REV. ANTHONY GENEROSE
PASTOR

The final Mass at Our Lady of Grace church will be celebrated on Sunday, August 2, 2026, beginning at 1:30 pm. At the conclusion of the Mass, the doors will be locked to the church for the last time. Father will take the Eucharist from OLG church to MPB church where benediction will be celebrated. All are invited to participate in the Mass and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament after which there will be refreshments in the MPB church hall.

The final Mass at Our Lady of Grace church is the liturgical celebration finalizing the church being "relegated to profane but not sordid use." While parish properties which are not "church buildings" do not fall under the norms governing the relegation to profane but not sordid use, closing a church is solely the right of the bishop of the diocese. Only he can decree the closure of a church. His right to erect or suppress a parish, as well as close a church building and the processes to do so are governed by the 1983 Code of Canon Law.

All the church properties, including the church building belong to the parish until the properties including the church are sold. The pastor, in consultation with his finance council, sees to the sale of parish properties. While the sale of school buildings, rectories and convents do fall under the scrutiny of the bishop of the diocese, greater scrutiny for the sale of a church building by the diocesan bishop is required. Anyone wishing to purchase a church building must put in writing what the church will be used for after the initial sale. The sale of closed Catholic churches to private owners to be used for Catholic worship services after the sale is not the policy of the Diocese of Scranton.

An appraisal of the OLG church/rectory and former school properties has been conducted. The appraisal value of the church/rectory combined is $402,000 and the former school $247,000. Already several interested parties have made inquiry about purchasing the properties.

Some people have asked what will happen to the sacred objects in the church (i.e., sacred vessels, statues, painting, altars, etc.) In July, a religious goods dealer will come to catalogue all the sacred objects in the parish's possession. What is not retained by Our Lady of Peace parish will then be sold by the religious goods dealer to churches in need of such items. Interest in retaining the OLG tabernacle in place of the MPB tabernacle is being given consideration. Plans to erect a space for the processional statue of Saint Mauro and the busts of Saint Aniello and Saint Nazarius are being worked on, as well as illuminating the stained glass window of the Wounded Head of Christ currently in the OLG sacristy and mounting it on the balcony wall of MPB church.

PASTOR'S CORNER
REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR
REV. RAFAEL O'FARRIL
ASSISTANT PASTOR

Querida familia de Nuestra Señora de la Paz: Las lecturas de este XV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario nos invitan a contemplar la fuerza transformadora de la Palabra de Dios. El profeta Isaías nos presenta una imagen llena de esperanza: así como la lluvia y la nieve descienden del cielo y fecundan la tierra, haciendo posible la vida y la cosecha, así también la Palabra que sale de la boca de Dios nunca vuelve vacía. Ella cumple siempre la misión para la cual ha sido enviada. Dios sigue hablando, sembrando gracia, verdad y salvación en medio de nuestra historia.

En el Evangelio, Jesús desarrolla esta misma enseñanza mediante la parábola del sembrador. La semilla es la Palabra de Dios; el sembrador es Cristo mismo, que no se cansa de sembrar abundantemente. La diferencia no está en la calidad de la semilla, sino en la disposición del terreno. Algunos corazones se han endurecido por la indiferencia; otros reciben con entusiasmo pasajero, pero carecen de profundidad; otros permiten que las preocupaciones, las riquezas y las distracciones ahoguen la semilla. Sin embargo, existe también la tierra buena: el corazón humilde que escucha, acoge, persevera y da fruto abundante.

San Pablo, por su parte, nos recuerda que vivimos en una creación que gime y espera la plenitud de la redención. También nosotros experimentamos sufrimientos, luchas y fragilidades. Pero el apóstol nos anima a mirar más allá de las dificultades presentes. La gloria que Dios prepara para sus hijos supera infinitamente todo dolor y toda prueba. La esperanza cristiana no es una ilusión; nace de la certeza de que Dios está actuando silenciosamente en nosotros, como una semilla que crece hasta dar fruto.

La Palabra de Dios nos invita hoy a preguntarnos: ¿qué tipo de terreno soy? ¿Permito que el Señor transforme mi vida o dejo que las preocupaciones, el orgullo o la comodidad ahoguen su acción? Cada Eucaristía, cada momento de oración y cada encuentro con las Escrituras son nuevas oportunidades para que la semilla divina encuentre una tierra fértil.

Pidamos al Señor la gracia de un corazón dócil y abierto, capaz de escuchar, comprender y vivir su Palabra. Entonces nuestra vida dará frutos de conversión, santidad, caridad y esperanza para gloria de Dios y bien de nuestros hermanos.

Que la Santísima Virgen María, Nuestra Señora de la Paz, nos enseñe a custodiar la Palabra en el corazón y a dar frutos abundantes para el Reino de Dios.

Con mi oración y bendición sacerdotal,
 Padre Rafael O'Farril Bermúdez

Grant Announcement and Words of Gratitude

Our Lady of Peace Parish is grateful to announce that we have been awarded a $2,100 Faith Formation Grant from the Diocese of Scranton in support of our Happy, Healthy, and Holy Families initiative.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Bishop Joseph C. Bambera and the Diocese of Scranton Faith Formation Grant Committee for their confidence in our parish and their generous investment in our mission. This grant represents more than financial assistance—it is an affirmation of our commitment to fostering vibrant faith, strengthening families, and serving our parish community with love and dedication.

Through this funding, we will be able to enhance a variety of faith formation efforts and parish ministries, including our St. Joseph Vocation Ministry, CCD programs, visits by religious communities, student retreats, inspirational prayer resources, and technology that supports evangelization and learning.

“We are honored and deeply thankful to receive this grant,” said Fr. Generose. “This generous support will strengthen our ability to serve the people of Our Lady of Peace Parish as we continue our mission of lifelong faith formation, welcoming hospitality, and encouraging vocational discernment. We are grateful for the Diocese’s partnership in helping us build happy, healthy, and holy families rooted in Christ.”

On behalf of everyone at Our Lady of Peace Parish, we offer our heartfelt thanks to Bishop Bambera and the Faith Formation Grant Committee for their generosity, encouragement, and commitment to the mission of the Church. We look forward to sharing the many ways this grant will help bring our Happy, Healthy, and Holy Families initiative to life and deepen the faith of our parish for years to come.
