Saint Theresa Parish Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 31, 2025

God, in your goodness, you have made [a home,] a home for the poor.

In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

Many thanks to Pattie Needham for the beautifully made Rosaries that we give to our parish families in Our Lady of Fatima Block Rosary.

Stewards of the Gospel

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." LUKE 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a Stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it's just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

To ALL CATECHISM TEACHERS:

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE

The Office of Worship, in collaboration with the Office of Evangelization & Catechesis and the Tribunal Office, will hold a workshop on the Catechumenate and the Diocesan Norms next month on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at St Joseph - Hilo Parish Hall .

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

Next weekend, the Diocese of Honolulu will take up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university, in the heart of Washington, D.C., with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. Envelopes are available in the back of the church.

Gathering Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank you for the great hospitality you show to us and thank you for your open heart, open table and open hands towards us. We pray to you to help us put the relationship with you and others before the things and people that distract us. We also pray for the gift of hospitality in creating little glimpses of heaven right here on earth.
Amen!
