

INSIDE BAY AREA

*A guide to what's happening
now in your neighborhood*

EAT / Los Altos

You don't have to be part of a Silicon Valley start-up for five-star treatment at Cetrella Los Altos, where embroidered high-back booths, grandiloquent murals, and velvet curtains give way to innovative Cal-Med cuisine. Grilled marinated Spanish octopus arrives with a cloud of avocado purée and garnish of crisp charred lemon while Fort Bragg uni is served with house-made linguine, Tomales Bay clams, and pecorino gran cru cheese. Low-tech dishes like gas-fired Wood Stone oven pizzas earn equal rank, and be sure to save room for the basque cake with stone fruit and sherry cream. This summer an outdoor patio will open. $$$;
