Call to Worship: - (Responsive)

Leader: In this Season of Change, in this sacred place,

Response: We surrender to you, God - our fears, our concerns, our secret thoughts and our sense of vulnerability.

Leader: Confident in Your love, so clear and strong in Jesus,

Response: We can journey in faith to those sacred places of serenity, hope and joy.

Hymn of Praise: VU #91 “The First Nowell”

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of Christmas, Light of the world, and our sure hope: as pilgrims, we journey in faith, anticipating Christ's ever-new appearing. Yet we acknowledge our hesitation to risk ridicule or alienation because of our witness to Jesus. Forgive our self-interest. Free us to live out our commitments in thought, word and action. Guide us to risk being "Your people of faith." In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon and the Lord's Prayer

ALL: No matter who we are, or what choices we have made, God always makes the choice to love us. No matter how tangled things may seem, we will never be separated from the strength of God's love. This is "Good News" indeed. Thanks be to God!

Bible Reading - December 28/25
Reader: December House - John VanMaanen

Matthew 2:13-23

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.' Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, 'Out of Egypt I have called my son.'

When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah: 'A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.'

When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child's life are dead.' Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, 'He will be called a Nazorean.'

Bible Reading - December 28/25
Reader: December House - John VanMaanen

Isaiah 63:7-9

I will recount the gracious deeds of the Lord,
the praiseworthy acts of the Lord,
because of all that the Lord has done for us,
and the great favour to the house of Israel
that he has shown them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
For he said, 'Surely they are my people,
children who will not deal falsely';
and he became their saviour
in all their distress.
It was no messenger or angel
but his presence that saved them;
in his love and in his pity he redeemed them;
he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.
