Saint Theresa Parish Mission Statement 2022-2027

We are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, called to give witness to God's love.

Drawing life from the Bread given for the life of others, we proclaim a more just and compassionate message so that Christ's reign may come and the glory of God be revealed to the world.

Inspired by Mary, our Lady of the Holy Rosary, and Saint Theresa, our patron, we see everything in the light of the Eucharist and seek to do ordinary things with extraordinary love.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 18, 2026

Give the Lord glory and honor.

Reflection Points:

- What are the mistaken ways by which I treat human leaders as "God"?
- What are the ways by which we reduce God to the level of human leaders?

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes. Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities.

Stewards of the Gospel

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. - MATTHEW 22:21"

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

October 4, 2026 Sunday

the RE students Nathaniel, Sophia, Ronald, Makayla, Royden had an activity of planting a papaya. Leah, their catechist taught them that being a Good and Faithful Steward of God's creation, when given a gift entrusted to them like the papaya plant, it needs to be planted in a fertile soil, water each day, have sunshine. Give much love, patience and kindness, just as God has created each of them

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."

Gathering Prayer

Diocesan Prayer for the 200th Anniversary of Catholicism in Hawai'i

Heavenly Father,

With grateful hearts, we praise and thank You for two hundred years of Catholic faith in these Hawaiian Islands. We remember with deep gratitude the courageous pioneers of the Gospel: the missionaries of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, who crossed oceans; the Native Hawaiian faithful who embraced Christ; the clergy, religious, and lay leaders who planted, nurtured, and strengthened Your Church throughout the generations. Bless all those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith. May their witness continue to inspire us to live as faithful disciples of Your Son. We thank You for the Church of today, whose members continue the mission of proclaiming the Good News through prayer, service, and love. Renew us in faith, strengthen us in hope, and unite us in charity, that we may be living witnesses of Your presence in our islands. As we look to the future, pour out Your Holy Spirit upon the generations yet to come. Raise up holy vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, consecrated life, and married life. Guide our young people to know and follow Your will. Grant that the faith handed down to us may flourish in every heart and every home. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady, Queen of Peace, Saint Damien of Moloka'i, Saint Marianne Cope, and all the holy men and women who have served the Church in Hawai'i, lead us ever closer to Your Son, Jesus Christ. May the next century of faith be marked by holiness, missionary zeal, and steadfast love, so that all people may come to know and glorify You. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
