From the Pastor's Desk ...

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR IS THIS SUNDAY:

In his Apostolic Letter, Misericordia et Misera (published in 2016), Pope Francis designated the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time each year as the World Day of the Poor. Note that the designation is NOT the "World Day to Eliminate Poverty." Pope Francis is reminding us that the poor have their inherent dignity. This is what we honor on the World Day of the Poor. Must we continue to work toward the elimination of poverty and the many social ills which cause it? Absolutely; but as we do so, we must always keep in mind what the Lord Jesus said about the poor in St. Luke's version of the Beatitudes: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours." [Luke 6:20]

Pope Francis writes that the World Day of the Poor "will be a day that will help communities and each baptized person to reflect on how poverty is at the heart of the Gospel, and on the fact that, as long as Lazarus lies at the door of our homes (see Luke 16:19-21) there can be no justice or social peace."

Here in the U.S.A. our Catholic bishops recommend that the days preceding Thanksgiving Day be set aside for deeds of charity, penance, and prayers for economic justice.

Please pay careful attention to the daily Mass schedule for the next two weeks. [See the front cover of the bulletin OR the first interior page of the bulletin for the latest updated information.] Due to diocesan events and other commitments, daily Mass on the following Tuesdays ... November 21 and November 28 ... will be in the MORNING, at 9:00 a.m.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will NOT be offered on Tuesday, November 21 or Tuesday, November 28.

God's Blessings,

E. Michael

2023-2024 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL (ACA)

Again, we are most grateful to our loyal donors and the new donors who have pledged to the Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal. If you were not present or prepared to make a pledge previously, we urge you to do so today. Your gift is essential to sustaining the many ministries of the Diocese of Yakima. For the ACA to be a success, we need every family of the Parish of the Holy Spirit to participate this year. If you would like to donate online, please visit www.yakimadiocese.org or scan the QR code (at right or on your pledge card).

Annual Catholic Appeal Prayer

God the Father of all gifts, we praise you,
the source of all we are.

Teach us to acknowledge the many good things your infinite love has given us.

Help us respond with generous gratitude through our support of the Catholic Church across Central Washington.

Open our hearts to follow your call.

Make us messengers of the Gospel in love and service, so that all may come to know you and become your disciples.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
God for ever.

Amen.

STEWARDSHIP: Good stewards are like the industrious and reliable servants in today's Gospel, prudently using and multiplying the gifts entrusted to them.

Holy Spirit Parish Stewardship

Did you know that the Parish of the Holy Spirit is a tithing parish? We are; and so are a few other parishes in the Diocese of Yakima. What this means is, we offer 10% of our Sunday income each month to assist worthy charitable causes—both locally and worldwide. The members of the Parish Council advise Fr. Michael regarding the charitable organizations that we choose to help; and these vary from month to month.

Based on the Sunday collections we received in the month of October 2023, we are assisting the following organizations with financial help: Tri-Cities Food Bank, Hope Medical, PREPARES, our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, FOCUS (assisting Jeremiah Nguyen and Jackie Gazewood in their lay missionary work with university students), and Catholic Relief Services, which is still present and working in Gaza, providing much needed relief there despite the tragedy of the ongoing Israel-Hamas war.

Buried in Your Backyard

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried twenty-five years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others, many years later, the trends of the day and what student life was like at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone--the current students as well as those now grown--laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those twenty-five years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to him and those around us for his glory. As time has passed, hopefully we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like any item placed in a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don't need to find a shovel.

Please stop by the booklet display in the vestibule and pick up a FREE copy of The Invitation. This new booklet reminds us that a great way to get to know someone is by sitting with them and simply enjoying their company. Jesus Christ, present in the Blessed Sacrament, will show each of us that we are both lovable and loved. We can all be close to God if we sit with him in the Eucharist.

The Women's Group will be collecting new and used blankets and sleeping bags for distribution to the homeless by the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Pasco. Sadly, many of our needy neighbors are sleeping in cars or outdoors during the winter months. Please package your new or gently used blankets/sleeping bags in a plastic bag and place it inside the playpen in the vestibule through December 10. A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

"Well-done, my good and faithful servant ... Come share your master's joy." (Matthew 25:21, 23) Aren't those the words we all hope to hear someday? How are you called to use your talents? Are you being called to love the Lord with an undivided heart as a priest, permanent deacon, or religious brother or sister?

November 21 is the World Day of Prayer for those in Cloistered Life. Please pray for more people to respond to the call to consecrated lives of contemplative prayer. Women and men in cloistered communities are praying for us!

Have a very blessed and happy Thanksgiving!

The Edges: Where God Works

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Those who are willing to take great risks are often the ones who give birth to dreams of growth and new life. Often it is at the scary edge of life where such growth ultimately takes place. In 1776, those who sparked a revolution and risked their personal wealth founded a new nation. President Abraham Lincoln issued his Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, when many were urging him not to do so, thus opening the door of freedom to those who found it locked. In South Africa, Nelson Mandela risked speaking out against apartheid, was imprisoned for twenty-seven years, and was eventually freed to become the leader of a new South Africa.

So often those who risk to make life new are those who are living at the growing edge of God’s reign, instruments of God bringing creation to new life.

In the parable in this week’s Gospel, three individuals are entrusted with a treasure of great worth. The third person backs away from any risk, burying it because he is stifled by fear. God’s dynamic presence, on the other hand, grows when individuals risk doing the right thing in spite of the consequences, when they are willing to speak an unpopular truth, when they take a stand for those on the edges of society, when they break down the barriers of racism and oppression. In the end, we need to listen less to our fears and more to our dreams. It’s where God does God’s best work: at the edges. ●

Reflect

When have you risked bringing about new life?

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, "This is my Body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup after supper and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my Blood. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me." Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death, and so anyone who eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be behaving unworthily towards the Body and Blood of the Lord. Everyone is to recollect himself before eating this bread and drinking this cup; because a person who eats and drinks without recognizing the Body is eating and drinking his own condemnation. Eucharistic Miracle of BETANIA

VENEZUELA, DECEMBER 8, 1991

On December 8 of 1991, Father Otty Ossa Aristizábal was celebrating Mass in the chapel of the Shrine of Betania in Cúa and during the consecration, saw the Host bleeding. The miraculous Host is preserved in the city of Los Teques, at the convent of the Augustinian Recollects Nuns of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, where It is permanently exposed for the adoration of the faithful and It is visited every year by numerous pilgrims coming also from abroad. Many prodigious events have taken place, connected to the Host of the Miracle, among the one which stands out that occurred to a young American who filmed the miraculous Host pulsating like a heart, while It was exposed to the faithful.

The Shrine of Finca Betania where the Miracle occurred

The Tabernacle where the relics of the Host from which blood flowed were kept

H. E. Most Reverend Pio Bello Ricardo who has approved the Eucharistic Miracle of Betania

The new Tabernacle located in the chapel of Perpetual Adoration at the convent of the Augustinian Recollects of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Los Teques, where the relics of the Eucharistic Miracle of Betania have been transferred.

This Eucharistic Miracle occurred during the midnight Mass of December 8, 1991, at the Marian Shrine of Finca Betania in Cúa, Venezuela. Father Otty, Chaplain of the Shrine, thus describes the event: "After having consumed one of the pieces of the large Host which I had divided into 4 parts, I returned them to the paten. A little later I looked down towards the paten and I could not believe what I saw: one of the pieces of the Host that I divided was showing a red spot and from It a red substance began to emanate, similar to the manner in which blood escapes from a wound. After Mass, I took the Host and preserved It safely in the sacristy of the Shrine. The next day, at 6 in the morning, I went to see the Host and verified that some blood continued to flow that a little later began to dry. However, still today, the blood appears as fresh. The strange thing is that the blood flowed only from one side of the Particle, nevertheless, without staining the remainder of the Eucharistic species". During the Mass there were numerous pilgrims who immediately verified that the priest did not have wounds from which the blood present in the Host could have flowed. Besides, from the analyses, the result concluded that the blood of the priest did not match the one of the Particle. The Host of the Miracle was subjected to some special studies, requested by the then Bishop of Los Teques, H. E. Most Reverend Pio Bello Ricardo, and the results confirmed that the blood was human blood of type AB positive which matches the one found in the cloth of the Shroud of Turin and in the Host of the Eucharistic Miracle of Lanciano, that occurred in Italy in 750 AD and was analyzed by 500 commissions of the World Health Organization. Since then the Host has been an object of veneration and of devotion on the part of thousands of pilgrims coming not only from Venezuela but from the whole world. It is possible to go to the convent of the Augustinian Recollects Nuns of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Los Teques to see the miraculous Host all the days of the year at any hour in their chapel devoted to Perpetual Adoration. A young faithful from New Jersey, Daniel J. Sanford, having gone on a pilgrimage to the Convent of the Augustinians to see the bleeding Host, was able to film another miraculous episode. Here is the story: "On the 12th of November of 1998 I went on pilgrimage to Betania with a prayer group and they took us to see the miraculous Host of Betania in the Chapel of the Augustinian Sisters of Los Teques. Our spiritual director, Father Mazzarella, celebrated the Mass. After the celebration ended he opened the door of the Tabernacle which contained the Host of the Miracle. With great astonishment I saw that the Host was as if in flames, and there was a Pulsating Heart that was bleeding in Its center. I saw this for about 30 seconds or so, then the Host returned to normal. I was able to film a part of this miracle with my video camera..."

Dear Padre,

My grandmother says Catholics used to fast from midnight until they received Communion. When did the fasting time change to only one hour, and why?

The ancient discipline of fasting before Communion became a universal practice by the fifth century. Until 1953, those who would receive holy Communion refrained from consuming food, water, and medicine from midnight to the time of Communion. In 1953 and 1957, Pope Pius XII reduced the fast from food to three hours and from water for one hour (Christus Dominus and Sacram Communionem).

In 1966, Pope St. Paul VI further reduced the fast to one hour and allowed water and medicine at any time (Paenitemini). In 1973, he reduced the fast for the sick and elderly to fifteen minutes before Communion when one hour is prohibitive (Immensae Caritatis).

The loosening of the restrictions was in no way intended to lessen the reverence for the holy Eucharist. The changes were made to allow as many Catholics as possible to receive the Eucharist, which can be difficult when priests are in short supply. For the same reason, Immensae Caritatis also allowed the practice of having extraordinary ministers give Communion. Despite the changes to the Communion fast, unity and uniformity have been maintained. And of course, Catholics are free to fast before Communion beyond the duration and degree currently prescribed. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Today the Church tells us: “Use what God has given you and look at the poor.” At times, we think that to be Christian means not to do harm. And not doing harm is good. But not doing good is not good. We must do good, come out of ourselves and look...at those who are more in need.
