

QMLT EXAMINATIONS

Common Syllabus and Discipline Specific Format Breakdown

All QMLT examination papers are based on 2 Parts.

Part 1

30 marks common syllabus questions

Section A 6 marks	Section B 5 marks	Section C 4 marks	Section D 5 marks	Section E 10 marks
Multi choice questions (12)	Label diagram (e.g. anatomy, hazard identification, instrument)	Tables – match column definition	Calculations	Short answer questions

Part 2

70 marks discipline specific questions

Part 1/Section A 9 Marks	Section A 6 marks	Section B 5 marks	Section C 30 marks	Section D 20 marks
Multi choice questions (18)	Label diagram (e.g. anatomy, hazard identification, instrument)	Tables – match column definition	Short answer questions	Essays (2 Essays; 10 marks each)

Candidates must gain a minimum of a C grade (50%) in the common syllabus examination component (Part 1) and a minimum of a C Grade (50%) in the discipline specific component (Part 2) of the written examination.