

NZIMLS NOMINATION FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP

The Council of the New Zealand Institute of Medical Laboratory Science (Inc.) (NZIMLS) is calling for nominations for suitable candidates for Life Membership. A Life Member is any member of the NZIMLS who the Council considers has given outstanding service to the Institute of Medical Laboratory Science (typically but not exclusively) who notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules shall retain the privileges of his/her previous category of membership.

Guidelines for Life Membership:

Worthy or notable services to our profession and/or Institute may be included but will be limited to any/some/all of the following:

- Leader and/or recognised expert in a scientific field or topic.
- Publications
 - preferably in the NZ Journal of Medical Laboratory Science
 - preferably of leading or educative articles
- Oral Presentations
 - preferably to share knowledge with colleagues in the fora of the ASM and SIG meetings.
- Voluntary contributions to Institute activities, e.g. Council, SIGs, Conferences etc.
- Special projects
 - technical
 - professional
- Other areas considered relevant by nominators.

To be eligible for Life Membership nominees will be financial members of the Institute. The length of membership service will be considered.

Nominations for Life Membership should be with the Executive Officer no later than 31 January to be voted on at the first Council meeting of each year.
