Jeans Days

Periodically, students are allowed to dress "out - of - uniform" during Jeans Days. Students contribute a nominal amount of money to a designated cause to have this privilege. Dress for the day must be tasteful (if a parent questions whether clothing is "tasteful," then it probably is not). Jeans or conservative pants are allowed (for clarification, Capri pants for girls are considered "conservative"). Shorts are restricted to uniform shorts only. If a student violates this policy, parents will be notified and discipline will be handled on a case-by-case basis.
