculously illuminated allowing the imprinted face of Jesus on his way to Calvary to be seen clearly, for the first time in centuries, for three days. Artists were brought in to capture Jesus' image, those images were printed, touched to the true veil and sent out to the religious. One religious man, Leo Dupont, worked 6,000 verified miracles in front of one such print.

It was the favorite devotion of St. Therese the Little Flower, whose name in religious life was Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face.

Short daily prayers, revelations, and a chaplet were given to a little known nun, Sister Mary of Saint Peter. This chaplet was given to her to be the devotion to fight communism, a concept she had never heard of before.

The Lord showed us his face. Let us seek it, let us love and adore his face as Mother Mary did, as the saints in heaven do. If you are looking to increase your love of Jesus, consider making this devotion your own.

To learn more about this beautiful devotion, stop by the parish office. There are copies of the autobiography of Sister Mary, chaplets, plaques, and framed copies of the image from the veil of Veronica. These are all free and waiting for you! But supplies are limited so head over today! All of these materials have been made available to us by a family from our parish who has a deep devotion to the Holy Face. We thank the Von Rotz family for sharing these materials with us.

Family Gifts

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I asked some folks what they carried with them as their most treasured gift from their parents. One spoke of the gift of freedom. As an adult he always felt loved and welcomed by his parents. Although he was not always able to visit them as frequently as his life would allow, he was never made to feel guilty about it. It was an atmosphere unpressured by any “have-tos” whether it concerned choices for marriage or profession or simply for occasional family visits.

Another spoke of being taught by example that love in a family always extends to welcoming the stranger, caring for the unfortunate, opening one’s home to those in pain. She learned to live that way because that was how her parents lived.

Yet another spoke of her father’s gentleness and faithfulness as treasured gifts. And in truth she herself had become gentle and faithful, both with life and with God. Yet another took note of his parents’ acceptance and openness to differing cultures and traditions and value systems. It was a way of living he now took to himself and his own family.

Not every family may seem as graced as these individuals remember their own families, and no doubt these families had flaws, too. Yet those qualities of a believer, enumerated by St. Paul in his Letter to the Colossians, make for good family life as well: “heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another. And over all these put on love” (Colossians 3:12-14). ●

Reflect

What gift from your family do you hope to pass to the next generation?

The child grew and became strong,
filled with wisdom; and the favor of
God was upon him.

LUKE 2:40

Dear Padre,

How much should we support our adult children? We have a niece and a daughter who are both healthy, capable, and in their twenties. We have set boundaries and continue to give to them but they just can't seem to get their act together. Would it be unchristian to cut them off?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes in detail the duties of family members toward each other (CCC 2214–33). Parents are responsible to ensure that their children grow up in faith and to meet their basic needs. Children should show respect toward their parents and, as they grow older, assist them as needed. As children become adults, they should take on responsibility for themselves and parents are not to pressure them into choices of a profession or a spouse, while at the same time, “giving their children judicious advice...” (CCC 2230). At some point, children need to become responsible adults, which brings us to your point.

You seem to have done what is required as parents. At the same time, you would not want to abandon young adults if physical, mental, or emotional factors prevent them from assuming the responsibility of adulthood. If they are healthy, capable young people they should be able to progress in life without your financial assistance. To help them toward this goal, you may want to set very specific limits, perhaps with the help of a counselor, and then consistently follow those limits. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

In imitation of the Holy Family, we are called to rediscover the educational value of the family unit: it requires being founded on the love that always regenerates relationships.... [I]f you quarrel within the family, do not end the day without making peace.... And do you know why? Because a cold war, day after day, is extremely dangerous.
