Please keep Sue and Gary Walker in your prayers. Gary passed away Sunday, December 14th after a courageous battle with cancer. He was a talented musician and member of St. Elizabeth's choir. Gary, with his beautiful voice and humble demeanor will be greatly missed by all. Angels carried him to heaven to sing for our Lord's birthday. Gary's funeral was held this past Saturday at St. Elizabeth's Church.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him and all the faithfully departed. Amen.

This week we pray for our sick, elderly and homebound parishioners and friends, especially...

FULFILMENT OF GOD'S PROMISE

The three readings invite us to contemplate the mystery of God's promise fulfilled in Jesus Christ. In the first reading the prophet assures King Ahaz that God himself will give a sign. This prophecy speaks of God's fidelity even amidst human fear and doubt. Emmanuel, "God with us", is not a distant promise but a living reality, assuring us that God's accompanies His people in their struggles and uncertainties.

In the Gospel, the promise takes flesh in the quiet faith of Joseph. Faced with confusion and fear, Joseph listens to God's message in a dream, " Do not be afraid." By accepting Mary and naming the child Jesus, Joseph participates in God's saving plan. His obedience transforms doubt into trust, showing us that faith often requires courage and silent surrender. As we journey through Advent, we are called to open our hearts to Emmanuel, God who is with here and now. Like Paul who identifies himself as the servant of the Gospel, let us also recognize how we are called to be bearers of God's good news. To proclaim to the nations His fidelity and assurance of accompaniment amidst fears and doubts that envelop the world. Let us prepare with faith, humility, and joy, so that Christ may be born anew in our lives and shine through us to the world.

Loving Lord, grant us grace to recognize your presence and to experience your peace and grace in every struggle of life, so that we may faithfully co-operate with your holy will.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A priest friend recently told me a remarkable story. One of his cousins reported having a vivid dream in which an angel told him the family needed to exhume their grandmother's body from a cemetery in New York and return it to her birthplace in Romania. She had been dead nearly ten years. As you might expect, the family thought it was, well, crazy. But astonishingly they exhumed her body. It was incorrupt, showing no signs of decomposition. That experience sparked healing, faith, and reconciliation throughout the family.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Joseph also receives a dream. He's confused, afraid. But in the quiet of sleep, God speaks: "Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home" (Matthew 1:20). When he wakes, Joseph acts. He doesn't overanalyze or dismiss the message. He trusts, and acts.

God still speaks — not necessarily through literal dreams but through those deeper intuitions of the heart. St. Ignatius of Loyola taught that God's voice draws us into peace, courage, and love. But we have to listen to it. Advent is a time for stillness. As we prepare for Christ's coming, we're invited to enter that quiet space where God's voice can be heard.

When and how do you become most receptive to God? Is it in silence? In prayer? In nature? At Mass? This week, go there. Be still. Listen. And like Joseph, have the courage to act on what God shows you.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Sometimes we want God's instructions to be clear and precise — like the angel in Joseph's dream. But Joseph's understanding was only as strong as his devotion to God's will. If we give our lives to God as Joseph did, we will know what he asks of us.

Mini Reflection: Advent is drawing quickly to a close, and Christmas is coming soon. The change is upon us. Do we rise to accept it, or do we fall on our faces in fear?

The First Transfiguration

I imagine Joseph waking up the morning after the dream, blinking in the dim half-light of the dawn.

One day, decades from now, the baby his wife carries will stand on a mountaintop. His face will shine like the sun, and those who look upon him will fall down upon their own faces in fear.

We call this the transfiguration, and Joseph won't be there to see it. But that doesn't matter. What those men will learn on the mountaintop, Joseph already knows. He learned it last night.

Today, he shrugs off the remnants of slumber and stands up.

"Rise, and do not be afraid." This is what the baby — a baby no longer, but a man now, one in the last days of his life — will say to his companions on the mountain a few decades from now. They will look up to see him standing there the same as he always was, and they will realize that he did not change at all. They did.

"Do not be afraid." This is what the angel said last night as he revealed to Joseph the will of God: that Joseph take Mary and the Child as his own, despite having so many reasons not to do so. And today Joseph wakes up and the world is the same as it always was: Mary is pregnant, and the Child does not belong to him.

No, the world has not changed. Joseph has.

He rises, and goes to Mary.

Advent is drawing quickly to a close, and Christmas is coming soon. The change is upon us. Do we rise to accept it, or do we fall on our faces in fear?

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for "ten." The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours ... all belongs to God.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Seven hundred years before the birth of Jesus, Isaiah prophesies to King Ahaz that a virgin would bear a son and name him, Emmanuel (“God is with us”). When have you felt close to God this Advent season?

Second Reading:

Paul instructs the Roman Christians that they are “called to be holy.” What do you see as some of the steps toward growing in holiness?

Gospel:

We hear how Joseph struggled initially with the news of Mary’s pregnancy. How do you discern making difficult decisions?
