

Central Christian Church

Come. Let's make a world of difference!

Celebrating the unconditional welcome we receive from God through Christ, we join together in worship, community, and witness: to wrestle with deep questions of faith, to grow in love for God and one another, to confront oppression and injustice, and to extend God's boundless hospitality to all.

*The congregation prays aloud in the language

Our Creator/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

God Has Work For Us To Do - Mark A. Miller

Text: Carl P. Daw

'Til all the jails are empty and all the bellies filled;
'til no one hurts or steals or lies, and no more blood is spilled:

God has work for us to do, 'til God's will is done and
all things are made new,

God has work for us to do!

'Til age and race and gender no longer separate;
'til pulpit, press, and politics are free of greed and hate:

God has work for us to do, 'til God's will is done and
all things are made new,

God has work for us to do!

In tenement and mansion, in factory, farm, and mill, in board room and in billiard hall, in wards where time stands still.

In classroom, church, and office, in shops, or on the street, in every place where people thrive, or starve, or hide, or meet.

God has work for us to do.

By sitting at a bedside to hold pale, trembling hands,
by speaking for the powerless against unjust demands.
By praying through our doing, and singing though we fear, by trusting that the seed we sow will bring God's harvest near:

God has work for us to do, 'til God's will is done and
all things are made new,

God has work for us to do!
