

Passenger Rules of Conduct

- No violence is allowed on any transit vehicle or on transit property.
- Any violence perpetrated on a PAT employee of any kind whether physical, spitting, or threatening behavior, the individual(s) will be prosecuted to fullest extent of the law.
- No weapons of any kind are allowed.
- No usage of any alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs are prohibited.
- No fighting, mock fighting or physical acts that can cause injury.
- No intimidation, invasion of personal space or threats of any kind are prohibited.
- No eating or drinking is prohibited. All drinks must be in a container with a top or lid.
- No gas operated devices or car batteries are allowed.
- No Solicitation, advertisement or selling of any items while on the bus or PAT property.
- Pay your fare if not using a fare card have exact fare, no change is issued.
- Passengers should be at the service stop needed, 5 minutes before the arrival of the bus, with all personal belongings ready to board.
- No profanity is allowed, including loud talking or mobile phone conversations that volumes reach a level of disturbance to other riders.
- Earphones or Headphones should be used when playing music and the volume should be kept to a personal level.
- Passengers are only allowed to ride a bus line for (1) trip deboarding the bus at or between the end of the service line unless there is a need to exit on the opposite side of the street.
- Passengers must abide by the public dress code wearing a shirt, shoes, pants, skirt, shorts, and footwear to use public transportation.
- No smoking of any kind is allowed, which includes tobacco, marijuana or vapes.

- Passengers are restricted to (1) seat per person, which includes no laying in or across seats or placing feet in bus seating or using needed seats for shopping bags, backpacks, luggage, or personal items.
- Passengers must move to rear seating whenever front seating is needed for passengers with disabilities, wheelchairs, or mobility devices.
- Passengers must keep the aisle, and doors clear of baby strollers, car seats, baggage, groceries and all personal items must stay contained by the passenger.
- No usage of pesticides, perfumes or aerosol sprays is prohibited. Passengers will be denied service for hygiene which is a health hazard to other patrons such as soiled clothing, due to body fluids or visible bug infestations and any cuts or Injuries that are not contained.
- Only service animals are allowed aboard the bus without a container.