New Business

Open Comments: Magistrate Logsdon says he hopes to get to the residents around Rollington and handout information regarding the road project. He also stated that all Oldham County emergency services have been contacted as well. He said he would also follow up with Libs Paving and find out where signage will be placed and the traffic plan.

Tom Clark informed the council and residents that Oldham County EMS services has been ranked and accredited very highly and should be congratulated.

A resident requested to be a good neighbor. Choose to mow and weedeat at a more considerate time, like mid-morning or late afternoon if possible.

Residents did voice concern over fireworks. Central dispatch should be called for any concerns. Chief Healey said that if they do get a call while on duty they will address it.
