MARRIAGE MATTERS

In his Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis offers a profound insight into the joy of Christian marriage and reminds us of its place at the very heart of the Church's life. Christian marriage, he observes, 'is a sign of how much Christ loved his Church in the covenant sealed on the cross, yet it also makes that love present in the communion of the spouses. By becoming one flesh, they embody the espousal of our human nature by the Son of God.'

As we know, the Holy Scriptures feed and nourish our faith and help us to grow in our relationship with God and one another. It is for this reason that these scriptural reflections are offered. They should help enable married couples to focus on the richness of God's Word that we hear proclaimed each Sunday of the Year and to experience the deep joy of God's love expressed in the great Sacrament of Marriage.

ROMANCE IS AT THE CORE OF OUR CALLING

The theme of today's readings is rejoicing. Those who have had to be away from home know the thrill of returning – the hug, the kiss and perhaps making love. But when every day is much like any other, we can lose the spark and we need to remember that romance is at the very core of our calling.

Needed, more than 12

Twice in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus sends disciples out to spread his mission by curing the sick and preaching the Kingdom of God, a realm of peace, justice, and compassion for all. The first time, in the chapter before this reading, Jesus sent out his 12 apostles. In the passage today, he sends out a larger group of 72 others. It seems Jesus realizes that he needs more than 12 helpers in this work!

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few."

Sheepish Question:

With all I've been given, am I spreading the Good News, or just spreading myself?

It's likely that this larger group of 72 included women as well as men. In chapter 8, Luke mentions by name several women who accompanied Jesus in his ministry including Mary Magdalen, Joanna, and Susanna, "and many others, who provided for them out of their resources" (Lk 8:2-3). When Jesus sends out the 72 they are sent out in pairs. In the Acts of the Apostles and Paul's letters, there are references to married couples who work and travel together as missionaries. Jesus' instructions were practical for missionaries of his day when the early Christians relied on the hospitality and generosity of other open-minded individuals who wanted to hear about Jesus' teachings. He did not want them weighed down or slowed down by hauling their material possessions, and he challenged them to stretch to trust in God's care for them provided through others. He also gave them advice about what to do when they were not received well, the proverbial "shake the dust from your feet" which Jesus demonstrated in last week's reading when he wasn't received in Samaria. Although we may not be full-time Christian missionaries today, all of Jesus' instructions for how to conduct ourselves in our daily lives can still be relevant and offer guidance for our work and personal relationships.

Questions of the week

- What might you be invited to let go of to lighten your load and free you up for easier movement in your life's work right now?
- Where/when have you offered your skills, gifts, or time only to have them rejected? What was it like to try to shake the dust from your feet and move on?

General Parish Information

Parishioner Registration : Every household within the Parish is requested to complete a 'Parishioner Registration/Census' form so that our Parish records may be kept up to date. These forms can be obtained from the Parish Office and should be completed fully before being returned to the Parish Office.

Should you move address within the Parish at any time please complete a new form and write 'AMENDMENT' across the top of the form. Thank you.

Hospital : If you are going into hospital as a 'planned admission' you are strongly encouraged to make contact with Fr Daryl well beforehand so that, if appropriate, the Sacrament of the Sick can be celebrated beforehand.

Infant Baptism : Infant Baptisms are intended for the children of practising parishioners only and are celebrated on five occasions during the year after parents and godparents have completed a course of preparation. There can be no celebration without this important course. The dates of the courses for the current year can be found in the application form available from the Parish Office. Baptisms do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Sacramental Preparation : Notice of the availability of Application Forms for preparation for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist will be made via the Parish Newsletter between the school Summer Half Term and 31st August each year. Possible candidates for Confirmation should respond to the announcements made via the Parish Newsletter at the beginning of the Autumn school term.

Parishioners are advised that it is very difficult to imagine that any family or individual who is not regularly practising the Faith as members of our community could possibly be ready to celebrate a Sacrament of the Church.

Marriage Preparation : Marriages are celebrated by appointment with the Parish Priest. It should be remembered that in the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton twelve months minimum notice is required before a marriage may take place; this is a requirement of the Church for all marriages that involve a Roman Catholic (even if they are not taking place in the Catholic Church). It is also necessary that one of the parties must have a meaningful connection with the Parish. Marriages do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Parish Car Park : All Parishioners attending Mass and using our Car Park need to make sure that they have fully completed our 'Parishioner Registration/Census Form' (available from the Parish Office) before using the Car Park; this ensures that your current vehicle registration is lodged in the system. Registering only needs to be done once (unless you change your car or if you use another car in the family that is not registered on the system).

Important : if you are not registered on the system and you use the car park you will receive a parking notice. Registered Parishioners and pre-registered visitors are able to park whilst they attend our Masses/liturgies without fear of a charge notice. (Car Park queries - parking@shpcobham.com)

NOTE : the Car Park does not use QR codes any found are scams!

The musings of one of God's smallest creatures on events in and around the Parish over the past seven days

A slight slowing down this week around The Presbytery, as sacramental programmes for the year come to an end and schools get ready for the long summer holidays

Saturday morning Fr D met with the First Eucharist families for their final 'input session' and at our 09.00 Mass on Sunday, together with our newly confirmed, those who have just received the Eucharist for the first time received their Certificates. This brought to an end the 2024/5 programmes and Fr D announced that the applications for next year's programmes are now available (see newsletter announcement).

After celebrating Morning Prayer, Mass, and Exposition on Tuesday morning Fr D picked up Fr Tony and they went off to the annual Clergy In-Service in Horsley. These take place every year and cover areas of ministry of current importance. They are an overnight occasion but Fr D, living so close, prefers his own food and bed!

On Wednesday Fr D was back at the hotel for the In-Service to continue. The clergy were led in reflections about the changing environment in which they exercise their ministry, especially with regard to the Diocesan Pastoral Plan and the changes that this will involve in a relatively short space of time. (The Council of Priests was meeting at some point this week to advise the bishop on the first three Deaneries to be transformed into a Parish with a Team Ministry providing for their needs.)

On Thursday Fr D was able to spend some time on this week's newsletter - somewhat delayed by the In-Service. Having celebrated Mass and Morning Prayer he also had a contractor coming to look at the recent fire damage (second time in two years) to the hedging around the Parish car park. Fr D is thinking about having the hedging removed because it is an ongoing fire hazard, requires trimming twice a year, and replacing it with a maintenance free, fireproof fence which has a twenty-five year guarantee. He'll be discussing this with members of the Finance Committee on Tuesday evening this week.

After Morning Prayer and Mass on Friday Fr D had to go down to the Tribunal Office in Crawley (not having been down during the rest of the week) where he held a judgement session for a marriage case that he has spent some considerable time on

MESSENGRERS FOR JESUS

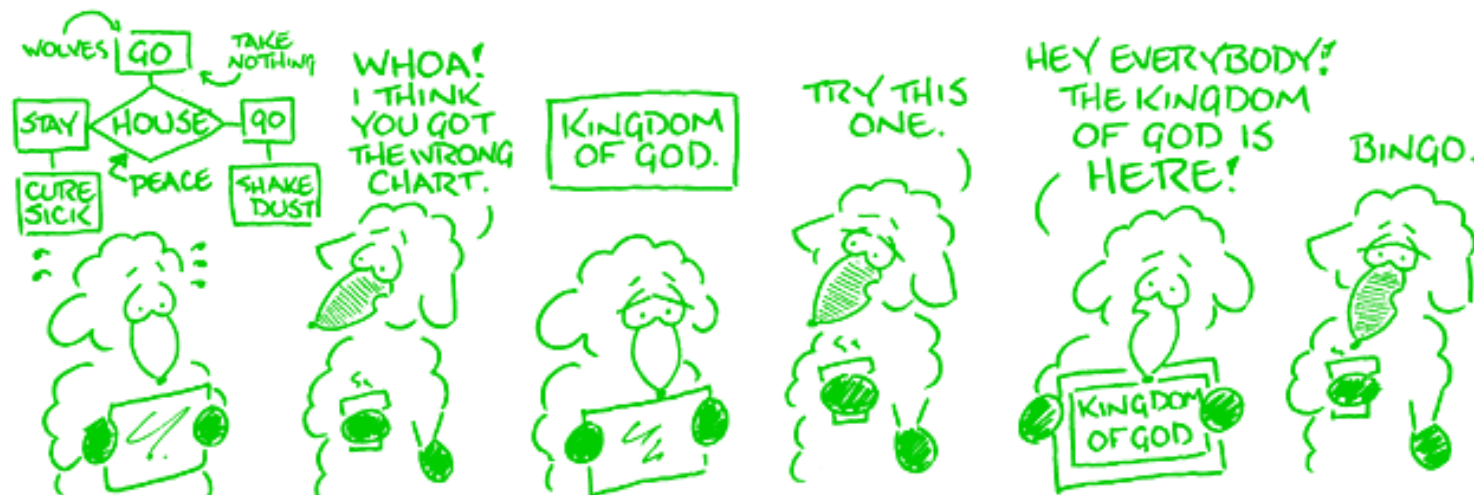

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

¹After this the Lord chose another seventy-two men and sent them out two by two, to go ahead of him to every town and place where he himself was about to go. ²He said to them, "There is a large harvest, but few workers to gather it in. Pray to the owner of the harvest that he will send out workers to gather in his harvest. ³Go! I am sending you like lambs among wolves. ⁴Don't take a purse or a beggar's bag or shoes; don't stop to greet anyone on the road. ⁵Whenever you go into a house, first say, 'Peace be with this house.' ⁶If a peace-loving person lives there, let your greeting of peace remain on him; if not, take back your greeting of peace. ⁷Stay in that same house, eating and drinking whatever they offer you, for workers should be given their pay. Don't move round from one house to another. ⁸Whenever you go into a town and are made welcome, eat what is set before you, ⁹heal the sick in that town, and say to the people there, 'The Kingdom of God has come near you.' ¹⁰But whenever you go into a town and are not welcomed, go out in the streets and say, ¹¹'Even the dust from your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. But remember that the Kingdom of God has come near you!' ¹²I assure you that on Judgement Day God will show more mercy to Sodom than to that town! ¹⁷The seventy-two men came back in great joy. "Lord," they said, "even the demons obeyed us when we gave them a command in your name!" ¹⁸Jesus answered them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹Listen! I have given you authority, so that you can walk on snakes and scorpions and overcome all the power of the Enemy, and nothing will hurt you. ²⁰But don't be glad because the evil spirits obey you; rather be glad because your names are written in heaven."

Other Readings: Isaiah 66:10-14; Psalm 66:1-7, 16, 20; Galatians 6:14-18

LECTIO:

Only Luke tells us this important event in Jesus' ministry. He chooses 72 disciples (in addition to the 12 apostles) and sends them out in pairs to the cities and villages ahead of him on his journey to Jerusalem. According to ancient legal requirements, testimonies and messages were regarded reliable only when pronounced by at least two witnesses or heralds. The number is significant. It links back to Moses, who assembled 70 leaders so God could impart his spirit to them to help lead the people of Israel (Numbers 11:16). Now Jesus sends out 72 disciples (some versions have 70) to spread the message of the Kingdom of God along with God's healing power. The rule of God's kingdom comes in a very different way to worldly power. It comes with peace, humbleness and dependency on God to meet needs. But it is not without power and authority and Jesus gives his messengers power to heal and control demons. Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem where he would be crucified. The mission was urgent and it remains so today. Those who don't accept Jesus' message will have to answer to him on Judgement Day. What matters most is receiving the gospel so our 'names are written in heaven.'

MEDITATIO:

- When do people in your community get the opportunity to hear about the gospel and the Kingdom of God?
- Most of us are not called to be missionaries overseas but we can all play a part in sharing God's message of salvation. Of course our witness is more than just what we say; how we live our daily lives and care for others is important too. Think about how you can respond to this.
- What do you think Jesus means when he speaks about the Kingdom of God?

ORATIO:

Give thanks that we too can have our names written in heaven. Pray for more 'workers to gather in his harvest' and how you might be involved. If you know people working as missionaries take time to pray for them now.

CONTEMPLATIO:

Contemplate the words of Galatians 6:14-18. Allow the ideas of being 'crucified to the world' and becoming a 'new creature' to challenge and give you hope.

Mass may be offered for both the living and the dead and also for most other intentions. We do our best to try and accommodate specific dates but this can be especially difficult on weekends and at less than three months notice.

'Mass Intentions' are published in the Parish Newsletter on the weekend before they are celebrated although sometimes a Requiem Mass will 'bump' an intention to a later date.

St Benedict

Unfortunately no contemporary biography was written of the man who had the greatest influence on monasticism in the West. Benedict was born of a very important family in central Italy, studied at Rome, and in his early in life was drawn to monasticism. First he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world - pagan armies on the march, the Church torn by schism, people suffering from war, morality at a very low ebb. He soon realised that he could not live a hidden life in a small town any better than in a large city, so he withdrew to a cave high in the mountains for three years. Some monks chose Benedict as their leader for a while, but found his strictness too much. Still the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of bringing various families of monks into one 'Grand Monastery' to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity, and worship in one house. Finally he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world -

Monte Cassino, in the mountains north of Naples. The Rule he developed prescribed a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labour, and common living under an abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation, and Benedictine charity has always shown concern for the people in the surrounding countryside. In the course of the Middle Ages, all monasticism in the West was gradually brought under the Benedict's Rule.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION PROGRAMMES

SACRED HEART PARISH 2025/6

Applications are now available for our Infant Baptism, First Reconciliation, and First Eucharist Preparation programmes for the coming academic year (Confirmation Applications will be made available once Bishop Richard provides a date for the celebration).

PLEASE NOTE that these programmes are only for candidates from families who are Registered Parishioners who are actually regular members of our worshipping community (i.e. Mass attenders) - if this is not the case at present please get in contact with Fr Daryl for an appointment to come and discuss what can be done to rectify the situation at some point in the future.

Reconciliation and Eucharist Applications can be obtained from the sacristy after the regular Mass which the family attends on a weekend. Only Parents (not grandparents or friends can collect these. Return by 31st August.

Infant Baptism Applications are available from the Parish Office (Mon. - Fri. 09.30-12.30). They are only for the children of Registered Parishioners who are regular members of our worshipping community. These need to be returned at least two weeks before the course commences.

TWO NEW PRIESTS FOR THE DIOCESE - On Saturday afternoon this weekend Bishop Richard ordained two new priests for service in the diocese, Scott Coleman and Gary Carter. They will begin their priestly ministry in September having received their appointments from the bishop. We pray that they will be happy in their respective ministries and that God will inspire other men to think about offering themselves for service in the Church.

NO MASS ON FRIDAY - There will not be a celebration of Morning Prayer or Mass this Friday (11th).

RETIRING COLLECTIONS - This weekend our Retiring Collection is our monthly contribution to our Parish Buildings Fund. We are awaiting (good weather permitting) the repairs and ongoing maintenance to the tower of the church to be undertaken. We will then begin works on the re-roofing of The Presbytery which we know will be part of the next buildings survey.

Next weekend (13th) the Retiring Collection will be for Stella Maris (formerly the Apostleship of the Sea). Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Sea Sunday is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Our support make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. Thank you.

THE GOD WHO SPEAKS - If you're Catholic and curious about the Bible, The God Who Speaks website is the place for you. Here you'll find great resources, activities and ideas to help you deepen your faith and love of the Scriptures.

During this month of July The God Who Speaks project is celebrating some of the most inspiring women in Scripture through art, poetry and music. What is their story? How do they speak to us today?

Fleur Dorrell, the Catholic Scripture Engagement Manager for the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales and the Bible Society, explores paintings of 16 different women in the Bible as interpreted by some inspiring artists. You can also listen to podcasts by 16 women from the Archdiocese of Birmingham describing the representation of 16 women in scripture and there is a celebration of seven key women in the Bible through a unique collaboration of art, poetry and music.

Much of the focus of this month's resources turns to St Mary Magdalene, who Feast Day falls on 22nd July. You are invited to celebrate her in a new light, and in honour of the Pope's recent elevation of her role and feast day as the 'Apostle to the Apostles.'

Every month The God Who Speaks initiative provides a range of resources for you to explore the Scriptures in their fullness. You will find outlines of the many different books of the Bible and a basic orientation to help you open up the Bible for yourself. You'll also find inspiration for how the message God conveys in the Scriptures, is relevant for you in your daily life.
