LOCAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL:

Beginning this weekend, our parish's Evangelization Committee is rolling-out Holy Spirit Parish's local efforts to embrace the vision of the National Eucharistic Revival (NER), which will be held from July 17 to 21, 2024 in Indianapolis, Indiana. The National Eucharistic Revival aims "to inspire a movement of Catholics across the United States who are healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and who are then sent out on mission "for the life of the world." [Vision statement of the NER]

Please take some time to view our Hall of Miracles, which has posters highlighting the many Eucharistic Miracles that have occurred throughout the world and over the centuries. A different miracle will be featured each week—in our parish bulletin, in the vestibule, and on the screens in church before our weekend Masses.

Also, please take home a copy of the book This is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival, by Bishop Robert Barron. I am certain that you will enjoy this book. Bishop Barron co-taught a class on Eucharistic Theology at Mundelein Seminary, where I studied for the priesthood. The class was excellent; so I am sure that Bishop Barron's book on the same subject is as well. I encourage families, small faith-sharing groups, and prayer groups to reflect on and discuss the contents of this book. By doing so, may we grow in our love for the Holy Eucharist and continue to affirm Jesus' Real Presence in the sacrament which He gave to the Apostles—and the Church—on the night before He died for our salvation.

God's Blessings,

E. Michael

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Elementary Religious Education classes for preschool (age 4) through grade 5 will start this Tuesday, September 19th. Class time is 4:00-5:15 p.m. If you have not registered your child(ren), please be sure to arrive 15 minutes early to do so. As a rule, please do not arrive too early before the start of class (before 3:50 p.m.) in order to allow catechists time to arrive (as they may be picking up their own children from school) and prepare their rooms for class. If you do come early, please stay with your children.

The safety of all children is very important to us. Please park your vehicle in the parking lot and come into the building to pick up your child(ren). The teachers will not release the children until a parent comes into the classroom to sign them out. If you need to make other arrangements, please talk to Karen Gorham (735-8558) or your child's teacher.

EDGE NEWS: Edge parent meeting (for students in grades 6-8) on Sunday, September 17th at 6:30 p.m. in PCC rooms 6 and 8. First Edge night for middle schoolers starts on Sunday, September 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the PCC hall.

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Hateful Things We Hug Tight

At the end of "Lord of the Rings: Return of the King," Gollum fights with Frodo for possession of the One Ring. Gollum wins the fight, but in doing so topples over the edge of the mountain ledge, falling into the cavernous fires of Mount Doom. As he falls, we see him smile, and clutch the ring to his chest. He is happy. He has won what he spent his life pursuing.

It is only in the last millisecond before his face slips below the lava that we see his eyes widen in terror as he realizes the truth: the thing he clutches to his heart is the thing that killed him. In choosing the ring, he chooses death.

Sin, and the fallen nature of this world, makes us addicted to something that kills us.

Like any addiction, it is a vicious cycle. The less we forgive, the more hardhearted we become ... and the less we seek forgiveness ourselves.

What breaks the cycle? Reconciliation with God — or, Confession, as we call it. In fact, it does more than break the cycle. It turns it backward. Not only does it detoxify our souls of sin, it weakens our addiction to sin's effects — anger, vengeance, unforgiveness. The confession of evil works is the first beginning of good works, said St. Augustine.

Ultimately, I view our whole human life as a struggle on the ledge of a mountaintop. It is certain that we will choose sin — we always do. We will tumble over the side, toward ruin. But let us be Frodo, and not Gollum. Let us cling to the rock of the sacraments and accept the hand of God that will drag us away from the flames.

"Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight." — Sirach 27:30

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) started its 37th season last weekend. For the next nine months, seventeen retreatants, nine spiritual directors, one discerner, and three interns will be praying through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, which were written around the year 1500 by St. Ignatius Loyola. Before the pandemic, SEEL served people in the Tri-City area only. During the pandemic, SEEL was forced to learn how to conduct meetings online, and God expanded the ministry. This year, participants are from four states and nine cities! Monthly retreat meetings are hybrid – in person at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom. We in SEEL are grateful for the support of so many people in our parish and others around the country who help teach people to pray.

SEEL meets next on Saturday, October 14 at 9:00 a.m. in PCC room 6/8, and online on the Zoom app. The theme will be the Principle and Foundation. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Forgive and Forget?

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Terry Anderson was an American reporter in Lebanon when he was abducted by terrorists in 1985. He was held captive by them until his release in 1991. After his release he was asked if he forgave his captors. His response? “I’m a Christian and a Catholic, and it’s really required of me that I forgive, no matter how hard that may be.”

It’s been said that forgiveness is the most difficult thing we have to do, simply because all too often we do not feel like forgiving. Nor is forgiveness about overlooking the injury as if to say, “Oh, that’s OK. Don’t worry about it.” Forgiveness may not even mean being able to be nice. Sometimes the pain may be too much. Forgiveness as Jesus lived it is a choice one makes to care about the other. It is the gift of wanting what is best for the other even at times in the midst of our own pain. “Forgive and forget” is not always possible. At times the pain not only lingers but also throbs as if the wound continues to ooze and weep. Then we cannot forget. Yet it is possible to make the choice to care.

What do we do if we cannot even bring ourselves to do that much? Perhaps then we can at least ask God to bring goodness into that person’s life. And if that seems too difficult, then ask God to do what we cannot. That simple choice may very well be the seed that eventually sprouts into healing and peace in our own spirit. ●

Reflect

When have you been able to forgive even though memory of the pain lingered?

Peter...asked him, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?”

The Holy Grail of VALENCIA

SPAIN

This precious object has always been at the center of extraordinary stories and novels like the legend of the Knights of the Round Table in England, the stories of Perceval in France, and Parzival in Germany of the twelfth and thirteenth century. This genre was used by Wagner in a Christian-esoteric perspective and at the end of the twentieth century the fantastic novels of B. Cornwell favored the birth of the editorial trend still alive today.

John Paul II kisses the Holy Grail of Valencia

The Holy Grail of Valencia is the Chalice used by Jesus in His Last Supper with the apostles to consecrate and offer the Eucharistic wine that is His Blood, but it has also been identified as the cup in which Joseph of Arimathea collected the Blood of Jesus on the Cross.

There are a number of variants to indicate the Grail: San Greal, Holy Grail, Sangreal in England, Sanct Graal and Saint Graal in the antique and modern French, Gral and Graal in German. The "grolla" of the Aostan valley is lexically related to the grail and similar to the Latin gradalis or gratalis, "vase" or glass.

From many sources, we know that a few centuries after the death of Christ the Holy Grail was being shown to Christian pilgrims in Jerusalem.

According to the account of Arculo, a French bishop who lived in the Holy Land in 720 A.D., the Chalice in which the Lord Himself consecrated His own Blood was preserved in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem.

The venerable Bede adds that the cup was protected by a net and it could be touched and kissed through an opening. No one knows exactly when the Chalice was taken from Jerusalem; most probably as far back as the seventh century. Today, in the gothic chapel of the "Santo Caliz" ("Holy Chalice") in the city's cathedral, a miraculous chalice identified by tradition as the Holy Grail, is kept and shown for the veneration of the faithful. This precious item is constructed in different portions: the inverted upper part of a Cornelian chalice constitutes the base, the stem is enriched by precious stones and the upper part is a cup, also of Cornelian. These parts are attributed to different eras; the cup is the most antique and the most difficult to date and constitutes the most interesting part. On the base there is an inscription in Arabic of disputed interpretation, but that could be another proof to determine the date. According to professor Salvador Antunano, "When we know the mystery of the Chalice of the Holy Grail we realize that in it there is nothing enigmatic or esoteric. The history of this precious Chalice concerns the most dramatic, most sublime episode ever lived by humanity: the history of the Word made Man and Eucharist".

Dear Padre,

Why are churches doing away with the confessionals?

In many churches, when it is feasible, the traditional confessional box is modified or even replaced by a more spacious, less darkened reconciliation room. In 1974, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops decreed that “small chapels or rooms of reconciliation be provided in which penitents might choose to confess their sins through an informal face-to-face exchange with the priest, with the opportunity for appropriate spiritual counsel.” Later, a further elaboration recommended austere furnishings and decoration in this space, “with nothing superfluous in evidence beyond a simple cross, table and Bible. The purpose of this room is primarily for the celebration of the reconciliation liturgy; it is not a lounge, counseling room, etc. The word ‘chapel’ more appropriately describes this space.” If a reconciliation chapel does not provide a fixed screen or grille between the penitent and confessor, it must be offered elsewhere, according to canon law. “The purpose of this norm is...to afford the penitent anonymity if he or she desires and to make certain that there is no suspicion of impropriety in the confessor-penitent relationship” (Code of Canon Law, 964 commentary).

Ideally, the environment of the reconciliation chapel helps the penitent and confessor feel they are “on holy ground” (Exodus 3:5) in encountering God in this sacrament. It offers an inviting sacred space to celebrate a powerful expression of God’s mercy and unconditional love. ●

SHUTTERSTOCK

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

As I was celebrating Mass, I paused, touched by a phrase... from the book of Sirach....“Remember the end of your life, and cease from enmity.” A beautiful phrase! Think of the end! Think that you will be in a coffin...and will you take hatred there? Think of the end, stop hating! Stop the resentment.
