VISIT TO HOLY SPIRIT PARISH OF THE INTERNATIONAL PILGRIMAGE STATUE OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA:

From Wednesday, November 8th (evening) to Wednesday, November 15th (late morning) our parish will become a temporary shrine for a special statue of Our Lady of Fatima. This statue of our Blessed Mother is one of nine images blessed by Pope Francis and sent out on "pilgrimage" to the world. The statue that we will be hosting has already traveled widely throughout the state of Washington this calendar year.

The purpose of this "pilgrimage" is to foster deeper devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the patronage of Our Lady of Fatima. In her apparitions to several shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal in the early 20th Century, Our Lady encouraged all her spiritual children—that's us—to pray the Holy Rosary frequently for world peace and for the conversion of souls (in particular, in the Soviet Union (now Russia)).

You are welcome to spend time with Mary's image, offering Our Lady of Fatima your prayers and veneration. Join parishioners after our daily Masses in praying the Holy Rosary near the statue. Our Masses on the weekend of November 11th and November 12th will all conclude with a short devotional ritual to honor Our Lady of Fatima's presence at Holy Spirit Parish.

God's Blessings,

2023-2024 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

This is Pledge Weekend for the Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal. Our parish goal is not only a monetary one ($121,614.00), it is 100% participation among Holy Spirit parishioners. To achieve this goal, each of us is asked to prayerfully open our hearts to the needs of our diocese and make a gift as our individual circumstances allow. Extra envelopes are available in the vestibule. If you would like to donate online, please visit www.yakimadiocese.org or scan the QR code (at right or on your pledge card).

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC— RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Heavy Burden, Hard to Carry

"Mommy, you haven't been making any sacrifices."

My daughter was peering through the little opening in the plastic cover of the "sacrifice jar" we made for Lent this past year. The repurposed oatmeal container, jazzed up with glitter glue and pictures of St. Therese of Lisieux, was more than half-filled with little slips of paper bearing descriptions of the various sacrifices family members had made for one another.

But she was right: every piece of paper bore the childlike scrawl of herself and her brother. I had not added anything to the sacrifice jar.

"If I wrote down every sacrifice I made for you in just a single day, the jar would explode," I retorted. Even though my daughter giggled, I instantly regretted the comment, sighing as I realized I did it again. I let a snide, self-pitying thought form on my lips and make its way into the world because, for a brief moment, I thought someone didn't appreciate my hard work.

We might sneer at the scribes and the Pharisees as Jesus describes them in the Gospel, lengthening their phylacteries and coveting the places of honor. But then I remember: nobody starts out meaning to be a jerk.

We want to do good things. We try to be holy. But it's hard, and that burden weighs heavy on our back.

Naturally, we sometimes feel discouraged when our sacrifices—big or small—are not recognized or appreciated by others; but we are reminded by Jesus that one of the problems with the Pharisees is that "all their works are performed to be seen." Getting recognition for their good works is what motivates the Pharisees to do them in the first place. What about me? Is that what drives my desire to make sacrifices for my family? What the Lord wants, of me and all of His followers, is humility and confidence in knowing that He sees our good works and sacrifices. And that's what counts in the end.

"The greatest among you must be your servant." — Matthew 23:11

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

"In You, Lord, I have found my peace." (Response for Psalm 131) In the vocation desired for you by the Holy Spirit, you will find your peace. Please pray that more people will respond to God's call to be priests, permanent deacons, sisters or brothers in consecrated life.

The first full week of November is National Vocations Awareness Week. In your families, please pray to sustain those who have chosen to follow their vocations as priests, permanent deacons, sisters and brothers. Without them we would not have access to the sacraments or the benefits offered to us by many religious institutions and Catholic charitable organizations.

Upcoming Opportunity to Purchase Holy Land Art

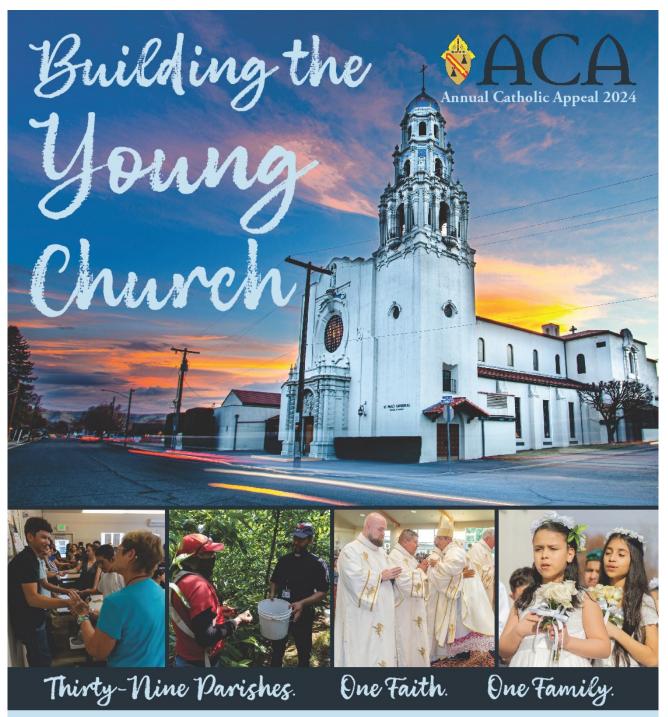

For centuries, Catholics and other Christians living in Bethlehem have supported their families by carving olive wood religious art for visiting pilgrims. However, the ongoing conflict in the Holy Land and the resulting decrease in tourism in Israel and Palestine have reduced the percentage of Christians living in the Holy Land to less than 2%. Many have had to leave and live abroad just to make a living.

On the weekend of November 11 - 12, the Holy Land Art Group will be in the vestibule displaying handmade olive wood carvings for purchase. Kindly stop by the displays after each Mass.

Our mission is to help families and artisans in Bethlehem to thrive, and to sustain the tradition of Christian handicraft and workmanship there.

On behalf of the many artisan families in the Holy Land, thank you for your continued support. Please continue to pray for the Christians of the Holy Land.

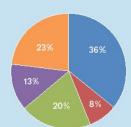

Gratefully, Holy Land Art Group

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A Church on the Way

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

n July 2013, as part of a visit to Brazil, Pope Francis met with the Latin American conference of bishops.

Speaking informally, bishop to bishops, he said, "At times we lose people because they don't understand what we are saying, because we have forgotten the language of simplicity and import an intellectualism foreign to our people."

I thought about how his words could be applied in my parish, so one Sunday I asked the people in the pews what they looked for from the Church. I was impressed and touched by their answers: wisdom to make their way through life; where and how to find God; a desire to be treated like adults; compassion for themselves and for others; guidance to reach out to the needy in society; a link between faith and life; a place to find some peace and quiet; wisdom for the political process. It was a list by which we who lead need to examine our consciences.

The charge from Pope Francis is to be a Church that speaks to people where they are with the words of everyday life. We look for wisdom that enables us to become our best selves. And that is what healthy religion is about: to guide rather than to control; to inspire rather than to shame; to participate fully rather than to simply "pray, pay, and obey." •

—Reflect-

What have you found in the Church and what more do you long for?

"(The Eucharist) has been blessed by the word of prayer instituted by Him, and from it our flesh and blood, by assimilation, are nourished. This, we are taught, is both the Flesh and Blood of Jesus incarnate."

St. Justin

"The seeming bread is not bread, though sensible to taste, but the Body of Christ; and the seeming wine is not wine, though the taste would have it so, but the Blood of Christ."

St. Cyril of Jerusalem

"You ought so to partake at the Holy Table as to have no doubt at all concerning the reality of the Body and Blood of Christ. For what is taken in the mouth is that which is believed by faith."

St. Leo the Great

Eucharistic Miracle of

During a Mass in Boxmeer, in Holland, in the year 1400, the species of wine was transformed into Blood and bubbled out of the chalice, splashing onto the corporal. As soon as the priest, terrorized at the sight, asked God to forgive his doubts, the Blood stopped bubbling out of the chalice. The Blood that had fallen on the corporal coagulated into a lump the size of a walnut. Even today one can see the Blood, which it has not changed at all over time.

he Eucharistic Miracle of Boxmeer took place in the church of Saints Peter and Paul in 1400. Father Arnoldus Groen was celebrating Mass and immediately after having consecrated the Eucharistic species, doubted the Real Presence of the Lord in the consecrated bread and the wine. Without warning, the species of the wine, almost like it was boiling, began bubbling out of the chalice onto the corporal.

The wine was changed into Blood and coagulated in a great lump. The reliquary of the corporal and the Blood is preserved to this day and the anniversary of the miracle is celebrated with an annual solemn procession. There are many documents that describe the miracle, as well as stone tablets and paintings. Popes Clement XI, Benedict XIV, Pius IX and Leo XIII all showed a particular devotion to the miracle.

Parish of the Holy Spirit

One Minute Meditations

St. Margaret of Scotland

A Hungarian princess, St.

Margaret grew up in luxury and privilege, but she never lost sight of those in need and her duty to serve them. After the Battle of Hastings, her family fled to Scotland where King Malcom III sheltered them and eventually married Margaret. Although a queen, her private life was austere, dedicated to prayer and serving the poor—even washing beggars' feet. She is remembered for her life of piety, kindness, and generosity.

Christ the King

What does it mean to say Christ is King? Do we give Him our Sundays only, or the whole week? Set aside ten minutes for God. Offer Him the events of your day and say, "Your will be done."

"No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and [the world]" (Luke 16:13).

Thanksgiving can inspire gratitude in action

St. Mother Teresa said, "It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving." At Thanksgiving, we bask in the glow of our blessings but it's also a chance to share them with others. This is "gratitude in action:"

Be generous with your time. God can't be outdone in generosity. He gives life in His image and likeness. He gave the gift of Himself in Christ's offering on the Cross. In that spirit, how can you give of yourself? Prayerfully consider where and to whom you can give your time and attention.

Be generous with your patience. Ours is the God of second chances, generous with His mercy. Decide to generously give others the benefit of the doubt, allow room for good intentions, and forgive injuries. Love as God loves > by extending patience and forgiveness without limit. Be generous with your family.

> > Mother Teresa said, "If you want to bring happiness to the whole world, go home and love your family "Make your and love your family." Make your family your top priority and give your loved ones the very best of yourself. Be generous with your joy. Holidays can be difficult for people without connections. Look for someone at church, at work, or in the neighborhood who might need a place to celebrate the holiday. Share holiday love and joy.

Why do Catholics pray for the dead?

The practice of praying for the dead is an Act of Mercy and has Scriptural roots: "Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be absolved from their sin" (2 Maccabees 12:45-46). Someone who dies in God's friendship with sin on his soul must be purified before entering heaven. We can literally help souls get to heaven. Rest assured: if the person we've prayed for reaches heaven, the graces of those prayers are used to help other souls.

Dealing with loss and those left behind

Christians know that death leads to marvelous new life, but it is still difficult to lose someone we love. We take comfort knowing that we remain connected in the Communion of Saints, the spiritual solidarity binding the faithful on Earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the saints in Heaven. Still, finding or offering comfort after a death can be challenging:

Pray. Pray that the souls who have died may find their place in Heaven. Perhaps arrange to have that prayer included in the intentions during Mass in your parish. Including them in your daily prayers also helps to keep their intentions alive.

Be present. Attend the visitation or funeral. Such customs are part of honoring and praying for the deceased person and showing compassion to the living.

Offer material support. Bring a meal to the family. Mass cards, notes and phone calls can also offer comfort.

Contribute. Consider making a donation of time or money to organizations such as a local Hospice that provide grace and dignity to those dying.

Matthew 25:31-46, Showing mercy to the "least"

In this Gospel reading, Jesus describes the coming of the Son of Man, that is, of His glorious return on the last day. Jesus will appear at the end of time as the King of the nations and the Judge of history. Everyone who has ever lived, from the

from the greatest to the least, will stand before Christ. All of us will be judged on how we loved, especially how we treated "the least" who are suffering among us.

The specific criterion for judgment is the basis for the first to the last,

Corporal Works of Mercy, which are: feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked and welcome the stranger, care for the sick and imprisoned, and bury the dead. In the end, we will be judged on our response to the suffering of others. Do we, like the "blessed," respond with compassion and mercy, or do we, like the others, turn a blind eve and do nothing? The goal is to see Christ in others and to minister to their needs accordingly.

November 1 - All Saints Day (Holy Day of Obligation). In the early Church, there was a great desire to celebrate each of the martyrs. Because there were more martyrs than days of the year, Pope Gregory IV designated November 1 as All Saints Day. Celebrate the Saints by attending Mass.

November 10 - Pope St. Leo the Great (461). A native of Rome, St. Leo was elected pope while on a mission in Gaul. As pope, he defended the faith from heresy and promoted ecclesiastical unity.

November 18 - St. Rose Philippine Duchesne (1852). Born in Grenoble, France, she joined the Society of the Sacred Heart and came to America as a missionary. She opened the first free school for girls west of the Mississippi river, and the first Catholic school for Native Americans.

November 26 - Solemnity of Christ the King. God promised His people a king who would triumph over their enemies. Jesus is our King. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under His kingship.

Q How does the & Church decide A who is a saint?

There are many people in Heaven who are saints but whose names we may never know. They are uncanonized saints. Canonization is the formal process by which the Church identifies and determines whether someone has become a saint.

In its simplest form, official Church procedures detail three steps to recognizing a saint. First, the bishop of the diocese where the person died begins an extensive investigation. The results are passed to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. If the Congregation approves, the prefect presents the cause to the pope. With the pope's approval, the petitioner becomes "venerable" and is called "Servant of God."

Next, "beatification," may come after further investigation and a miracle has proven to be attributed to the Servant of God's intercession after his or her death. Then the person can be called "Blessed."

Finally, canonization may follow additional investigation and a second miracle also proven to have occurred after the beatification and as a result of the candidate's intercession. After canonization, the "Blessed" is called "Saint."

Dear Padre,

I would like to do more spiritual reading, but everything I've tried is either over my head or too sweet and pious for me. Do you have suggestions for any down-to-earth authors?

You might try reading shorter works. More is not necessarily better. Consider several publications available at Liguori.org. In My Own Words is a series of books that gathers excerpts from different authors: Dorothy Day, Sr. Thea Bowman, Pope St. John Paul II, and others. Also consider the Wisdom series for Advent and Christmas or Lent and Easter. These include the writings of ancients and a few more current authors like Pope Francis, Henri Nouwen, and Thomas Merton. Daybreaks for Advent and Lent are booklets of short meditations for each day of each season. Catholic Update, a four-page newsletter from Liquori, features indepth articles on contemporary topics written by expert authors.

C. S. Lewis was a prolific and popular Christian author. His Mere Christianity is practical and informative. A Grief Observed is a beautiful meditation for those who have lost someone dear to them, as is Henri Nouwen's In Memoriam. Merton's New Seeds of Contemplation has inspired readers since it was first published in 1949.

Thomas Merton, a Trappist monk and one of the most influential Catholic authors of the 1900s

Finally, the best place to start might be the Gospel of Mark-not to study or analyze. Rather, read it just to get to know Jesus a little better.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

People today are attracted by things that are faster and faster: rapid Internet connections, speedy cars and planes, instant relationships. But at the same time we see a desperate need for calmness, I would even say slowness. Is the Church still able to move slowly: to take the time to listen, to have the patience to mend and reassemble?
