MARRIAGE MATTERS

In his Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis offers a profound insight into the joy of Christian marriage and reminds us of its place at the very heart of the Church's life. Christian marriage, he observes, 'is a sign of how much Christ loved his Church in the covenant sealed on the cross, yet it also makes that love present in the communion of the spouses. By becoming one flesh, they embody the espousal of our human nature by the Son of God.'

As we know, the Holy Scriptures feed and nourish our faith and help us to grow in our relationship with God and one another. It is for this reason that these scriptural reflections are offered. They should help enable married couples to focus on the richness of God's Word that we hear proclaimed each Sunday of the Year and to experience the deep joy of God's love expressed in the great Sacrament of Marriage.

DO WE RECOGNISE OUR SANCTITY?

Are we married couples among the blessed? St Paul called the members of those churches he visited, saints; he also compared the union of husband and wife with that of Christ and the Church (Ephesians 5:22-33). Are we not 'poor in spirit...gentle...those who mourn...those who hunger and thirst for what is right...merciful...pure in heart and peacemakers' in our own relationship?

Whether we are remembering the saints, our loved ones or those who died in the service of the country, the way we remember is crucial. Our remembering can enslave us in the past or liberate us into the future.

2nd November 2025 : All Saints Year C

Jesus Comes Close

The Feast of All Souls Day is celebrated every year on November 2nd, the day after we celebrate All Saints Day. Whereas All Saints Day is a day to honour particularly holy people in our faith tradition, especially those people who have been canonized saints, All Souls Day is a day to specifically remember and pray for our deceased family and friends. Combined with Halloween ("All Hallow's Eve") and the Mexican tradition of El Dia de los Muertos (the Day of the Dead) this time of year is rich in opportunities to remember, grieve, pray for, and celebrate those who have gone before us.

"We are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him."

Sheepish Question:

What can I do every day to improve my chances of saintliness?

Catholic Churches have the choice of many different readings to choose from for this feast day. We'll focus today on one of the suggested readings from Luke's Gospel. The famous story of the disciples encountering the risen Jesus - but not recognizing him - on the road to Emmaus is only found in Luke's Gospel. It's a reassuring story that God can and does come close to us even when we don't recognize him. We don't always recognize that Jesus is present with us in our grieving; listening to us, consoling us, and offering hope, but perhaps like the two disciples, we can "catch" that it was him when we reflect on it afterwards. Hopefully when this happens, we'll do what they did - excitedly tell others how Jesus came to them.

As we think about our beloved deceased family and friends today, this story is also a wonderful reminder that God is not limited in his ability to bring life out of death even if we are limited in our ability to understand or believe it. Jesus had told his friends beforehand that he was going to rise from the dead, and still they didn't get it after he died. He told the parents of the twelve year old girl who had died that she wasn't dead, she was only sleeping, but they didn't believe it. He told Martha and Mary that Lazarus would rise again, but they didn't believe him in the moment. Thankfully, God doesn't need our belief or our understanding about how resurrection might work in order to bring it about. May this be a consolation today as you remember your loved ones.

Questions of the week

- Who is especially on your heart today as we celebrate All Souls Day? How are they still present to you now? In what memories? Objects? Places? How might you honour them today?
- Imagine you are one of those disciples on the road to Emmaus. What would you want to say or ask of Jesus?

General Parish Information

Parishioner Registration : Every household within the Parish is requested to complete a 'Parishioner Registration/Census' form so that our Parish records may be kept up to date. These forms can be obtained from the Parish Office and should be completed fully before being returned to the Parish Office.

Should you move address within the Parish at any time please complete a new form and write 'AMENDMENT' across the top of the form. Thank you.

Hospital : If you are going into hospital as a 'planned admission' you are strongly encouraged to make contact with Fr Daryl well beforehand so that, if appropriate, the Sacrament of the Sick can be celebrated beforehand.

Infant Baptism : Infant Baptisms are intended for the children of practising parishioners only and are celebrated on five occasions during the year after parents and godparents have completed a course of preparation. There can be no celebration without this important course. The dates of the courses for the current year can be found in the application form available from the Parish Office. Baptisms do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Sacramental Preparation : Notice of the availability of Application Forms for preparation for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist will be made via the Parish Newsletter between the school Summer Half Term and 31st August each year. Possible candidates for Confirmation should respond to the announcements made via the Parish Newsletter at the beginning of the Autumn school term.

Parishioners are advised that it is very difficult to imagine that any family or individual who is not regularly practising the Faith as members of our community could possibly be ready to celebrate a Sacrament of the Church.

Marriage Preparation : Marriages are celebrated by appointment with the Parish Priest. It should be remembered that in the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton twelve months minimum notice is required before a marriage may take place; this is a requirement of the Church for all marriages that involve a Roman Catholic (even if they are not taking place in the Catholic Church). It is also necessary that one of the parties must have a meaningful connection with the Parish. Marriages do not take place during the seasons of Advent or Lent.

Parish Car Park : All Parishioners attending Mass and using our Car Park need to make sure that they have fully completed our 'Parishioner Registration/Census Form' (available from the Parish Office) before using the Car Park; this ensures that your current vehicle registration is lodged in the system. Registering only needs to be done once (unless you change your car or if you use another car in the family that is not registered on the system).

Important : if you are not registered on the system and you use the car park you will receive a parking notice.

Registered Parishioners and pre-registered visitors are able to park whilst they attend our Masses/liturgies without fear of a charge notice.

The musings of one of God's smallest creatures on events in and around the Parish over the past seven days . . .

Fr D got back to The Presbytery late on Sunday afternoon, pushing that funny box on wheels that he always takes away with him. As the supermarkets were closed by this time and he had run-down the food in the fridge before he left to go on holiday, the sisters were very kind and had a dinner waiting for him. After he had finished his dinner, Fr D took the 'box on wheels' upstairs to his bedroom and started bringing down bags of clothes to put into the 'white boxes' in the utility room. By the time that he had put two bags through both boxes and a further bag into one box he was ready for bed!

On Monday Fr D was able to see what progress had been made on the re-roofing of The Presbytery and was delighted! The workmen explained that the majority of the works necessary (like lots of things) was in the preparations. The roof still had the original 1932 tiles in place which were very much at the end of their life cycle. Also when the house was built there was such thing as sarking felt (which now goes underneath the tiles in modern houses), replacing the tiles has meant that a layer of insulation is now in place under the tiles and roof battens. This has proved to be very effective: Fr D went into the loft which is normally very cold to find that it was every bit as warm as the house is normally - so the insulation properties of the new layer are excellent! The workmen also explained to Fr D that the chimney (which he had asked to be taken down as part of the works) was in fact badly split facing the roof and would have required a lot of work in the very near future! The flat roof on the very top of the house has been remade in fibreglass to ensure a long lifespan. Next week the workmen will set about re-tiling the awning over the front door, the roof over the utility roof and the sections looking out over the garden.

Also on Monday the workmen erecting the new fence around the car park arrived and immediately set to work digging out the holes for the new uprights and bedding them in with concrete. As the week progressed they began to fill the sections between the posts with the panels and the security side of things is now vastly improved (it also meant that the local council's decayed chain-link fence is no longer in view from our side!). Whereas it was sad to see the demise of the conifer boarder it was not feasible for us to continue risking fires (such as the two we have already had) with vehicles (and fuel tanks) in such close proximity.

TRUE HAPPINESS

Matthew 5:1-12

¹Jesus saw the crowds and went up a hill, where he sat down. His disciples gathered round him, ²and he began to teach them:
³"Happy are those who know they are spiritually poor; the Kingdom of heaven belongs to them!
⁴Happy are those who mourn; God will comfort them!
⁵Happy are those who are humble; they will receive what God has promised!
⁶Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires; God will satisfy them fully!
⁷Happy are those who are merciful to others; God will be merciful to them!
⁸Happy are the pure in heart; they will see God!
⁹Happy are those who work for peace; God will call them his children!
¹⁰Happy are those who are persecuted because they do what God requires; the Kingdom of heaven belongs to them!
¹¹"Happy are you when people insult you and persecute you and tell all kinds of evil lies against you because you are my followers. ¹²Be happy and glad, for a great reward is kept for you in heaven. This is how the prophets who lived before you were persecuted.

Other Readings: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; Psalm 24:1-6; 1 John 3:1-3

LECTIO:

Matthew's Gospel is structured around five major teachings of Jesus, mainly to his disciples. The first of these is centred on what is often called the Sermon on the Mount or the Beatitudes. The radical differences between the 'kingdom of heaven' – Jesus' rule as Lord and King being established on earth - and the earthly kingdom lie at the heart of this sermon. Jesus sums up the lifestyle and attitudes that bring true happiness, or blessing, in nine statements. These are very different from what the world would say brings happiness. In fact you could almost say the happiness described above is the direct opposite of what people in the world think makes them happy. In some translations the word 'blessed' is used instead of happiness. Another translation could be 'contented'. There is a contentment or fulfilment that comes from following and serving God rather than just pleasing ourselves. This short list of nine beatitudes sums up the core values of gospel living. Some are also listed in the Old Testament but Jesus draws all the threads together to provide us with an excellent reference point to guide our lives. The focus is always on our relationship with God and with others. The saints known and unknown learned this, so can we. True happiness will only be found living out these Beatitudes.

MEDITATIO:

- Which of the Beatitudes stands out for you the most?
- Which do you find most challenging? Consider how you might put more of Jesus' teaching into practice in the coming weeks.
- Look back to the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (14th February) when we considered Luke's account of this teaching. What strikes you when you compare these two accounts?

ORATIO:

Read these Beatitudes through slowly several times. Ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you. Make a note of what you feel God is saying to you through this teaching. Ask God to help you in the areas where you feel particularly weak.
Read Psalm 24:1-6. Use these verses during your time of prayer today.

CONTEMPLATIO:

'Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children;'

1 John 3:1 Jerusalem Bible

Reflect on the depth of God's love for you that this verse reveals. Make your own response to God.

St Charles Borromeo

The name of St Charles is associated with reform. He lived during the time of the Reformation, and had a hand in the reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent. Although he belonged to Milanese nobility and was related to the powerful Medici family, Charles desired to devote himself to the Church. In 1559, when his uncle, Cardinal de Medici was elected Pope Pius IV, he made Charles cardinal-deacon and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan. At the time Charles was still a layman and a young student. Due to his intellectual qualities Charles was entrusted with several important offices connected with the Vatican, and later appointed secretary of state with responsibility for the papal states. The untimely death of his elder brother brought Charles to a definite decision to be ordained a priest, despite his relatives' insistence that he marry. Soon after being ordained a priest at age 25, Charles was consecrated bishop of Milan. Working behind the scenes, Charles deserves the credit for keeping the Council of Trent in session when at several points it was on the verge of breaking up.

Charles encouraged the pope to renew the Council in 1562, after it had been suspended for 10 years. He took upon himself the task of the entire correspondence during the final phase. Because of his work at the Council, Charles was unable to live in Milan until the Council concluded. During the plague and famine of 1576, Charles tried to feed 60,000 to 70,000 people daily. Whilst the civil authorities fled at the height of the plague. Work and the heavy burdens of his office began to affect Charles's health, leading to his death at the age of 46.

NOVEMBER MONTH OF THE DEAD

Traditionally in the Church the month of November is a period of time dedicated to prayer for the Holy Souls in purgatory (those not yet in the presence of God but destined to be). The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope . . . for the Lord himself shall come down from heaven . . . and the dead who are in Christ shall rise." The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Even in the Old Testament prayers and alms were offered for the souls of the dead by those who thought "well and religiously concerning the resurrection." It was believed that "they who had fallen asleep with godliness had great grace laid up for them" and that "it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." We know that a defiled soul cannot enter into heaven.

NOVEMBER BOOK OF THE DEAD - As usual Parishioners who have taken the time to complete a 'Dead List' for any family or friends who have died since last November will now be able to 'look up' the names in our Parish Book of the Dead; which will be placed on the sanctuary throughout November. Each weekend during November one of our Masses will be celebrated for the Holy Souls.

NOVEMBER BLESSING OF GRAVES - Our annual Blessing of Graves will take place next Sunday (9th November) at 15.30 (Cobham Cemetery, by the chapel entrance). After the short service there will be tea and scones available back at the Sacred Heart Parish Centre.

POPE LEO DECLARES ST JOHN HENRY NEWMAN A DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH - On Saturday (1st Nov.) the Holy Father declared John Henry Newman to be the 38th Doctor of the Church, recognising his great holiness, learning, and wisdom. John Henry Newman was born in London on 21st February 1801. The eldest of six children, his family were practising members of the Church of England with the young John Henry an enthusiastic reader of the Bible. Aged fifteen, he had a religious experience so strong that it would change his life forever. Writing about the experience later, he said:

"A great change of thought took place in me. I fell under the influences of a definite Creed ... I believed that the inward conversion of which I was conscious ... would last into the next life, and that I was elected to eternal glory. ... I believe that it had some influence on my opinions ... in isolating me from the objects which surrounded me... and making me rest in the thought of two and two only absolute and luminously self-evident beings, myself and my creator."

He would later refer to this as his first conversion - before becoming a Catholic in 1845, and thereafter, on 30 May 1847, ordained a Catholic priest.

Pope Leo XIII (1810-1903) admired John Henry Newman's fierce religious orthodoxy and appointed him as a cardinal three decades later, in 1879. The year before he died, John Henry wrote about the journey to sainthood:

"Such are the means which God has provided for the creation of the Saint out of the sinner," he said, "it is the very triumph of His grace, that He enters into the heart of man, and persuades it, and prevails with it, while He changes it."
