Happy Thursday afternoon families,

Beginning with Good Shepherd Sunday on the 26th and throughout this past week, we have been reading and praying with Jesus as the Good Shepherd. He leads those who know and listen to His voice to all things good, ultimately Himself in the Eucharist. We can trust this particularly through the scriptures Psalm 23 and Romans 8:28. May we continue to grow in love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control during this Easter Season and continually seek to know, hear, and joyfully obey the voice of our Good Shepherd, the risen Christ Jesus!

Though we are below average this week for temperature at this time of year, the sunny 50s have been refreshing. I pray you have a great weekend together as families and rest up well. We will see the students back on Tuesday.

In the hearts of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,
Fr. Matthew

Weekly Classroom Scripture

“But sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope” (1 Peter 3:15).

Mission Statement

As a Catholic apostolate devoted under the patronage of His Sacred Heart, we live for and serve Jesus as His disciples and friends. The mission of Sacred Heart School is, through our families who are fully invested in their child(ren)’s growth, to prepare the hearts of our students with care in their spiritual, human, intellectual, and communal formation for their encounter with the challenges of the world, confidently knowing that God always loves them.
