MARRIAGE MATTERS

In his Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis offers a profound insight into the joy of Christian marriage and reminds us of its place at the very heart of the Church's life. Christian marriage, he observes, 'is a sign of how much Christ loved his Church' in the covenant sealed on the cross, yet it also makes that love present in the communion of the spouses. By becoming one flesh, they embody the espousal of our human nature by the Son of God.'

As we know, the Holy Scriptures feed and nourish our faith and help us to grow in our relationship with God and one another. It is for this reason that these scriptural reflections are offered. They should help enable married couples to focus on the richness of God's Word that we hear proclaimed each Sunday of the Year and to experience the deep joy of God's love expressed in the great Sacrament of Marriage.

THE LORD WILL LEAD US BACK TOGETHER

Ezekiel's words apply to us when we are going through tough times in our relationship, when intimacy, physical or otherwise, seems impossible. At such times, Jesus weeps for us as He did for Lazarus. He will bring us back together if we ask Him and are willing to be vulnerable enough to explore together the changes we need to make.

Mysteries

The first reading from Ezekiel is perfectly paired with the Gospel reading of the raising of Lazarus. Ezekiel hears God say very clearly that God will raise his people from the dead, animating them with the spirit that will bring them back to life. The second reading from St. Paul also addresses the Jewish and Christian theological question, "Is death the end of every thing?" Paul is as emphatic as Ezekiel. No. "The One who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also."

Of course, it might seem easy to believe in life after death until we have had a loved one die. Martha and Mary might have believed in an afterlife because, as Jews, they would have been familiar with the promise from Ezekiel. Yet when their brother died and the reality of him being gone for four days sank in, they doubted too. Not only did they doubt, but they grieved deeply, and even got angry at Jesus. Martha told Jesus she believes Lazarus "will rise, in the resurrection on the last day," but believing that didn't lessen her other perfectly normal human emotions.

Even after Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, mysteries remain. Why didn't Jesus go to Lazarus immediately when the sisters summoned him? Why did he let them experience heart-breaking sadness for four days? Why did Jesus cry if he knew he would raise Lazarus from the dead? Why did Jesus raise Lazarus but not others who died during his lifetime? Why do some people today get to experience healing miracles, but others don't? Why do we have to wait for the resurrection of the dead to see our loved ones again? These readings today don't solve any mysteries of our faith. They don't give us answers about God, but they point to the complete conviction of three different biblical writers who do not doubt that Jesus is "the resurrection and the life."

Questions of the week

- 1 What most stands out to you when you hear the Gospel reading today? Why?
- 2 If you have lost a loved one(s), did that affect on what you believe about the afterlife? How so?

"You shall know that I am the Lord when I open your graves and have you rise from them."

Sheepish Question:
In what ways do I need to strengthen my belief in God's power, particularly in the truth of resurrection?

EASTER COLLECTION FOR THE SUPPORT OF PARISH CLERGY - This provides income to the Parish for the support of clergy and may be Gift Aided. General Parish Information

Parishioner Registration : Every household within the Parish is requested to complete a 'Parishioner Registration/Census' form so that our Parish records may be kept up to date. These forms can be obtained from the Parish Office and should be completed fully before being returned to the Parish Office.

Should you move address within the Parish at any time please complete a new form and write 'AMENDMENT' across the top of the form. Thank you.

Hospital : If you are going into hospital as a 'planned admission' you are strongly encouraged to make contact with Fr Daryl well beforehand so that, if appropriate, the Sacrament of the Sick can be celebrated beforehand.

Infant Baptism : Infant Baptisms are intended for the children of practising parishioners only and are celebrated on five occasions during the year after parents and godparents have completed a course of preparation. There can be no celebration without this important course. The dates of the courses for the current year can be found in the application form available from the Parish Office. Baptisms do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Sacramental Preparation : Notice of the availability of Application Forms for preparation for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist will be made via the Parish Newsletter between the school Summer Half Term and 31st August each year. Possible candidates for Confirmation should respond to the announcements made via the Parish Newsletter at the beginning of the Autumn school term.

Parishioners are advised that it is very difficult to imagine that any family or individual who is not regularly practising the Faith as members of our community could possibly be ready to celebrate a Sacrament of the Church.

Marriage Preparation : Marriages are celebrated by appointment with the Parish Priest. It should be remembered that in the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton twelve months minimum notice is required before a marriage may take place; this is a requirement of the Church for all marriages that involve a Roman Catholic (even if they are not taking place in the Catholic Church). It is also necessary that one of the parties must have a meaningful connection with the Parish. Marriages do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Parish Car Park : All Parishioners attending Mass and using our Car Park need to make sure that they have fully completed our 'Parishioner Registration/Census Form' (available from the Parish Office) before using the Car Park; this ensures that your current vehicle registration is lodged in the system. Registering only needs to be done once (unless you change your car or if you use another car in the family that is not registered on the system).

Important : if you are not registered on the system and you use the car park you will receive a parking notice. Registered Parishioners and pre-registered visitors are able to park whilst they attend our Masses/liturgies without fear of a charge notice. (Car Park queries - parking@shpcobham.com)

NOTE : the Car Park does not use QR codes any found are scams!

The musings of one of God's smallest creatures on events in and around the Parish over the past seven days

Very busy around The Presbytery as things begin to 'hot up' for the great Easter Feast

Last Saturday morning our singers and musicians were once more practicing for some of our Holy Week liturgies.

On Sunday afternoon parishioners once more had the opportunity to celebrate Lenten Evening Prayer & Benediction - taking the chance to jump off the normal merry-go-round of life to spend a short period of time with the Lord.

After celebrating Morning Prayer, Mass, and Exposition on St Patrick's Day (Tuesday), Fr D was off down to the diocesan offices to wear his 'other hat' in the Tribunal. Whilst there he received an email from the lighting engineers asking for a little more input as to the various lighting circuits in the church and how they would be used to construct various 'themes' to be used at our different types of service. Fr D left working on this until the evening as he was working on his judgment for one of his marriage cases.

Following Morning Prayer and Mass on Wednesday Fr D sent off his answers to the lighting engineers and very quickly got a reply that the schema was just what they wanted (but could still be adjusted on site if necessary at any point in time). Fr D met for his regular monthly lunch with Fr Ruslan (Walton-on-Thames) - the waiter had to keep coming back to try and take their order as they were talking so animatedly! In the early evening Fr D was meeting with our Confirmation candidates to look at Holy Week and all the different from normal things that happen during it. The candidates 'signed-up' for various jobs at the Holy Thursday Mass and also told Fr D a little bit about the saints they had chosen for their confirmation name. Finally Fr D was able to announce that, because we are minus a bishop at present, the confirmation Mass will now take place here in the Sacred Heart at the 18.00 Mass on Saturday 9th May, and that in the bishop's absence he had been given faculties to celebrate their confirmation. After the meeting Fr D opened up the church for our singers and musicians to continue with their practices for some of our Holy Week Liturgies.

After Morning Prayer and Mass on Thursday Fr D began his parts of the newsletter before travelling down to Sussex for a meeting of the Bosco Catholic Education Trust which he is a member of

RESURRECTION LIFE

John 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33-45*

The sisters sent Jesus a message: "Lord, your dear friend is ill." When Jesus heard it, he said, "The final result of this illness will not be the death of Lazarus; this has happened in order to bring glory to God, and it will be the means by which the Son of God will receive glory." Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. Yet when he received the news that Lazarus was ill, he stayed where he was for two more days. Then he said to the disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been buried four days before. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house. Martha said to Jesus, "If you had been here, Lord, my brother would not have died! But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask him for." Your brother will rise to life," Jesus told her. "I know," she replied, "that he will rise to life on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me will live, even though they die; and all those who live and believe in me will never die. Do you believe this?" "Yes, Lord!" she answered. "I do believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who was to come into the world." Jesus saw her weeping, and he saw how the people who were with her were weeping also; his heart was touched, and he was deeply moved. "Where have you buried him?" he asked them. "Come and see, Lord," they answered. Jesus wept. "See how much he loved him!" the people said. But some of them said, "He gave sight to the blind man, didn't he? Could he not have kept Lazarus from dying?" Deeply moved once more, Jesus went to the tomb, which was a cave with a stone placed at the entrance. "Take the stone away!" Jesus ordered. Martha, the dead man's sister, answered, "There will be a bad smell, Lord. He has been buried four days!" Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believed?" They took the stone away. Jesus looked up and said, "I thank you, Father, that you listen to me. I know that you always listen to me, but I say this for the sake of the people here, so that they will believe that you sent me." After he had said this, he called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" He came out, his hands and feet wrapped in grave clothes, and with a cloth round his face. "Untie him," Jesus told them, "and let him go." Many of the people who had come to visit Mary saw what Jesus did, and they believed in him.

*This is a shortened form of today's reading. The full reading is John 11:1-45. Other Readings: Ezekiel 37:12-14; Psalm 130; Romans 8:8-11

LECTIO:

Mary and Martha are very close friends of Jesus so they are dismayed when he appears to arrive too late - after their brother has died. From the outset Jesus is aware that his Father has a glorious plan (verse 4) but that still doesn't prevent him from sharing their grief (verses 33-35). Jesus declares 'I am the resurrection and the life' and promises that those who believe in him will never die (verses 25-26). Martha expresses her faith that Jesus is the promised Messiah. Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead so that people will believe he is the Son of God. Many people do believe but for the religious leaders Jesus now poses so great a threat that they plot to kill him (verse 53).

MEDITATIO:

- What things strike you most from this story?
• What does this miracle demonstrate about Jesus' authority?
• 'I am the resurrection and the life.' What does this statement mean for you? What do you think about eternal life?

ORATIO:

Respond to God in prayer. Bring your hopes and fears to him and thank him for his loving care.

CONTEMPLATIO:

Read Romans 8:8-11 and let these verses strengthen your faith and confidence in God's promises.

Table with columns: Day, Date, Time, Service / Intention, Donor. Rows include Lenten Weekday services (Sat 21st, Mon 23rd, Tue 24th, Thu 26th, Sat 28th) and Sunday services (Sun 22nd, Sun 29th). Services include Sacrament of Reconciliation, Morning Prayer, and Lenten Evening Prayer & Benediction.

Annunciation of the Lord

The solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord was first celebrated in the fourth or fifth century. Its central focus is the Incarnation: God has become one of us. From all eternity God had decided that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity should become human. Now, as Luke 1:26-38 tells us, the decision is being realised. The God-Man embraces all of humanity, indeed all creation, to bring it to God in one great act of love. Because human beings have rejected God,

Jesus will accept a life of suffering and a terrible death: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13). Since Mary is the instrument of Incarnation, she has a role to play with Jesus in creation and redemption. It is a God-given role. It is God's grace from beginning to end. Mary becomes the eminent figure she is only by God's grace. She is the empty space where God could act. Everything she is she owes to the Trinity. Mary is the virgin-mother who fulfils Isaiah 7:14 in a way that Isaiah could not have imagined. Together with Jesus, the privileged and graced Mary is the link between heaven and earth. She is the human being who best, after Jesus, exemplifies the possibilities of human existence. She received into her lowliness the infinite love of God. She shows how an ordinary human being can reflect God in the ordinary circumstances of life.
