Thanks for your giving of time, talent, and treasure.

HOLY SPIRIT EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

We have an immediate need for 2 Committed Adorers on Fridays from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. (1 Adorer) and from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. (1 Adorer). A Committed Adorer is someone who commits to attend Adoration weekly in a chosen time slot. Volunteers are available to substitute for you when you have a conflict.

Eucharistic Adoration is held in the church foyer on Fridays after Mass from 9:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. At 4:30 p.m. we have prayers for vocations and for peace, followed by Benediction at 4:45 p.m. Parishioners and others are welcome to attend Adoration anytime during the day, for any length of time, but it is very important to have 2 Adorers assigned each hour, so the Lord is never left alone.

We also have 2 other time slots available from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. (1 Adorer) and 11:45 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (1 Adorer).

Please prayerfully consider spending time with the Lord each Friday. Contact Liz Friedrich at 509-539-5413 (text/call), 783-6223 (home), or at mfriedrich2@charter.net with any questions or to volunteer.

A very special thank you to Betty Martin for decorating our altar area with such beautiful and bountiful arrangements for the fall season.

Also a big thanks to our crew of dedicated and creative flower arrangers who keep our church graced with fresh and beautiful flowers and plants throughout the year.

A Note from the St. Serra Club of Tri Cities

HAND CARVED OLIVE WOOD ARTICLES MADE BY BETHLEHEM FAMILY ARTISANS

THIS WEEKEND
November 15-16, 2025

These beautiful and unique art pieces will be available for purchase after all Masses Saturday, November 15 and Sunday, November 16. Items include nativities, ornaments, crucifixes, rosaries, and statues. They make wonderful gifts.

The handicrafts trade in the Holy Land has evolved as a cultural tradition over many centuries and has become an industry of significance to the local economy in Bethlehem. The proceeds from these sales are a major source of income for 75 Catholic families who hand carve these pieces. In the past two decades, the Christian population in the Holy Land has dropped from 22% to 2%. Your purchase of these religious articles helps to support the ability of these Christian families to continue to live and thrive in the Holy Land.

Thank you for your support.

Dismantled and Reassembled

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is the time of year when seasons turn and the rhythm of life changes as days become dismantled and reassembled in new and varied ways. All of this is not unlike the much deeper process continually at play within our hearts. Indeed, the seasons of our individual lives can be dismantled and reassembled—and often more than once in a lifetime. That white-robed prophet of doom who proclaims that the end is near is right. Our lives do collapse in such cosmic ways that not one stone is left upon another. The end may come with a life-robbing illness or the premature death of someone we love. It may take the shape of an unwanted move to a new city or a life collapsed by addiction. It may happen slowly, as life forces us to surrender passion or enthusiasm or the dreams of our youth, like colors faded by sunlight yet never noticed until suddenly we realize the color has all but disappeared. Such transitions can feel as violent as the end of our lives in this world. Indeed, at such times, we may feel that a part of us has died. Yet, if we pay attention, we may discover that we have been refashioned, recreated into something new. It is the story of the divine phoenix rising from the ashes, lived by every human being and understood by every person who lives with faith in the resurrection. ●

Reflect

Have I known the experience of life being dismantled and reassembled into something new?

[Jesus said,] “All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.”

LUKE 21:6

Dear Padre,

Should the pope get involved in American politics?

No, the pope should not get involved in the politics of any country. However, politics often intersects with religious concerns and particularly gospel values. When this occurs, the Holy Father has a responsibility to preach the gospel and defend the values the gospel teaches, even when it might sound political. He pronounces and teaches the values of the gospel, regardless of what nation or politician might feel confronted or challenged by what he teaches.

What often happens is, when politicians find themselves in conflict with the gospel values the pope is teaching, they choose to say, “The pope has no business in our politics,” instead of listening. Completely understandable, at least from one perspective, but probably also disingenuous from another perspective. Politicians are fully aware of what is being proclaimed and why it is being proclaimed but choose not to listen. That, too, is completely understandable, if regrettable. One has to think only of the scribes and the Pharisees, and more particularly the high priest, who said, “Consider that it is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish” (John 11:50). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Because of the Jewish roots of Christianity, all Christians have a special relationship with Judaism.... The theological dialogue between Christians and Jews remains ever important and close to my heart. Even in these difficult times, marked by conflicts and misunderstandings, it is necessary to continue the momentum of this precious dialogue of ours.
