Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 13, 2025

Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Reflection points

- What prevents me from seeing a neighbor in others and in being a neighbor to others?
- How can we make others realize that God has written his Word in our hearts?

Jesus has demolished all boundary expectations. It is not social definitions such as class, religion, gender, or ethnicity that determines who is our neighbor. A neighbor is a person who acts with compassion toward another. The point becomes not who deserves to be loved as I love myself, but that I become a person who treats everyone with compassion. When Jesus asks the lawyer who was the neighbor in the story, the lawyer can't bring himself to say it was the Samaritan. All he says is that it was "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus' response was similar to that of the first discussion: "Go and do likewise." The lawyer, and we, know what is right. The key is to do it.

Stewards of the Gospel

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All because Stewardship is lived without expecting anything in return.

Gathering Prayer

Lord Jesus,

thank You for the Parable of the Good Samaritan, which teaches us the depth of Your love and the call to be true neighbors. Help us to see others through Your eyes, to respond with compassion and action, and to extend grace to those in need. May we break down barriers of prejudice and be vessels of Your mercy. Empower us to live out Your commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves.

In Your name,

Amen.
