

Associate
Membership

Build your facility management network.

Advance personally & professionally through career development, learning, networking and leadership.

IFMA has the networking and thought leadership opportunities to help you connect with the FM community. Associate membership is for business development, sales, marketing and FM consultant professionals.

Build Relationships

Connect with 25,000+ professionals with IFMA's member-only networking opportunities. Attend the industry's best events or join a component to connect at the local or industry level.

Resources to increase industry knowledge

Receive industry news or a deep dive into the current and future challenges of facility management, IFMA's newsletters, white papers, research reports and the FMJ magazine.

Learn the language of FM

Learn the language and daily demands of FM with IFMA's training program. Strengthen your understanding of the fundamentals of the industry so you can build stronger partnerships.

Opportunities to make an impact

Make a lasting contribution on IFMA and the FM profession by taking advantage of an IFMA leadership opportunity or submitting content to IFMA's FMJ, Knowledge Library or events.

Access the value of IFMA

Accelerate your career with IFMA's 35+ member benefits, including discounts and member-only opportunities like the global online forum.

Discover how IFMA can help you succeed in facility management.

Associate membership starts at just $279 US/year

IFMA can help you succeed in facility management.