STEWARDSHIP: In the Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard sent messengers to collect his share of the harvest from the tenant farmers, but there was not a single good steward on the property! God is the owner, we are the tenants. What sort of stewards are we?

Thanks for your giving of time, talent, and treasure.

For online giving, visit:

<https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/holy7409270>

Thank you for maintaining your financial support of our parish as you are able. If you'd prefer to mail an offering, please send it to Parish of the Holy Spirit, 7411 W. Clearwater Ave., Ste. A, Kennewick, WA 99336. If you are currently using offering envelopes and would like to switch to online giving (or bill-payer from your bank), please call the parish office so we can discontinue your envelope mailings with our printing service. Thank you.

Construction continues in our church to repair past water damage. The work is expected to be ongoing throughout the next months. Thank you for your patience, flexibility, and support through each phase of this much needed repair work in our church. If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Ken Ellis at 509-735-8558. Deacon Ken is serving as the liaison with our contractor for this project.

PLANNING FOR THANKSGIVING

Team members are needed as Deacon Ken Ellis is interested in organizing a parish Thanksgiving dinner in our PCC hall this year. Please call Deacon Ken at 509-735-8558 or email deaconkeneth@holyspiritkennewick.org for more information about helping to organize, cook, and serve during this fun event for our parishioners; especially for those who may not have family members in our local area. You may also sign up after Mass in the vestibule to attend and/or help.

To have your need added to the list which is published in the bulletin once each month, please call the parish office.

A Note from the St. Serra Club of Tri Cities

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, and if there is anything worthy of praise, think on these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you." (from Philippians 4:6-9) Is God calling you to help people as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, monk or nun? Next Sunday, October 11, is Deacon Sunday. Deacons and their wives make so many contributions to our parish. Please thank them in person or write them a card of thanksgiving.

"If you wish to convert anyone to the fullness of the knowledge of Our Lord and of his Mystical Body, then teach him the Rosary."

- Blessed Fulton Sheen

Please sign up to help with the Knights of Columbus Sprinkler Blowouts. This is a fundraiser requiring lots of help and many volunteers to make it successful. Proceeds benefit the most vulnerable in our community.

Sprinkler blowouts will begin October 16. To volunteer, see the Knights in the vestibule after Mass this weekend or contact Steve Hunter at 509-366-6343 or sbh6@charter.net, Marcel Bergeron at 509-554-4924 or marce.bergeron@gmail.com, Bernie Ip at 509-551-0738 or bernard.c.ip@gmail.com, Darrell Kahl at 509-585-2333, or George Stoltz at 509-531-2422.

Dear Friends:

Just under a year ago on the Feast of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the bishops of the United States issued a special message questioning the “indiscriminate deportation” of migrants and refugees from the United States.

Sadly, the situation has worsened. Government data provided by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Service obtained under the Freedom of Information Act shows that between March and August this year, Yakima topped the list of cities in Washington State for arrests – even more than Seattle. Yakima County seems to be disproportionately targeted. Among those detained, fewer than a fourth had any criminal record.

Many have lived here for years and even decades as parishioners and members of our community. Often our parishioners are detained in front of courthouses while pursuing legal pathways to regularize their legal status. In short, they are arrested while following the law.

Parallel to this have been the challenges faced by our clergy and seminarians. Green cards are delayed or not processed. Student visas denied. Tourist visas pulled for family members capriciously without reason. Our priests experience a different kind of family separation when documents do not get renewed and processed in a timely manner for months and even years.

As bishop I am grateful for the gracious ways many growers, packers, ranchers, farm workers, business owners, health workers, educators and so many others work together in such difficult social and political conditions.

I hope you will find ways to assist families and businesses in need. I also hope you will join me in urging those in public life to stop the “indiscriminate deportation” which is so contrary to the teachings of Jesus Christ and this, His Church. I hope you can encourage a public policy that allows for a surgical deportation of those with serious criminal records. I hope you can urge our public officials to speed up and efficiently process visas for all our clergy and all our laity who desire to maintain legal status.

Above all, let us pray! Let us pray through the intercession of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini for a deeper embrace among our Church community of the Catholic teachings surrounding immigration. Let us pray that we can season society with this faith, too.

Yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Joseph J. Tyson
Bishop of Yakima

The Gradual Road to Ruin

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

A wise old sage once observed, “When it starts out stupid, it just gets more stupid.” The parable in today’s gospel illustrates this wisdom.

The son has been sent. The jig is up. The owner is not going to give up the vineyard. The tenants gambled and lost. It’s time for them to accept the inevitable and pay the rent. But common sense and wisdom do not prevail. Kill the son, they think, and all that he would have inherited will be ours!

How do you get from “don’t pay the rent” to “kill the son”? It is not a straight or smooth path. There are a lot of twists and turns between point A and point B. But it happens. It sneaks in. It demands little compromises and small dishonesties along the way as it becomes easier and easier for you to choose what is destructive. Then, you find you have lost it all—your very self. And the corruption you’ve embraced convinces you that you’re making wise choices. You must be completely cleansed of the seduction that has enabled you to make these choices. You need to start again. ●

PHILIPPIANS 4:6

Dear Padre,

My friend is deeply involved in her faith, but I struggle with our friendship because I don't like how she treats her pets. I don't understand how someone who values religion so highly can show so little care for animals. What should I do?

HLEB RAHOISHA / PEXELS-

Franciscan Friar Kevin Mackin writes, “The bond between person and pet is like no other relationship, because the communication between fellow creatures is at its most basic. Eye to eye are two creatures of love” (“Why We Bless Animals,” Catholic Update). Because of this strong bond between humans and sentient creatures, it’s especially difficult to witness their mistreatment, either through neglect (such as failing to provide sufficient food, water, shelter, or veterinary care) or direct physical abuse (a violation of anti-cruelty laws and a criminal offense in all fifty states). Studies show that owning pets offers us companionship and emotional support; in turn, these qualities can foster in us greater empathy and compassion toward others. Yet, while pets may greatly benefit our health and well-being, owning them comes with a serious obligation and moral responsibility. Vulnerable pets depend on humans for adequate care and protection. At times, some pet owners can be overwhelmed by their responsibility to provide proper care; others may even be unaware that they are treating their pets inappropriately. Out of concern for both your friend and her pets, consider a non-critical, non-confrontational approach to discuss your observations and to offer assistance. ●

Fr. Byron Miller, CSsR / DearPadre.org

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Today we lift up our prayer for peace in the world, asking that nations renounce weapons and choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy. Disarm our hearts of hatred, resentment, and indifference, so we may become instruments of reconciliation. Help us understand that true security does not come from control fueled by fear, but from trust, justice, and solidarity among peoples.
