A Family of our parish needs help: In the early morning hours of December 2, 2025, a young family of our parish survived a devastating house fire. We thank God that the family got out safely. The trauma of losing everything you have and treasure increases exponentially when it happens at this time of the year. We stand with this family supporting them with our prayers. But we can easily and most effectively help them through the hardship by remembering them when we're shopping at the grocery store or at the box stores by getting a gift card so they can purchase clothes and food. Just drop the gift card in the collection and we will be sure to pass them along swiftly. Thank you so much for your generous compassion!!

REV. ANTHONY GENEROSE
PASTOR

We prayerfully recite the “Hail Mary” every day. The words following immediately in the prayer are “full of grace.” These words, spoken by the angel Gabriel to Mary at the Annunciation, indicate Mary’s privileged status as a human being having been conceived without sin.

For centuries, the Church in the East celebrates Mary as “the All Holy” Mother of God as much as she was “free from any stain of sin, as though fashioned by the Holy Spirit and formed as a new creature.” In the Latin Church, the dogma of the Immaculate Conception was confessed by Pope Pius IX in 1854, one of the only two dogmatic teachings of the Church arising from the sensus fidelium and declared on the principal guarantee of the Pope’s infallibility when teaching on faith and morals. The Immaculate Conception, then, does not refer to Mary’s conceiving of Jesus in her own womb, but Mary’s conception in her mother’s womb. In the words of Pope Pius IX, “The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin.”

The Church established December 8th the feast day of the Immaculate Conception in order to celebrate the prevenient grace which prepared her for conceiving the Savior of the World in her own womb. December 8th is a holy day with the obligation of all the Catholic faithful to participate in the liturgy on that day not only to honor Mary, the Mother of God’s most unique status, but also to remind us of the great privilege we have as her children redeemed by her Son’s passion and death.

Mary, under the title of the Immaculate Conception, revealed herself to Bernadette Soubirous during the Lourdes apparitions and Mary is celebrated widely around the world under this title as patroness of churches, shrines and, yes, even the United States of America.

REV. RAFAEL O'FARRIL
ASSISTANT PASTOR

“Prepárense, porque viene el que renueva todas las cosas” Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

El Adviento avanza, y hoy la Palabra nos invita a mirar hacia adelante, hacia aquel que viene a renovar la vida desde la raíz. No se trata de un cambio superficial, sino de una transformación profunda, como la que anuncia Isaías: “De un tronco talado brotará un renuevo”. Cuando todo parece seco, agotado, sin futuro, Dios hace brotar vida nueva. Así obra el Señor: no desde lo espectacular, sino desde lo pequeño, lo humilde, lo que nadie imagina.

Ese renuevo ese pequeño brote es “Cristo”. Sobre Él descansa el Espíritu que trae sabiduría, fortaleza, consejo, ciencia y temor de Dios. Si dejamos que ese Espíritu toque nuestra vida, también en nosotros puede surgir un renacer: un corazón más pacífico, menos violento; una familia más unida, menos dividida; una comunidad que transforma las espadas en herramientas de paz.

San Pablo, en la carta a los Romanos, nos recuerda que la Palabra sostiene, consuela y da esperanza. Adviento tiempo para volver a la Palabra con más hambre, con más silencio, con más obediencia interior. Allí descubrimos que Cristo ha venido para reunir, no para separar; para abrir puertas, no para cerrarlas; para que glorifiquemos a Dios con un mismo corazón y una sola voz.

Y aparece Juan el Bautista con su voz firme, directa, sin maquillaje espiritual: “Conviértanse, porque el Reino de los Cielos está cerca.”

Juan no suaviza el mensaje. Él sabe que no hay Adviento verdadero sin conversión. No basta con preparar la casa por fuera; es el corazón lo que necesita ser enderezado.

Juan habla de cambiar de rumbo, de cortar de raíz aquello que no da fruto: el orgullo, la indiferencia, las palabras que hieren, las actitudes que destruyen la unidad, la religiosidad vacía que no toca la vida.

El Bautista nos hace una pregunta decisiva:

¿Queremos de verdad que Cristo renazca en nosotros este año? Si la respuesta es “sí”, entonces hay que dar frutos: humildad, reconciliación, paciencia, oración sincera, obras concretas de caridad. Porque viene el más fuerte, el que bautiza con Espíritu Santo y fuego, el que purifica y ordena, el que separa lo que es de Dios de lo que es pura apariencia.

Hermanos, que este segundo domingo de Adviento sea un llamado a despertar, a volver al Señor de corazón, y a permitir que el Espíritu Santo haga brotar en nuestra vida un renuevo nuevo, fresco y lleno de esperanza.

Que cuando Cristo llegue, nos encuentre vigilantes, en camino, y con frutos que glorifiquen su nombre.

Amén.
