Holy Spirit St. Vincent de Paul Conference

Early this month, we met a lady couch surfing at a friend's apartment. She has been applying for Supplemental Security Income due to several physical problems. The Housing Resource Center referred her to a mental health professional before providing assistance so she is working with Comprehensive Healthcare. Her immediate needs were food and clothing, both of which we were able to help her with. We meet the first and third Thursdays of each month at 10:00 a.m. in PCC room 7. If you are seeking a way to serve the poor, please stop in.

For Vincentians, authentic Marian spirituality must be nourished from a personal and genuine encounter with Blessed Virgin Mary in the Gospel, in the spirit of St. Vincent and Blessed Frédéric Ozanam.

It is Time for the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA)

OCIA will begin Thursday, August 27 at 7:00 p.m. this year! We will meet in room 7 of the PCC. Please enter through the door across from the church near First Avenue.

While OCIA is our process for bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church, it is much more. OCIA begins with an 8-week "Inquiry" period, a time when anyone that is simply curious or has questions about Catholicism is welcome to attend. OCIA meetings will continue on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. until the Easter Vigil, with time off for holidays. If Thursdays do not work in your schedule, please contact our directors, Joe and Sherry Schroeder at 509-405-2242.

If anyone is interested in joining the OCIA team, please contact Joe and Sherry. You need not be a theologian, just someone that loves Christ and His Church.

Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.”

MATTHEW 15:28

Still Redeemable?

ANN M. GARRIDO

Not once, not twice, but three times in today’s gospel, Jesus dismisses the Canaanite woman who comes to him for help. First, he refuses to speak to her. Then, he says he has come only for “the lost sheep” of Israel. Finally, he compares her to a dog. In ancient Judaism, dogs were considered unclean animals, and to call someone a dog was a harsh insult. How does it feel to hear Jesus speak to a woman in this way? We must admit that it does not sound like the Jesus we know and love.

With the trajectory of the encounter headed downhill (and picking up speed), it is hard to imagine that anything could be done at this point to change the outcome. If I were in her situation, I would have been so offended after the third dismissal that I would have simply slammed the door on the way out. But, remarkably, the story takes a 90-degree turn when the Canaanite woman enters into a verbal joust with Jesus and jolts him into taking her seriously. Very seriously. Jesus praises her for her faith.

“Faith in what?” one might ask. Perhaps faith that this relationship could still turn around. Faith that the antagonistic plotline of history between Jews and Canaanites could still change. Faith that Jesus could still be something other than a dismissive man. Faith that an ignored voice might still be worth hearing. Do we have the praiseworthy faith of the Canaanite woman? Do we still believe that troublesome interactions can yet be redeemed? ●

RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our diocese will take up the Church in Central & Eastern Europe Collection the weekend of August 15–16, 2026. Years of war in Ukraine have profoundly affected both Ukrainian society and the Church in Ukraine. From the beginning, the laity have played a significant role in responding to the needs of displaced families, orphaned children, and other victims of the conflict. In the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church's Exarchate of Lutsk, laypeople such as catechists, parish pastoral and economic council members, and priests' wives have been called upon to provide faith formation, carefully manage parish resources, and provide emotional and spiritual support to members of the local parish communities.

These laypeople have heeded their call to holiness by bringing their talents and abilities to serve God and their neighbors. The exarchate, with crucial funds received through the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, has answered the call of Pope Leo to empower and form the laity to help bring the Gospel to the world. The exarchate is hosting formation seminars and trainings for priests' wives, parish pastoral and financial advisers, and catechists so that they might foster spiritual healing and economic recovery amid the devastation of war.

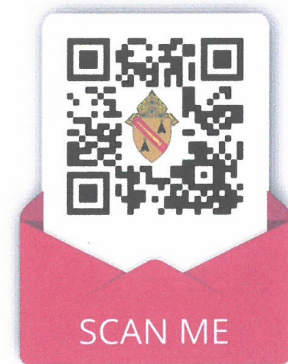

By donating to this special collection when it is taken up in our diocese—either through a contribution at Mass or through your parish's e-giving platform—you help the Church in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries in Central and Eastern Europe to witness to Christ's mercy, even in the midst of terrible hardship. To support the collection with an online donation, please scan the QR code below or visit www.yakimadiocese.org.

For more information about the collection and who it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccee. Thank you for your help to restore the Church and build the future in Central and Eastern Europe.

With every best wish and blessing,

Most Reverend Joseph J. Tyson
Bishop of Yakima

SUPPORT THE CHURCH IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

More than 30 years ago, the bishops of the United States established the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe to help the Church rebuild and resume its mission in countries where for decades, communist regimes had confiscated churches and persecuted priests, consecrated religious, and laity. The end of those communist regimes restored the Church's freedom to preach the Gospel, pray, and carry out public ministries such as health care and education.

Since its founding in AD 996, Hungary's Archabbey of Pannonhalma has been a center of prayer and learning and a treasured symbol of Hungarian religious and cultural heritage. For centuries the monks of this Benedictine community dedicated their lives to prayer, hospitality, and education at all levels, from primary through university. After World War II, Hungary's communist regime dissolved monastic orders and allowed the monks only to operate their secondary school. The community faced consistent intimidation.

Today, the communist regime is gone, and Pannonhalma is once again a center of faith-enriching learning. Funding from the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe made possible three such programs in 2025. In February, the Benedictine school of Pannonhalma offered secondary students an art education course designed to deepen their spiritual growth by incorporating their Catholic faith into their appreciation of art. In August, the archabbey conducted a liturgical workshop for Catholic clergy, seminarians, and laity committed to deepening their understanding and experience of liturgy. Finally, in September, the archabbey brought together international ecumenical leaders, Catholic clergy from Hungary, and leaders from Protestant and Orthodox Christian churches for a symposium on fostering Christian unity, held in a setting of theological reflection and personal encounter.

Your support for the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe at Mass helps the Church in Hungary and 27 other countries to rebuild and continue the mission to share the Gospel with new generations. More information about the collection and the range of projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee.

Dear Padre,

What does the Church teach about evolution?

In 1950, Pope Pius XII assured believers that there is no intrinsic opposition between Christianity and the theory of evolution, provided that God is affirmed as the Creator of all things and that the human soul is acknowledged a direct creation of God. (See Humani Generis [On the Human Person], 36.) In section 6 of his October 22, 1996, address to the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, Pope St. John Paul II sanctioned the acceptance of evolution theories but added that the nature of the soul and its relationship to God are beyond the realm of science. Thus, the Catholic Church maintains that while evolution explains the development of life, it is God who initiated and guided the evolutionary process, and that our providential God is ultimately responsible for creating the human soul.

Many people find Darwin's evolutionary theory (On the Origin of Species, 1859) hard to reconcile with their literal interpretation of the biblical account of origins in Genesis 1 and 2. But views on whether God created human beings in evolutionary stages that span millennia, or literally created human beings in an instant, can coexist for Catholics. Yet, regarding the latter view, the Catechism of the Catholic Church discourages an overall literal interpretation of the Bible, encouraging readers instead to recognize its various literary genres. (See CCC 109–117.) Recall, too, that the Bible wasn't written for scientific information, nor was Darwinian biology written for theological revelation. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

[T]he pain that moves us to compassion is not the pain of a stranger; it is the pain of a member of our own Body, to whom Christ our Head commands us attend, for the good of all. In this sense, our service is identified with Christ's own suffering and, when offered in a Christian spirit, hastens the fulfillment of the Savior's prayer for the unity of all.
