PREPARE FOR PENTECOST NEXT WEEKEND, OUR PARISH'S FEAST DAY:

The Solemnity of Pentecost, which commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary fifty days after the Resurrection of our Lord, concludes the Season of Easter. Pentecost is our parish's feast day; and so, in preparation for next weekend, I invite everyone to pray the following prayer during the week:

Consecration to the Holy Spirit

O Holy Spirit, receive the perfect and complete consecration of my whole being. In all my actions, grant me the grace of being my Light, my Guide, my Strength, and the Love of my heart.

I surrender myself to You, and I ask You for the grace to be faithful to Your inspiration.

Holy Spirit, transform me—through Mary and with Mary—into a true image of Christ Jesus, for the glory of the Father and the salvation of the world.

[Author: Fr. Felix de Jesús Rougier, MSpS ...
Founder, Missionaries of the Holy Spirit]

Also, next weekend, please wear something RED to Mass. We'll have festive decorations and special refreshments at every Mass. All who worship with us next weekend will also receive a small gift from the parish. It is "right and just, our duty and our salvation" to celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit and our wonderful parish! We are proud that we are one of 4 parishes in the Diocese of Yakima named for one of the Divine Persons of the Holy Trinity—the Holy Spirit [the others being Christ the King Parish, Richland, Holy Redeemer Parish, Yakima, and Holy Trinity Parish, Goldendale].

Ascension Blessings,

E. Milne

Holy Spirit St. Vincent de Paul Conference meets the first and third Thursdays of each month at 10:00 a.m. in PCC room 7. If you are available a few hours each month and are seeking a way to serve the poor, grow spiritually, and make new friends, please join us this Thursday.

On April 23, 1833, his twentieth birthday, Frédéric Ozanam and five other students met with their mentor, Emmanuel Bailly, and established the first Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Paris.

Called by Name "Come and See" Barbeque

Hosted by the Diocese of Yakima Vocations Office

The "Come and See" barbeque is a vocational event offering men an opportunity to discern what God may be calling them to, whether it is marriage, consecrated single or religious life, or priesthood.

For more information, visit yakimadiocese.org/2010/10/31/vocations/, call the Vocations Office at 509-586-3820, or send an email to discernment@yakimadiocese.org.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ICE CREAM BOOTH EVENTS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Water Follies is July 25th-27th, and the Benton-Franklin County Fair is August 19th-23rd. Anyone 14 or older can volunteer in the ice cream booth (under 16 must be with a parent or guardian). This is a great opportunity for family time and service to our parish and community. We need help from all parishioners and member Knights. Earnings from these events give us the funds necessary to continue our charitable endeavors, which focus on the Corporal Works of Mercy.

This year we have added the ability to sign up to volunteer via the internet. Please visit <https://kofc.volunteerlocal.com/volunteer/?id=100331> to sign up for your desired shifts. Additionally, you can email us at kofcicecream@gmail.com or call David Konzek 509-947-0517 or Deacon Ken Ellis 509-948-4355 with questions or to volunteer.

STEWARDSHIP: In our first reading for this weekend, Jesus tells His followers, “ ... you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” We, too, have been baptized and therefore imbued with the Holy Spirit. We are called to serve; we are called to discipleship; we are called to lives of stewardship; we are reminded of that in all of today’s readings.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

God's Game of Telephone

You've probably played the game of “pass it on” before, maybe years ago on the playground. It's a simple concept: one person whispers something in another person's ear, and it gets repeated person by person throughout the group, until finally the last one to hear the message has to say it out loud. Whatever ends up being said at the end of the game is usually a far cry from the original statement, and everyone has a good laugh.

As individuals, we don't all receive news in the same way. Our personalities, our histories, our weaknesses, and our strengths determine how we interact with the information we encounter in the world, both good and bad. One person will interpret a compliment positively; someone else will take offense. One person reacts to news of a job promotion with joy, another is disappointed that now they will have less time to spend with their family. The same news can mean completely different things to different people.

But what God gives us is the truth in love, and the truth in love is the same in every place and in every time, for every person of every race. When Christ prayed to the Father that “the love with which you loved me may be in them,” he was asking that the magnificent gift that had been imparted to him would also be imparted to us.

Our job is to play a game of “pass it on” with this gift of love. How do we keep it from becoming warped? Through remaining committed to the word of God, to prayer, to the sacraments, and to one another.

In this game, we don't change the message. The message changes us. And we have to give it away to keep it.

From Washington bishops to the lay faithful

Subject: Update on State Law

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As you may know, Governor Ferguson signed into law a provision that seeks to require priests to violate the Seal of the Confessional in some circumstances. Priests are unable to violate the Seal under any circumstances. As the Vatican wrote on the topic in 2019,

The inviolable secrecy of Confession comes directly from the revealed divine right and is rooted in the very nature of the Sacrament, to the point of not admitting any exception in the ecclesial sphere, nor, least of all, in the civil one.¹

Indeed, the Church has said that “political action or legislative initiative[s] aimed at ‘breaching’ the inviolability of the seal” are “an unacceptable offense against libertas Ecclesiae, which does not receive its legitimacy from individual States, but from God.”²

Given this troubling development in state law, we are addressing this matter through litigation. While the details of this case are sensitive and will be handled with care, we want to assure you that this action is being taken to protect the mission and integrity of the Church.

The United States and Washington State Constitutions provide robust protection for our faith and we are confident in our legal position. Our attorneys have filed the case, and we will keep you informed as appropriate, while respecting the confidentiality required in such matters.

Thank you for your prayers and faithfulness. May God bless you, and may Our Lady keep you in her care.

Why Doesn't God Do Something?

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is said that we never grow up until both parents have died, when we can no longer go home. Yet, for each of us, there may also be a symbolic moment that moves us from childhood into adulthood. It may be achieving financial independence, graduating from school, or moving out on our own. Whatever it may be, we say to ourselves, “I am now grown up.” Whenever such moments occur, we feel empowered to shape our lives and our future.

The feast of the Ascension is that sort of marker: God has empowered us to shape the world in the image of Jesus. Just as our parents empower us into an adulthood that contributes to life, it is now God who empowers us with the very same power by which he raised Jesus from the dead. It is a power and a presence by which God makes the world new through us.

There are those who say they no longer believe in God, because if there is a good God, then he would not allow violence, the death of children before their time, and all sorts of evil that mars human life. Perhaps the greater question is not “Why doesn't God do something?” but rather “Why do we not do something?” To pass on the responsibility to God is to abdicate our own responsibility and deny the fact that God continues to empower us as adults and expects us to utilize that power and presence to make all things new. ●

Reflect

In what ways do I act like an adult?
How is the world a better place because of me?

[Jesus said,] “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

ACTS 1:8

Dear Padre,

What does the Catholic Church teach about miracles?

Miracles are extraordinary occurrences without natural explanation that manifest the presence and power of God. We believe in miracles “because of the authority of God himself who reveals them, who can neither deceive nor be deceived” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 156).

Christ’s multiplication of the loaves is the only miracle recorded by all four evangelists. He performed many other natural miracles—calming the storm, walking on water—and numerous healings as well—curing the deaf and mute, the woman with a hemorrhage. These signs attest that the Father sent Jesus and “they invite belief in him” (CCC, 548). Moreover, Jesus’ miracles “also confirm that the kingdom has already arrived on earth...” (“Dogmatic Constitution on the Church,” 5).

Today, God still manifests his presence in the Church through miracles. For example, potential medical healings are rigorously investigated by the Vatican for sainthood causes. Other supernatural occurrences—such as apparitions and eucharistic phenomena—are likewise thoroughly and prudently investigated with caution to maintain the Church’s credibility and prevent confusion among the faithful.

To that end, in May 2024, the Vatican updated its guidelines for assessing apparitions, visions, and alleged revelations, and reaffirmed that a bishop cannot rule on the validity of a particular case before the pope formally deems it to be “supernatural” for pastoral value. (Search “Norms for Proceeding in the Discernment of Alleged Supernatural Phenomena” at Vatican.va.) ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Do we know how to make ourselves intercessors for others, that is, do we know how to pray for them and bless their lives?... Let us learn this: intercessory prayer, interceding for the hopes and sufferings of the world, interceding for peace. And let us bless with our eyes and our words those we meet every day!
