

About the Author, Suzanne Blankenship

50 words

Suzanne's experience with eldercare came the hard way – by doing it.

After three decades immersed in her own eldercare journey, Suzanne found she wasn't alone in her search for solutions. Delivered with tongue-in-cheek humor, Suzanne's tools get you organized, prepared and able to find resources that navigate you skillfully through the trying times of eldercare.

100 words

Suzanne's experience with eldercare came the hard way – by doing it.

After three decades of eldercare, Suzanne has found advocacy and elder-centric service a rare commodity for our aging population. Choices for our loved ones can be hard and are often made under the pressure of time and emergency situations. Suzanne has developed tools, identified resources, and put together organized plans for different eldercare scenarios. She shares her tips and guidance to help you navigate more easily through the eldercare journey and advocate effectively for your elder. Suzanne brings some sanity to an otherwise randomly arriving responsibility, easing the load with her tongue-in-cheek humor.