This year, parishioners from Our Lady of Grace and Most Precious Blood—now unified as Our Lady of Peace Parish—are warmly invited to participate. We encourage both men and women who appreciate music to join us; no prior musical experience is required.

For further information and the rehearsal schedule, please contact Rocco Arruzzo, Choir Director, at (570) 404-4631, or Danny DeMelfi, accompanist, at (570) 436-0624.

The day's schedule, which includes Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, Reconciliation, personal prayer, and tours, can be found on the Diocese of Scranton website.

PASTOR'S REFLEXIÓN CORNER DEL PASTOR

Querida familia en Cristo Jesus:

El salmo 89 nos da, unas claves que nos ayudan de advertencia, para saber estar siempre consciente que nuestra vida es transitoria en este mundo, ósea de paso. Es por eso, que utilizó el termino: 1) Nuestra vida es breve como un sueño. 2) Tú haces volver al hombre al polvo.

Por eso, también la palabra nos abre la conciencia y con humildad le decimos a Dios: 1) Llénanos de tu amor por la mañana y nuestra vida será jubilosa. 2) Conscientemente le pedimos, que nos enseñe a ver, lo que es la vida, para que seamos sensatos.

Porque si no, nos va a pasar como el ejemplo del evangelio de hoy, que nos propone el señor Jesus aplicarlo en la vida personal: Este pobre hombre no trascendió. ¿Por qué? 1) Dios mismo le dice, esta misma noche vas a morir. Y conste que la boca de Dios, pocas veces, encontramos el termino morir, siempre es dormir. 2) Este hombre no pensó en nadie a quien le iba a dejar las cosas, siempre fue en Mí.

Mi cosecha, Mis graneros, Mi alma, Mi vida, Mi seguridad. Todo era mí. Apliquémoslo a la realidad. Hay personas, papás o amigos que trabajan duro para dejar herencias. Pero no prepara a los herederos, que son el relevo generacional. ¿Pregúntate a quien le vas a dar tus bienes? Sabes a quienes, pero hay algo más grande, no dejes solo bienes, deja también "LEGADOS".

¿Qué son los legados? Enseñarles a trabajar, formación, educación, créales conciencia, hacer en la medida de lo posible que sean buenos cristianos y honrados ciudadanos. Porque recuerda ya Dios ha puesto riquezas en tu vida, y tienes que transformarlos en legados. Como son los talentos. Esos talentos ensénalos, trasmítelos, porque si no las personas te miraran como un artista o deportista etc. Que te miraran actuar, te aplaudirán, te admiraran, y alabarán. Pero ¿Qué les entusiasta?

Concluyo diciéndote: Hazte rico de lo que vale ante Dios, no de lo que vale ante el mundo, con el hombre que refleja una situación, que se viven en la misma familia, que se quieren solo por las herencias, y algunos mas listo, sé quedan con todo.

No, les den importancia en absoluto a las cosas temporales que no les den felicidad. Cuantas personas, tienen acciones en la bolsa de valores, y como sufren antes las caídas que sufren estas y muchas veces hasta se enferman. Dios no enferma mejor sana. Elige y fomenta, enseñar los dones de Dios.

ALABADO SEA JESUCRISTO

REV. RAFAEL O'FARRIL. ASSISTANT PASTOR/ OUR LADY OF PEACE PARISH

Dear family in Jesus Christ:

Psalm 89 gives us some keys that help us as a warning, to always be aware that our life is transitory in this world, that is, passing through. That is why he used the term: 1) Our life is brief as a dream. 2) You return man to dust. Therefore, the word also opens our conscience and with humility we say to God: 1) fill us with your love in the morning and our life will be joyful. 2) Consciously we ask Him to teach us to see what life is, so that we may be wise.

Because if not, it will happen to us like the example of today's Gospel, which Jesus proposes to apply to our personal life: This poor man did not transcend. Why? 1) God himself tells him, this very night you are going to die. And note that God's mouth, rarely, we find the term die, it is always sleep. 2) This man did not think of anyone to whom he was going to leave things; it was always in Me:

My harvest, My barns, My soul, My life, My security. Everything was Me. Let's apply it to reality. There are people, parents or friends who work hard to leave inheritances. But they do not prepare the heirs, who are the generational relay. Ask yourself to whom are you going to give your assets? You know to whom, but there is something bigger, do not leave only goods, leave also "LEGACY".

What are the legacies? Teach them to work, training, education, raise their awareness, make them as much as possible to be good Christians and honest citizens. Because remember that God has already put riches in your life, and you have to transform them into legacies. As are the talents. Those talents teach them, transmit them, because if not people will look at you as an artist or athlete etc... They will watch you perform; they will applaud you; they will admire you, and they will praise you. But what excites them?

I conclude by telling you: Get rich of what is worth before God, not of what is worth before the world, with the man who reflects a situation, who live in the same family, who love each other only for the inheritances, and some more seen that they keep everything. Do not give importance at all to temporary things that do not give you happiness. How many people even have shares in the stock market, and how they suffer before the falls that these suffer and many times, they even get sick. God does not make sick but heals. Choose and encourage, point out the gifts of God.

From a nostalgic past parishioner:

I just want to say that I spent most of my years growing up with my Nana in Hazleton. She lived on N. Wyoming Street and so many Sundays were filled with us walking to your beautiful church. I can't tell you the number of candles I lit in the grotto or the hours spent staring at the murals on the ceiling. The summers filled with going to the festival the church sponsored and my very favorite, the Madonna festival with all the decorated statues. This church holds a very special place in my heart and soul. Thank you for your help researching and reminding me of what a wonderful place your church is!

Sincerely,
Deana Watson
