From the Pastor's Desk ...

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS:

You may be asking yourself ... "Didn't I just contribute to the Priests' Retirement Collection in the month of July?" Well, yes, you did; but here's what you need to know: that collection benefits the retirement of the Diocesan Priests (parish priests) of the Diocese of Yakima—like Fr. O'Shea and Msgr. Auve.

This weekend's special collection is different. How so? "Religious" are women and men who serve the Church as sisters, brothers, or priests after making a solemn profession in a religious order—like the Sisters of Providence, the Franciscans, the Dominicans, the Carmelites, the Benedictines, the Jesuits, etc. All religious take vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience to their superior. Whatever they earn as professionals in their respective fields (like health care, teaching, social work, etc.) is pooled—in common—to sustain themselves and their confrères economically.

As the accompanying flyer in this bulletin explains, many religious women and men worked very hard for the Church over many years; but—in part, due to their vow of poverty—did not receive adequate compensation to provide for their needs in retirement. And so, as you think of the religious sisters, brothers, and priests who have had an impact on your life and your spiritual development as a Catholic, please consider assisting them financially in their retirement. Their mission now, in retirement, is to pray for you, for me, and for the Church. As we benefit from their prayers, may they, in turn, count on our financial support. Thank you.

God's Blessings,

E. Michael

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

"Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18: 20) The community that gathers in Christ's name is the Church. (PRACTICING) CATHOLIC—

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Love and Truth

I think even the most devout, the most pious Catholic reading this could summon to mind, if asked, one or even two examples of Catholic teaching for which they have desperately looked for a loophole.

Don't worry, I won't make you share with the group. But bring it to your mind now: the doctrine you once resented, or perhaps still do. The commandment you don't fully understand, the one you bristle against. The rule you find the hardest to follow. The belief you hate explaining to your friends.

If it disappeared from scripture or dropped out of the Catechism, would your life really be easier? Would you be happier?

I am thinking of mine. For a long time, I searched high and low for a way around this particular teaching. I read books and Scripture and researched Catholic tradition. I prayed and reflected and tried to argue with myself. For a time, I gave up complying with it entirely. I threw it to the wind, with a shoulder shrug and a self-satisfied assurance to myself that God, being a loving Father, does not want his child to be unhappy.

But reader: I was miserable. I was so, so miserable, and I stayed that way until I finally accepted that God is, indeed, a loving Father, and desires nothing less than the unhappiness of his children. And so, to ward it off, he has given us the truth, and asked us to embrace it like a cherished heirloom, a priceless inheritance.

To share truth, you must show love. To show love, you must share truth. One demands the other. This is what Christ does for us, and this is the mission of the Church in this world. Loosening and binding. Bearing witness. Giving testimony. Speaking truth, and in speaking truth, showing love.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." — Psalm 95

Retirement Fund for Religious

Elderly religious need your help. Like those pictured, nearly 25,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have dedicated their lives to serving others by praying for us, ministering to all, educating the young, caring for those who are sick and helping those in need—usually for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your donation will make a real difference by providing essential care, medicine and other necessities. Envelopes are on the table in the vestibule. Please give generously. Visit retiredreligious.org for more information or to give online.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Jesus taught us, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” John 6:51

In our chaotic world, we need a relationship with Jesus more than ever. And Jesus unites us with Him in the celebration of the Eucharist.

That is why the Parish of the Holy Spirit is joining in the National Eucharistic Revival; to restore and deepen our understanding and devotion to the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

Beginning next weekend (September 16-17), our parish will display “The Hall of Miracles”. The posters – on loan from Christ the King Parish, Richland – depict Eucharistic miracles from around the world and across the ages as compiled by Blessed Carlo Acutis.

These posters will be on display in three groups – from now through Advent – to enrich our understanding and love for the Most Holy Eucharist. Additional information will also be included as bulletin inserts throughout this period; plus a special surprise gift from the parish will be given out at all Masses next weekend. This display and events were inspired by the National Eucharist Revival and encouraged by Father Michael and our Evangelization Committee.

MISSION

TO RENEW THE CHURCH BY
KINDLING A LIVING
RELATIONSHIP WITH THE LORD
JESUS CHRIST IN THE HOLY EUCHARIST.

Tweaked by God

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

While the Scripture readings this week remind us we are responsible for one another, do any of us really want someone serving as our conscience, telling us what to do? A national insurance company once aired a TV ad in which “Cynthia” takes it upon herself to make sure everyone was abiding by the established regulations of the subdivision. She checks to make sure everyone is breaking down cardboard, cuts down hanging flower baskets that are contrary to regulations, and takes a chainsaw to mailboxes that are even two inches too high.

None of us want a “Cynthia” for a neighbor. It may be that it takes a community to raise a child, but once we have become adults—well, thanks but no thanks. So what do we do with these readings?

The Gospel adds the ingredient of community to the “cake batter.” Praying with a faith community can help correct our personal opinion, remind us what we might be blind to, and broaden our vision by affirming that we are a part of a larger world, all from the perspective of faith.

A faith community that reflects “Cynthia” thinking is a church that seeks to control. It motivates by fear, discourages prayerful reflection, and expects everyone to march in unison. A healthy faith community is a church that respects everyone as serious individuals of faith, encourages study and dialogue to seek out truth, and recognizes that growth in faith occurs in different ways. Prayerful, respectful communities of faith are how God tweaks our lives. ●

SERVING CENTRAL WASHINGTON

Dear Padre,

Recently our new pastor relocated the rectory away from the church and parish office. Why is this becoming more common?

“The laborer deserves his payment” from Luke 10:7 has been traditionally interpreted to suggest that ministers for the Lord engaged in pastoral service are provided with certain basic necessities, such as a place to call home. Some priests are now choosing a distinct location in which to live that is apart from where their ministry is primarily conducted. A reason for this move is often attributed to rectories that have no clear boundaries between the private living space and the parish office.

While clergy in apostolic ministry are not necessarily seeking a cloistered existence, they do deserve the fundamental privacies enjoyed by everyone else. Sometimes this courtesy is not respected by those who have an unhealthy curiosity about the lives of their parish priests or by those who are preoccupied with being “in the know” (and sharing what they know with the rest of the congregation).

Dedicated priests can be accessible and available at various hours during the day or night without having to live in a fishbowl. Sometimes this may warrant a new rectory location or facility, especially if the pastor in stocking feet on his day off can't pour his morning coffee without stumbling into a DRE staff meeting! ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The great gossip is the devil, who always goes about saying bad things about others, because he is the liar who seeks to separate the Church to distance brothers and sisters and not create community. Please, brothers and sisters, let us make an effort not to gossip. Gossip is a plague more awful than Covid!
