Happy Tuesday afternoon families,

On this Tuesday of Holy Week, we journey with Jesus during His final days ministering near Jerusalem, trusting His quiet yet assuring promise in John 13:7 that what we do not understand now will one day be made clear. As we enter Easter break, may this next week off offer space for prayer, rest, and a renewed closeness to the Lord. Know of my prayers for each of you as we enter the holiest days of the year and await the joy of the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

April End-of-Day Prayer Journals

- Lectio Divina (Divine Reading)

- Lectio (Reading)
 - Read a passage of scripture slowly and attentively, allowing the words to sink in. This step is about engaging with God’s Holy Word and letting it resonate with you.
- Meditatio (Mediation)
 - Reflect on the text, pondering its meaning and call on your heart. This is where you consider what God might be saying to you through His Word.
- Oratio (Prayer)
 - Respond to God in prayer, expressing your thoughts, feelings, and desires inspired by your mediation on holy scripture. This is a personal conversation with God. Don’t hold anything back—He already knows your innermost heart and mind!
- Contemplatio (Contemplation)
 - Rest in God’s presence, letting go of your thoughts and simply being with Him. This step emphasizes listening to God and allowing His Word to transform you from within.

Classroom Scripture (beginning April 7)

- “Jesus said to him, ‘Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed’” (John 20:29).
- You are encouraged to pray and discuss the verse as families!
