Cremation Choices

Choosing cremation offers several choices for service and memorialization. The following considerations will help you determine the type of event that would be most meaningful to you, your family, and friends.

~Do you prefer to offer friends and extended family the opportunity to say goodbye and offer their love and support with a public viewing or memorial service?

~Do you prefer to conduct ceremonial services at a church or place of worship?

~If family and friends are coming from a distance, do you prefer to arrange for a memorial service following the cremation?

Whatever your preference, we want to work with you to create an appropriate tribute.

To help simplify the planning and arrangement process, the packages on the following pages represent the most popular choices for our client families who select cremation.

Choosing a Final Resting Place

Cremation offers a variety of dignified choices regarding how and where to forever honor your loved one:

- ▣ Home – Urns for keeping in your private residence
- ▣ Niche – Urns for placement in the niche of a mausoleum
- ▣ Burial – Urns crafted to conform to placement in a cemetery
- ▣ Scattering – Urns specially designed to facilitate scattering

You can take comfort in your personal choice for memorializing a loved one. Many urns can be used for several types of final resting place choices.

Home - when the journey leads back home

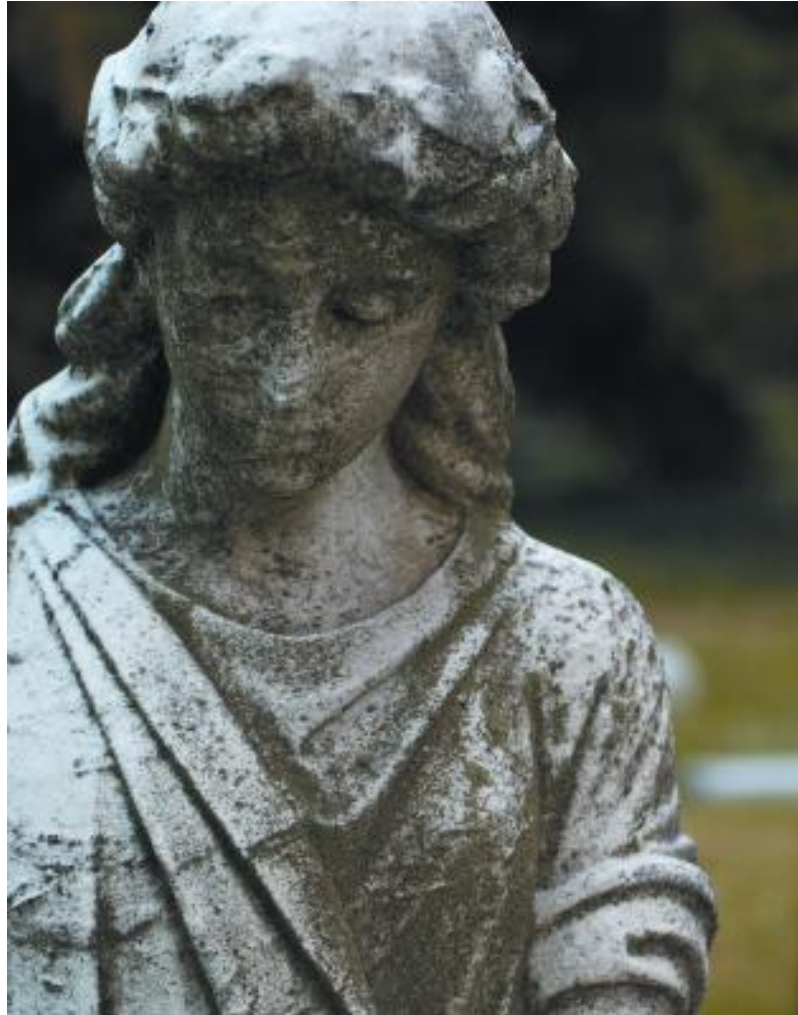

Find comfort by keeping your loved one close by in your own home. We offer a variety of designs, colors, materials, and finishes to appropriately honor their memory while integrating into the décor of your home.

Niche – a place and time to reflect on one's journey

This is the perfect choice for creating a lasting memorial for family and friends to visit as desired. Typically located in a mausoleum or church, urns can be sealed out of sight or behind glass.

Burial – put the cares of life's journey to rest

Cremation remains a viable alternative even when tradition calls for cemetery burial. We can help to arrange for ground burial and committal services at the cemetery of your choice

Scattering – the journey takes flight, scattering to the wind

We offer urns uniquely designed to celebrate scattering at a special place or time. We can help facilitate this reverent event, honoring your wishes while keeping in accordance with local regulations.
