From the Pastor's Desk ...

BLESSING OF STUDENTS & EDUCATORS:

We will offer a special blessing to students, educators, and school support staff at all Masses on the weekend of August 26th and 27th. The Kennewick School District begins the new academic year 2023-2024 on Wednesday, August 30th; so, my hope is that this blessing will have a few days to do its work before everyone begins school again. All students—from kindergarteners to college/university students and adult learners—will be welcome to receive this blessing. We pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to infuse all learners and teachers with knowledge, understanding, wisdom, and a love of learning.

HOLY SPIRIT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

Our parish's Religious Education (RE) programs will be resuming in mid-September. Please keep following the articles related to RE in the interior of the Parish Bulletin. These weekly articles will provide you with specific and up-to-date information regarding each program. RE registration materials were sent out last week to those students and families that participated in our programs last year. The same materials are available at the parish office and at our parish's website:

www.holyspiritkennewick.org.

God's Blessings,

Fr. Michael

HOLY SPIRIT PARISH STEWARDSHIP

Did you know that the Parish of the Holy Spirit is a tithing parish? We are; and so are a few other parishes in the Diocese of Yakima. What this means is, we offer 10% of our Sunday income each month to assist worthy charitable causes—both locally and worldwide. The members of the Parish Council advise Fr. Michael regarding the charitable organizations that we choose to help; and these vary from month to month.

We are currently assisting the following organizations with financial help: Tri Cities Food Bank, Hope Medical, PREPARES, our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, St. Joseph Catholic School, FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students assisting both Jeremiah Nguyen and Jaclyn Gazewood in their lay ministry work with university students), Unbound (assists families living in poverty on their path to become self-sufficient), B5's Community Learning Center (assists refugee and immigrant families in our local area), and Esther's House (assists victims of sex trafficking in our local area). We also sent a check to Catholic Charities Hawaii to help with Maui wildfire relief.

Ready for school to start? We are! Registrations for Religious Education for preschool through 5th grade, Edge and Life Teen will be starting soon. Some upcoming dates to note: Confirmation parent meeting (for students in grade 8 only) on Sunday, September 10th at 2PM. Life Teen parent meeting (for students in grade 9-12) on Sunday, September 10th at 3:30 PM. Edge parent meeting (for students in grades 6-8) on Sunday, September 17. Tuesday, September 19th is the start of our Tuesday afternoon Religious Education classes. We are looking forward to a faith filled school year!

STEWARDSHIP: In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Romans, "God's gifts and his call are irrevocable." To what is God calling me today? What gifts are mine to share?

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

Jesus said to a Canaanite mother, begging Him to cast out a demon that was tormenting her daughter, "O woman, great is your faith!" (Matthew 15:28) It takes faith to hear God's call in our lives. And His call takes us on unexpected journeys of deeper trust and love. Is God calling you to live as a priest, deacon, sister, or brother?

On Saturday, September 30, St. Patrick's Church will host a Wholehearted Women's Gathering. Wholehearted is a one-day retreat offering inspirational talks, Adoration, Reconciliation, moving music, and much more. Tickets are on sale now. For more information email wholeheartedpasco@gmail.com. See the poster advertising this event in the vestibule.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Prayers God Always Answers

When I was a child, my mother bought a book called "The Prayers God Will Always Answer." I remember my anticipation as I cracked the spine and turned to the first page.

I had been spending a lot of time asking God — begging God, actually — over and over again for some specific things that were not materializing. Frankly, it was beginning to feel a lot like that time I asked Santa Claus for a new house, only to wake up on Christmas morning to find ordinary, non-house-shaped presents under the tree — and a growing sense of suspicion that my faith had been ill-placed.

To the great disappointment of my pre-teen heart, my mother's book was not a directory of magical phrases God is compelled to obey. It was a list that included things like "Forgive me" and "Help me." I tossed it aside, disappointed.

I marvel at the wisdom and the confidence of the Canaanite woman who persists in begging Jesus to heal her daughter. She is ignored, and still she will not be deterred. The disciples try to dismiss her — still, she presses on. Christ himself challenges her, and her faith makes her ready to offer a reply.

Somehow, I am sure that even if Christ had said, "No, it cannot be done for you as you wish," she would have still dropped to her knees before him, because she knew what I did not: God is not a vending machine, and he's not the genie from "Aladdin." Prayer is not a negotiation, but a relationship.

The story of the Canaanite woman is not a story about how to get God to give you what you want. It is a story about the prayers God always answers.

"Then Jesus said to her in reply, 'O woman, great is your faith!'" — Matthew 15:28

A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is a time to rejoice in the beauty of your marriage, family and faith. It's a great time to

The September Ultreya of the Cursillo Movement will be held at Christ the King Church in Richland, on Monday, September 11th (rather than the first Monday of September). We'll begin by praying the Rosary in the chapel at 6:30 p.m. with the meeting following at 7:00 p.m. All are welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS!

May God's blessings of peace and joy be with him and protect him all of his days.*

If you missed the 139th annual Black and Indian Mission Collection last weekend, it is not too late to give. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! Envelopes for this collection may be found in the vestibule, or visit <https://blackandindianmission.org/donate> to give online.

Build Love Not Walls

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

In Robert Frost's poem "Mending Wall," he tells how each spring he meets with his farming neighbor, and the two of them walk along on either side of the stone wall that marks their property to replace the stones toppled by the ice of winter. His neighbor loves the idea of a wall, inspired by his father's advice that "good fences make good neighbors." Frost, however, is not convinced and keeps suggesting that "something there is that doesn't love a wall," as if walls are not intrinsic to God's creation.

We humans seem to like our boundaries. As children, we divide ourselves between girl germs and boy germs and draw imaginary lines in the back seats of cars. Later we build walls everywhere—the Great Wall of China, the Berlin Wall, the structures at Mexico's border, backyard fences, and gated communities. We set up national boundaries, build emotional walls, relegate people to ghettos and the other side of the tracks, and we differentiate among religions, arguing over which is God's preference. We seem to use walls rather than love to give us our identity.

Some Scripture scholars suggest that this Sunday's Gospel event was a turning point where it became clear that Jesus came to save not only the Jewish people but all people, believers and unbelievers alike. Seeing her faith, Jesus willingly cured the Canaanite woman's daughter. With God there are no boundaries or walls—not those of nations, not those imposed by languages and customs, not those we use to divide people of faith. ●

Reflect

Have you ever felt isolated by a wall?

Who built it—you or someone else?

Jesus said..., "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish."

And her daughter was healed from that hour.

MATTHEW 15:28

Dear Padre,

Why are the Scripture readings for Mass so piecemeal?
We read part of a verse then jump to another part.
Doesn't reading it like this distort the meaning of the passage?

The readings for Mass are in a book called the Lectionary. Our current Lectionary was set up after the Second Vatican Council. It uses a three-year cycle for the Sunday readings, so over three years we hear the majority of the Bible at Mass. Its introduction states, "The present Order of Readings for Mass, then, is an arrangement of biblical readings that provides the faithful with a knowledge of the whole of God's word, in a pattern suited to the purpose" (General Introduction to the Lectionary, Second Edition, 60).

So the readings are not "piecemeal" but rather arranged so that we are exposed to the whole of God's word within three years. At times a given reading may not be complete—for example, the second reading for today is from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, chapter eleven, verses 13–15 and 29–32. This is done not only for brevity but for clarity. Those who organized the Lectionary thought that this excerpt made the message clearer or gave better emphasis to a point in the reading. It certainly is good to get out your Bible and read the whole section so you can see what is missing, but when the word is proclaimed at Mass, the current arrangement is most effective. ●
