

Greater love has no one than this:
to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Saint Theresa Parish

Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

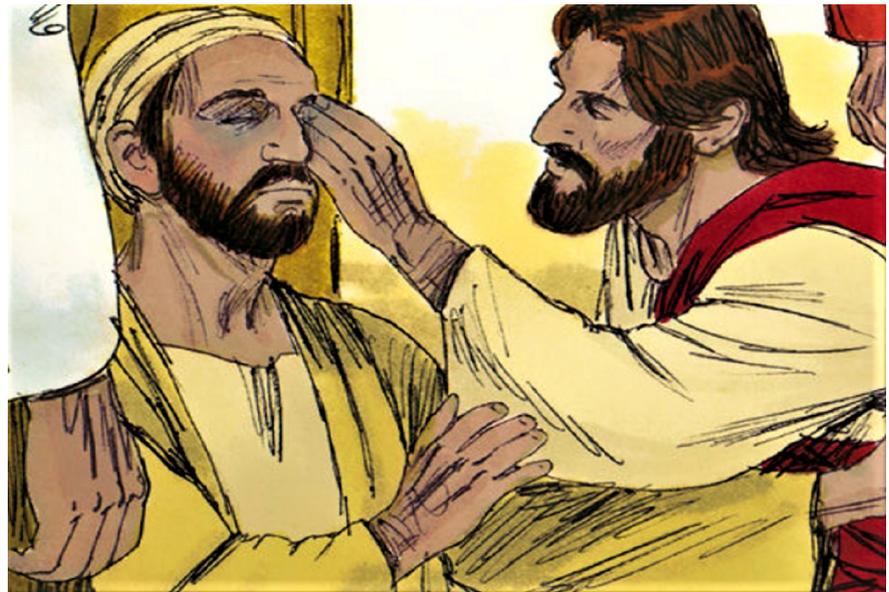

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

4th Sunday of Lent

March 15, 2026

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reflection Points

- What attitudes or ways of thinking make me blind to God's action?
- How can we help heal the blindness that cause discrimination and injustice?

The final revelation and moment of enlightenment comes when the man born blind encounters Jesus again. Having heard the news of his expulsion, Jesus seeks out the man born blind and reveals himself to him as the Son of Man. In this moment, the man born blind shows himself to be a man of faith and worships Jesus. Jesus replies by identifying the irony of the experience of many who encounter Jesus: Those who are blind will now see, and those who think they now see will be found to be blind. As in last week's Gospel about Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman, today's reading has many allusions to Baptism. The washing of the man in the pool of Siloam is a prototype for Christian Baptism. Through the man's encounter with Jesus, the man born blind is healed, his sight is restored, and his conversion to discipleship begins. The man born blind gradually comes to a greater understanding about who Jesus is and what it means to be his disciple, while the Pharisees (those who should see) are the ones who remain blind.

Stewards of the Gospel

“Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart.” 1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our Stewardship of time, talent and treasure here on earth.

Our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ’s love and mercy to vulnerable people here and broad. Please give generously to the collection and reveals Christ’s love to those most in need. Envelopes are available in the back of the church.

Keep Deacon Jim in your prayers.

Gathering Prayer

Lord Jesus,

Son of David, have mercy on me!

Just as you heard the cry of the blind man,

I ask you to open my eyes to see Your truth
and guide my path.

I trust in Your power to heal and restore.

Amen
