Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

5th Sunday of Easter

May 3, 2026

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Reflection Points

- How have I experienced the Risen Lord in our parish community?
- How can we as a parish make the Risen Lord shine more clearly in our pastoral work and ministry?

The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples don't know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father.

Stewards of the Gospel

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." 1 PETER 2:7

Every steward has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit. These are called "charisms" and they are used to build God's kingdom of earth. While many people are able to recognize their natural talents and abilities, they may be unsure of their charisms. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern their charisms and how God is calling them to use them. Remember - no gift is too small or insignificant in God's salvation plan. Diocese of Camden

Leo PP XIV

Pope Leo XIV portrays the Blessed Virgin Mary as a model of faith, obedience, humility, and maternal care, whose life and example guide believers toward Christ. He encourages devotion to her as a source of spiritual inspiration, while maintaining that Christ alone is the source of salvation, and Mary's role is to lead the faithful to Him through her example and intercession.
