THE EPIPHANY

In the Catholic Church, the Epiphany, typically celebrated on the Sunday closest to January 6th, holds profound theological significance. It marks the revelation of Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Savior to all nations, symbolized by the visit of the Magi, or Wise Men, from the East. This feast is also known as Theophany, meaning the manifestation of God.

KEY MEANINGS OF THE EPIPHANY

Revelation to the Gentiles: The primary meaning of the Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus to the Gentiles, represented by the Magi. This signifies that Christ's salvation is intended for all people, not just the Jewish nation. The Magi's visit, guided by the Star of Bethlehem, illustrates the universal scope of Jesus' mission.

Recognition of Jesus as King and God: The gifts brought by the Magi—gold, frankincense, and myrrh—carry deep symbolic meanings:

- Gold signifies Jesus' kingship.
- Frankincense represents Jesus' divinity and role as a high priest.
- Myrrh foreshadows Jesus' suffering and death, highlighting his role as Savior.

Divine Guidance and Obedience: The Magi's journey following the star emphasizes the theme of divine guidance. Their obedience to God's leading, even from distant lands, encourages believers to seek and follow God's will in their own lives.

Manifestation of God's Glory: The Epiphany also celebrates the broader theme of God's glory being revealed to the world. This encompasses not just the visit of the Magi but also, in some traditions, Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River, where God the Father proclaims him as his beloved Son, and the miracle at the wedding feast in Cana, where Jesus first reveals his divine power.

The Epiphany is a reminder of the divine revelation of Jesus as the Messiah and the Light of the World. It invites Christians to reflect on the inclusivity of Christ's message and the call to bring the light of Christ to all corners of the earth. It also underscores the importance of seeking and recognizing God's presence in the world, just as the Magi did when they followed the star to Bethlehem.

HISTORY OF THE EPIPHANY

The Epiphany originated in the Eastern Christian tradition in the 3rd century. Initially, it was a broader celebration encompassing not only the visit of the Magi but also Jesus' baptism and the miracle at the wedding feast of Cana.

By the 4th century, the Western Church began to adopt the feast, focusing primarily on the visit of the Magi, while Jesus' baptism was celebrated separately on January 13th.

In the Eastern Orthodox Church, the Epiphany is also known as Theophany, highlighting Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River. The Great Blessing of the Waters, a tradition where bodies of water are blessed, became an integral part of the celebration, symbolizing the sanctification of creation through Christ.

In Western Christianity, the emphasis on the Magi, or Three Kings, led to various cultural traditions. By the Middle Ages, the feast had evolved to include pageants and plays depicting the journey of the Wise Men and their adoration of the Christ Child.

During the medieval period, Epiphany became associated with royal feasts and the giving of gifts, reflecting the Magi's offerings to Jesus. This tradition persisted into the Renaissance, with elaborate celebrations and the baking of special cakes, such as the Galette des Rois in France and the Rosca de Reyes in Spain. The tradition of the Epiphany Proclamation, announcing the dates of the movable feasts for the year, also emerged during this period, reinforcing the liturgical importance of the feast.

Today, Epiphany is celebrated worldwide with diverse customs. In many Spanish-speaking countries, it is known as Three Kings' Day and features parades, gift-giving, and special foods. In Eastern Orthodox communities, the Great Blessing of the Waters remains a central ritual, often accompanied by outdoor processions and cross-diving ceremonies.

Epiphany Morning Prayer

Father, you revealed your Son to the nations by the guidance of a star. Lead us to your glory in heaven by the light of faith. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen

—The Liturgy of the Hours

THE JOURNEY OF THE MAGI

The Magi, also known as the Wise Men or the Three Kings, were learned men from the East. They were likely scholars or priests well-versed in astronomy and astrology, coming from regions such as Persia (modern-day Iran), Babylon (modern-day Iraq), or Arabia.

The Star of Bethlehem

The journey began when the Magi observed a unique and bright star in the sky. They interpreted this celestial event as the sign of the birth of a significant king, specifically the "king of the Jews." This star, often called the Star of Bethlehem, guided them westward towards Jerusalem.

The Journey to Jerusalem

Following the star, the Magi embarked on a long and arduous journey. The exact distance and time taken are not specified in the Gospel of Matthew, but such a journey would have been lengthy and challenging, likely taking several months.

Encounter with King Herod

Upon reaching Jerusalem, the Magi visited King Herod, inquiring about the newborn king's whereabouts. This news troubled Herod, who saw the potential threat to his throne. Herod consulted his own priests and scribes, who cited the prophecy from Micah that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. Herod then directed the Magi to Bethlehem, deceitfully asking them to report back so he too could "worship" the child.

Finding Jesus

Guided once again by the star, the Magi continued to Bethlehem. The star stopped over the place where Jesus was. Unlike the traditional nativity scenes, the Gospel suggests that the Magi found Jesus in a house, as by this time Mary and Joseph might have found more stable accommodation.

Gifts, Worship and Departure.

The Magi presented Jesus with the gifts of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh and then worshipped him recognizing Jesus' significance and divine nature.

After their visit, the Magi were warned in a dream not to return to Herod. Obeying the divine warning, they returned to their country by a different route, avoiding further contact with Herod and thus protecting the Holy Family.

Thank you for maintaining your financial support of our parish as you are able. If you'd prefer to mail an offering, please send it to Parish of the Holy Spirit, 7409 W. Clearwater Ave., Kennewick, WA 99336. If you are currently using offering envelopes and would like to switch to online giving (or bill-payer from your bank), please call the parish office so we can discontinue your envelope mailings with our printing service. Thank you.

The Epiphany of the Lord on January 4th offers us the chance to observe a time-honored Christian tradition of "chalking the doors," where we mark the entryway of our homes with blessed chalk. Deacon Ken and Cindy Ellis bring this tradition to us from a parish in Idaho. We'll provide packets including chalk, information, and prayers after all Masses this weekend. The chalk will be blessed at our 4:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, January 3rd and distributed in the vestibule after all Masses. This is a practice whereby we dedicate our New Year to God from its very outset, asking His blessing on our homes and on all who live, work, or visit there.

Do you know someone who is (or feels) alienated from the Catholic Church, or someone who may wish to reestablish ties with God and the local church community? If you know someone in this situation, or are yourself interested in finding a place to begin again, consider the COMING HOME Program. This program is designed for inactive Catholics and offers the opportunity for questions to be explored in a respectful environment. Join us for our Information Night on Monday, January 26th at 7:00 p.m. at Christ the King Catholic Church in Richland. For questions or further information, call Meggin Sanner at 541-571-8402 or email ckadultre@gmail.com.

Work on the repair of our church roof is continuing, though it has been slowed due to holidays and continued wet weather. At this time, we are not sure exactly how long it will take to completely repair the water damage recently sustained in our church's interior. Dehumidifying efforts are ongoing and are being monitored closely by our restoration company.

HOLY SPIRIT'S MINISTRY TO THE INCARCERATED

Below are notes received by Mary Hoffman, Robin Rego, and Deacon Mike Gaulke in appreciation of our parish Jail Ministry's efforts in distributing Christmas gifts at Benton County Jail, Franklin County Jail, and the Benton-Franklin Counties Juvenile Justice Center. Parishioners donated postage stamps, and stuffed gift bags with socks, notebooks, and food items donated by our parish. This ministry also organized and added calendars, holy cards, shampoo, and soap donated from outside of our parish to the gift bags. In addition, Mary Hoffman and Robin Rego spent time and led Christmas carols at the Benton-Franklin Juvenile Justice Center.

December 15, 2025

Dear: Robin, Mary & Volunteers

It has been a pleasure working with you and the kindness of the Holy Spirit church.

We want to thank the Jail ministry and all the Volunteers for taking time to put together the Christmas sacks for the Adults and Youth that are incarcerated in the Tri-City area at Christmas.

Robin and Mary donated their time to visit the Juvenile Center, singing Christmas carols with the youth. They also spent time talking with youth and personally handing out the gift bags donated from the Holy Spirit congregation.

Juvenile Detention staff and youth can't thank you enough for the wonderful Christmas gift sacks the youth receive. They get so excited to receive their gift. We also want to thank Mary for providing the cookies the youth enjoyed eating while they sang the Christmas carols.

God bless and thank you for your service

Rudy Ruelas, Detention Manager

Linda Brown, Detention Records Clerk

Robin, thank you and your team for providing Christmas bags for the inmates at Benton County Jail. You'll continue to make a positive impact for this population. I'm still gathering thank you notes from the inmates. Again, thank you for your continued support. Chaplain Wayne/Benton County Jail

I want to take a moment to express my deepest gratitude to all of you for your unwavering support and dedication to the Christmas Gift Sack program. Your kindness and hard work have made this initiative successful, bringing joy and warmth to so many during this special season.

To everyone involved in stuffing the packages at the church hall—thank you for your tireless efforts in organizing and preparing 250 for Franklin County Jail. Your teamwork and commitment to this cause were genuinely inspiring.

I would also like to sincerely thank Robin Rego, Tammie Gilley, and Deacon Mike Gaulke for their continued support and dedication. Your role in distributing the gift has undoubtedly impact the lives of many individuals at the Franklin County Jail.

This program would not have been possible without the collective efforts of each of you. Through the generosity and teamwork of volunteers like you, we can continue spreading the love and spirit of Christmas to those who need it most. May God bless each of you for your kindness and generosity. Again, Thank you for your time, energy, and heart for your ministry.

Wishing you all a blessed and joyful Christmas season.

Warmest regards

Sincerely,

“We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

MATTHEW 2:2

Following Jesus Without a Star to Guide Us

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

“We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage” (Matthew 2:2) describes the spark that sent the Magi on their journey. Something unusual in the sky, interpreted as a sign of something wonderful—in response, they changed direction in their lives and devoted themselves to a completely different path. As wonderful as it might well be, a special star in the heavens is not the ordinary experience of how we learn to follow the Lord or discern his will. If only there could be a sign in God’s universe for each of us, beckoning us forward, clarifying what we need to do, setting down the path that needs to be followed. Perhaps life would be much simpler. Or perhaps not?

Would it truly be less complicated if everything were made clear and certain? Is the manifestation of God’s grace and blessings confined to the straight and narrow, or can we also experience God in the chaos—“in the weeds,” so to speak. Human experience seems to suggest that life is more “gray” than “black and white.” There is real grace in the journey, in making mistakes, even in choosing something that is incomplete. Thankfully, God’s grace does not need perfection to be powerful. We can know and follow God’s will for us in the ordinary moments of day-to-day living. We do not need the extraordinary or the dramatic. ●

Dear Padre,

I recently lost my husband of sixty years. I prayed for him through his four-year illness. Since he has died, I cannot pray. Any advice for me?

My heartfelt condolences on your profound loss. When someone we love dies, a part of us dies too. Sometimes, the trauma is so severe that it can even affect our relationship with God.

Psychiatrist Elisabeth Kübler-Ross identified five stages of grief. In the denial stage, some people can't accept the reality of the death. It becomes too much to handle. In the anger stage, some may question their belief in God—especially if their prayer requests (such as, "Please God, if you heal my loved one, I will...") weren't successful in the bargaining stage. People in the depression stage feel overwhelmed by the reality of the loss and may not always feel like connecting with others—even with God in prayer. However, in the acceptance stage, emotions stabilize, and a person comes to terms with their new reality. Nothing makes up for the absence of a loved one, but people manage to cope and live on.

It's because you loved so deeply that the loss feels so deep. God accepts you completely; God understands how you feel. He wants you to be at peace and live life fully. Our compassionate God yearns to help console you and offer assistance in your healing process until you can embrace him again in prayer. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Let us resolve to bring [God's] love everywhere, never forgetting that each of our sisters and brothers is a dwelling place of God and that his presence is manifested above all in the little ones, in the poor and the suffering, who ask us to be thoughtful and compassionate Christians.
