Happy Thursday afternoon families,

As we enter the Third Sunday of Easter, we continue to walk with the disciples in the surprising joy of the Resurrection. Each encounter with the risen Christ reminds us that His peace is not a moment but a promise—one meant to steady our hearts in the midst of daily life. May this Easter season renew our hope and draw our school families more deeply into the life Christ offers.

I don't think I speak for myself alone when I say "Amen" for the wonderful weather we've had over the past week and pray for it to stay! I hope you have a great weekend together as families and rest up well. We will see the students back on Tuesday.

In the hearts of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,
Fr. Matthew

Weekly Classroom Scripture

"I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10b).

Mission Statement

As a Catholic apostolate devoted under the patronage of His Sacred Heart, we live for and serve Jesus as His disciples and friends. The mission of Sacred Heart School is, through our families who are fully invested in their child(ren)'s growth, to prepare the hearts of our students with care in their spiritual, human, intellectual, and communal formation for their encounter with the challenges of the world, confidently knowing that God always loves them.
