Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

4th Sunday of Advent

December 21, 2025

Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

Reflection Points

- Recall experiences when you tested God because you insisted on your plans.
- How can we guide the young people to be open to God's mysterious ways?

The Gospel of Matthew tells the story of the birth of Jesus from Joseph's perspective. Today's Gospel passage is the second movement in this story. In the preceding verses of the first chapter of Matthew's Gospel, the Evangelist has listed the genealogy of Jesus, tracing his lineage through King David to Abraham. In the chapter to follow, Matthew tells of the visit from the Magi, the Holy Family's flight into Egypt, and Herod's massacre of the infants in Bethlehem. We must not gloss over too quickly the difficult circumstances described in today's Gospel. The way that Joseph and Mary face these circumstances tells us much about these holy people and their faith in God. Joseph and Mary are betrothed to be married. This is sometimes described as an engagement period, but it is more than that. Betrothal in first century Jewish culture was in fact the first part of the marriage contract. A breach of this contract was considered adultery. Mary is found to be with child. If adultery is proven, the punishment might be death. Joseph has rights under Mosaic law, but chooses to act discreetly in his plans to break the marriage contract, so as to protect Mary. Then God intervenes.

Stewards of the Gospel

"When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home." MATTHEW 1:24

Stewards put our complete trust in the Lord without expecting anything in return. Striving to put God first in all things and follow Him wherever He may lead us. Joseph was a model of these pillars of our faith. As we prepare for the birth of our Lord, pray for the strength and courage to be a model of discipleship, just as Joseph was.

Gathering Prayer

Pilgrims of Hope Prayer

O God,
who sent your Son Jesus Christ to be our
true hope,
we are grateful for your gift of Eucharist,
the promise that refreshes and nourishes
our joy in hope and your grace.

As we begin the season of Advent renew our spirit
and provide love, faith, and peace
to a world in need of hope, justice, and goodness.

Bless our efforts, strengthened by your grace,
to be the life-giving leaven
that bursts forth
a new resolve to give witness to God's love,
to build the Body of Christ
and be food for others
in sharing the journey to the eternal banquet.

Bless our ministries and unite us in a communion of joy
where we are sanctified by your protection to feed the hungers of the human family.

Through Christ, our only hope. Amen.

At the most recent monthly Chuukese Mass at Holy Rosary Church in Kea'au on the east side of the Big Island, nearly 80 former members of Holy Cross Parish from Uman Island in Chuuk State gathered on December 7, 2025, for a special blessing. The blessing that occurred was for those men who are forming three associations that supported their faith life when they lived on their home island of Uman in the Chuuk lagoon.

Each of these associations is linked to one of the five chapels or the main parish church in Uman, Holy Cross Church. The main church as well as the five chapels, are located in separate villages around the island. These associations include a parish council, a youth association, and a community association, all supporting the framework of their Catholic parish life as lived originally on their home island. Chuuk is one of four island states in the Federated States of Micronesia (FSM). Besides Chuuk, there is Yap, Kosrae, and Pohnpei. During World War II the United States Navy built a Naval Base at Uman Island, which was an anchorage for PT Boats.

DCN Sukan Stephen blesses men who represent Holy Cross Parish on Uman, as well as smaller chapels: Assumption of Our Lady, St. John, St. Peter, St. Paul, and Our Lady of Fatima.

The blessing was given by Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, pastor of St. Theresa Parish, as well as by two Chuukese deacons assigned by the Diocese of Honolulu to St. Theresa Parish: Deacons Sukan Stephen and Joseph Albert. Holy Rosary is one of two churches in St. Theresa Parish, with St. Theresa Church, office, and rectory located in Mountain View, about halfway up the highway leading to Kilauea Volcano. Holy Rosary also has a Micronesia Ministry office with a computer and printer, and office space for meetings for the local Micronesia population. Because of their unusually close family relationships within their culture, many Chuukese from Uman Island live and associate frequently on the east side of Hawaii Island.

The Chuukese women from Uman already have an “apostleship of prayer association initiated on Uman Island called “Nopina”. The Nopina is responsible for 9-day novenas for the deceased, as well as for regularly praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Rosary, as well as other devotionals in support of their fellow islanders and their living and deceased family members.

Having these groups now more active in their communal religious life on Hawaii Island is a significant development for these former Uman Islanders. They are continuing important religious and cultural traditions of their former island life in their present homes and churches on Hawaii Island, where so many of them have relocated. They are a wonderful asset to the Catholic parishes on the east side of Hawaii Island, and ardent and prayerful Catholics who manifest their faith in beautiful Chuukese customs, music, and practice to all who worship with them.

DCN Joseph Albert distributes Holy Communion on December 7, 2025, Chuukese Mass at Holy Rosary Church.
