MORE INFORMATION ON INTINCTION:

In a recent decree promulgated by Bishop Tyson, the parishes of the Diocese of Yakima will be allowed—beginning on Tuesday, August 15, 2023—to offer the Precious Blood of Christ to the faithful by INTINCTION. What is intinction? Intinction is when the priest or deacon reverently dips the Host into the Precious Blood of Christ and the communicant receives both Sacred Species ON THE TONGUE.

From www.catholic.com ...

Question:

I have heard that the Holy See does not allow us to dip the Host into a chalice to receive the Eucharist under both forms. But when I watched part of World Youth Day Masses on TV, I saw many clergy, including bishops and cardinals, doing this. What are the rules of the Church on this practice?

Answer:

The dipping of the Host into the Consecrated Wine is called “intinction.” The current edition of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states: “The Blood of the Lord may be received either by drinking from the chalice directly or by intinction” (245), so the practice is permitted. What is not permitted is for the lay faithful to self-communicate by dipping the Host that they will consume into the Precious Blood. This action can only be done by a priest or bishop. Deacons always receive Holy Communion from a priest or bishop; they do not self-communicate.

Through the reception of Holy Orders (ordination), priests and deacons are Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. They are the ones who will offer the Body and Blood of Christ—by intinction—to the lay faithful of our parish (and the other parishes of the Diocese of Yakima).

God's Blessings,

E. Michael

PRIEST RETIREMENT AND SEMINARIAN EDUCATION SPECIAL COLLECTION

Seminarian
Ramses Yates

In case you didn't attend Mass last weekend at Holy Spirit, please know that we still have the opportunity to support the annual Diocesan Priest Retirement and Seminarian Education Special Collection. This important collection supports our 17 retired priests who have faithfully served our community for many years; including Fr. O'Shea and Msgr. Auve. The collection also supports the men studying for the priesthood for our diocese, including Ramses Yates, who spoke to us last weekend about the importance of this collection for fully funding our seminarians' education. It is not too late to give. You are welcome to make a check payable to the Parish of the Holy Spirit. Please designate the collection name in the memo, or visit <https://yakimadiocese.org/> to give online.

Fr. John O'Shea

Msgr. Perron Auve

Did You Know? Forty-four priests are actively serving in the Diocese of Yakima. Eight of the active priests are 65 years of age and older.

1. Total Annual Operating Budget for Seminarian Education: $436,800

7 seminarians @ $62,400 each—Annual operating costs include tuition, room and board, fees, books, health insurance and medical expenses

2. Total Annual Operating Budget for Retired Priests: $800,700

17 priests @ $47,100 each—annual operating costs include retirement, health insurance, medical expenses and retreats

If you are unable to donate at this time, there are many other ways you can support us! You can continue to keep our senior priests and seminarians in your daily prayers. It has been through your spiritual and financial support of those studying for the priesthood that we see the seeds of future servants of our diocese sowed and nourished. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP: In the Gospel today, Peter yearns to do something to make concrete the Transfiguration he had witnessed. But to be a good steward of this spiritual gift, he was instructed to be still, to listen to Jesus, and to wait for His direction. Good advice for us, too!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC— RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Transfigured

We have all had moments when we seem to get a glimpse of heaven.

For me, they come with the sacraments: in the pew following my First Communion, kneeling before the bishop as he sealed my forehead with Chrism at my Confirmation, standing opposite my husband on our wedding day, cradling my newborns as the priest poured holy water over their little foreheads, claiming them for Christ. Moments when the veil between this world and the one to come is pulled away, and our hearts cry out: "Lord, it is good we are here."

Like Peter at the Transfiguration, we desperately wish the feeling would last forever. We want to hang onto the certainty, the confidence and the joy that radiates from our souls. We want to spend forever looking upon the transfigured face of Christ.

But we are not in heaven yet. We raise our eyes, seeing only this world before us, the words of Jesus ringing in our ears: "Rise, and do not be afraid."

"His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed." — Daniel 7:14

The Transfiguration: Sacred Art
Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down with Raffaello Sanzio's painting, "The Transfiguration," to discuss its theological meaning and how it can speak to us today.

Edith Stein: The Seventh Chamber
This film is a moving, artistic portrayal of the life of Jewish philosopher, Catholic convert, and Carmelite martyr Edith Stein. It powerfully captures the interior struggles of this extraordinary woman and her journey toward the Lord.

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

St. Peter tells us that Jesus "received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to Him from the majestic glory, 'This is My Son, My beloved, with Whom I am well pleased.' Moreover we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts." (Second Peter 1:17, 19) Discover life as a priest, deacon, sister, or brother; being attentive to the apostle's prophetic message and sharing its light with others.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Our Refreshment Ministry is an important ministry to parishioners and visitors alike. Sharing refreshments after every weekend Mass encourages fellowship and is yet another visible sign that our parish is welcoming of all guests. Volunteers in this ministry set up coffee, cookies and lemonade before Mass, and serve and clean up after Mass. It is a fun ministry which doesn't involve meetings or evening commitments. There are openings for helpers, especially after the 4:00 p.m. Mass on Saturdays. Please call Judy Urrutia at 509-628-2361 to volunteer.

[Jesus] was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.

MATTHEW 17:2

The Gift of Mystery

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

In life there are moments that some call transcendence, when the divine shines through the human and the veil that seems to cloak another world falls ever so briefly to reveal that there are not two worlds but only one wrapped in mystery. That is what took place on a mountaintop when Peter, James, and John realized that this Jesus with whom they talked and walked and shared meals, this friend, this very ordinary one, was so much more, was extraordinary, was “of God.” While real, it seemed better not to tell anyone about what they had seen.

Are there also moments in our lives when the human glows with the divine, when we come to realize more clearly than ever before that there is another power at play in life than you yourself? Most assuredly. While we are powerless to create such experiences of transcendence, more than 100 years ago the psychologist William James described such moments when they do occur. He identified four qualities in such experiences: 1) they seem closer to being emotional than intellectual or cognitive; 2) they tend to bring us new understandings of life and of what is, akin to insights, though they cannot be found in a book or be taught; 3) they tend to be very brief, a few seconds for most people; and 4) there is a sense of being sustained by a superior power. This was the apostles’ experience of the transfiguration, the feast we celebrate today. ●

Reflect

Have you had an experience of the transcendent that changed you?

Dear Padre,

For the past year or so I have been trying to pray on a regular basis, but I am constantly distracted. My mind wanders so easily. Do you have any suggestions?

Distractions in prayer are an inescapable part of the human condition and the result of our imagination. Even great saints experienced distractions in prayer, and some of their suggestions may help. When St. Thérèse of Lisieux struggled with prayer, she would recite an Our Father or a Hail Mary or read from the Gospels. Praying an act of faith or returning to God's presence and love can turn our focus away from other concerns, but even then, distractions may still arise.

When we become aware of them, we should calmly renew our focus and continue our prayer. Saint Teresa of Ávila offers this guidance: "We should not be distressed by reason of our thoughts, nor allow ourselves to be worried by them....The thing is inevitable, therefore do not let it disturb or grieve you" (The Interior Castle). No matter how often distractions return or how long they last, they are not sinful. Rather, they are opportunities to show God that we are sincere about praying.

Saint Alphonsus, another great teacher of prayer, reminds us that prayer is necessary, beneficial, and always possible. Hang in there, he says, because the devil would like nothing better than for you to stop praying. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We have not seen with our own eyes the face of Jesus shining like the sun. However, we too were given the Word of Salvation, faith was given to us, and we have experienced the joy of meeting Jesus in different ways. Jesus also says to us: "Rise, and have no fear" (Matthew 17:7).
