Sacred Heart of Jesus School

Happy Thursday afternoon families,

Our classroom scripture for next week offers a tender glimpse into the humanity of Jesus: “Jesus, tired from His journey, sat down there at the well” (John 4:6b). How comforting it is to remember that Our Lord knows what it is to be weary—He has felt the weight of long days and the limits of human strength. And because of this, as Hebrews 4:15 reminds us, we have a great High Priest who is able to sympathize with our weakness. May this truth steady our hearts and encourage us with confidence, knowing that Jesus is intimately with us as we continue on our Lenten journey.

March End-of-Day Prayer Journals

- Examine of St. Ignatius
 - Become aware of God’s presence and quiet your mind.
 - Review the day with gratitude.
 - Pay attention to your emotions throughout the day and what they stemmed from.

- Choose one feature of the day—positive or negative—and pray from it, seeking understanding and guidance from God.
- Conclude by looking toward tomorrow; ask for God’s help in facing potential temptations, challenges, & opportunities, and commit to living in joyful surrender & alignment with His will.
- “ARRR” Pirate Prayer
 - Acknowledge God’s presence in your heart.
 - Relate to God by sharing your thoughts, feelings, and desires.
 - Receive God’s response, which may come through Scripture or thought.
 - Respond to what you have received, committing to actions or intentions based on time in prayer.

While we may have been teased by the warm temperatures early last week (it doesn't look like we'll be going back to them anytime soon), I hope you can enjoy the snow, the coziness of home, or the beauty of snow-covered trees; after all, let us give thanks in all things. I pray you enjoy your weekend together as families and rest up well. We will see the students back on Tuesday.

In the hearts of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,
Fr. Matthew

As a Catholic apostolate devoted under the patronage of His Sacred Heart, we live for and serve Jesus as His disciples and friends. The mission of Sacred Heart School is, through our families who are fully invested in their child(ren)'s growth, to prepare the hearts of our students with care in their spiritual, human, intellectual, and communal formation for their encounter with the challenges of the world, confidently knowing that God always loves them.
