MONTHLY DIGEST: Vol. 10

A Healthy Fear

Do you love God? I do! Most rescues from the bondage of sin know and love God very much. That part seems easy. We believers understand that if we lose our love for God, we lose our ability to truly live. HOWEVER, our personal love for God does little to create in us a desire to live truly, unless we also honor His Lordship in our life. Our finite affections towards God are powerless, without a holy fear, or reverence for God.

Those who fear the Lord are secure; he will be a refuge for their children. ~Proverbs 14:26 NLT

Losing the fear of God, can rob us of the ability to discern wisely, and we'll likely get lost. Just ask someone who once was held captive and is now free from the chains of addiction! When something, including one's own vices, or even the pursuit of a seemingly innocent dream, draw our time, attention, reverence, and loyalty away from our Creator and Savior, then we begin a march down the path of self-destruction.

I've been taught to take a daily MORAL inventory. My ongoing recovery from the hurts, hangups and habits that previously led me astray, require constant, conscious contact with God for my continued healing & personal growth to flourish.

My body is His vessel; I carry the most Holy Spirit of God within my being, YET I am prone to veer out of His presence - even to the point of leaving my own body, in a spiritual & mental sense - at the mere suggestion of this worldly pleasure or that shiny object. Yes, a constant, conscious connection to The Holy Spirit within, is vital for me.

Thankfully, God lives outside of my body too, and He rounds me up & brings me back, every time! What a Good, GOOD Shepherd! To learn more about Christ-centered equine-assisted recovery principles learned at TFO Farm, click here. FoR-HiM program scholarships are still available!

You may have read in last month's volume of The Neigh-borly Newsletter that Junior was available for sale and looking for a new home. The Lord, a TFO volunteer, and Junior, himself convinced me to consider another option. Read more about Junior and his future on page 3 of this issue.

Bring your camp chair and a friend or two to the Campfire Gathering this Friday at Too Far Out Farm: JUNE 26th @ 7PM. In this issue you'll learn more about how to RSVP that upcoming event and enjoy other springtime happenings at the farm too!

Junior is Looking for a New friend!

Due to Junior's need for regular exercise, more human interaction, and the extra TLC that we are unable to provide him right now, while we focus on exciting new projects at The Farm, we are offering him for an on-premises lease. As part of the lease agreement, Junior will stay here at his present home stable. His new friend, rider and partner could be YOU. If needed/wanted, we may also negotiate into the agreement for discounted weekly trail riding lessons on Junior for the right person.

This horse lease offer is the perfect opportunity for a local resident to learn experientially about caring and riding a horse without taking the "full punge" of ownership. Junior's new trail buddy and partner must be at least 8 years old (if under 15, must be accompanied by a parent while on farm property), and able to commit to $150/month lease payment for six months. If you can travel to Junior's home at Too Far Out Farm in Guys Mills, PA at least 3 days per week and would like to develop a relationship with this wonderful gelding, please call Debbie at 814-795-2686 to inquire about this on-premises horse lease opportunity.
