

John L. Warner

PRESIDENT & CEO

John Warner is President & CEO of Brethren Retirement Community (BRC), Greenville, Ohio. John holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, majoring in Finance from Bowling Green State University. He is a Licensed Nursing Home Administrator joining BRC in 2004 as Vice President & COO and then moved to the role of CFO in 2005. He has served in the role of President & CEO since 2007. Prior to joining BRC John worked for Fifth Third Bank for over twenty-one years in a variety of senior management roles in Commercial & Consumer Lending as well as Retail Administration. Active in the community John serves as a Board Member for: GNB Banking Centers, Wayne HealthCare, Darke County Chamber of Commerce, Coalition for a Healthy Darke County, EUM Church Elders, Edison State Community College Foundation, Peace Church Risk Retention Group, Resource Partners and Linkage. John and his wife Ginger have four children and five grandchildren. When not working John enjoys church & family activities, cycling, hiking, kayaking and Pittsburgh Steelers football.

Kara Allread

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CAO

Kara Allread joined Brethren Retirement Community in 2007 after nearly ten years serving in the non-profit service industry. She currently serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer for Brethren Home Management Services providing comprehensive management services for long term care communities. Kara continues in her role with Brethren Retirement Community leading the areas of workforce, risk management and Brethren HomeCare. Currently, she serves as Board Chair for Family Health, a federally qualified health center and Chair of the Greenville City Schools Business Advisory Council. She is a past president of the Greenville Rotary Club and a former Board Member of the Edison Community College Foundation Board, Wayne Healthcare Foundation and Ohio Business & Professional Women. Kara is a graduate of Muskingum University holding a Bachelor's Degree in Public Affairs and Sociology and has received her Certified Aging Specialist Professional designation. She and her husband, Joel reside in Greenville, Ohio along with their children Reed, Morgan and Gavin.

Holly Hill

VICE PRESIDENT & CMO

Holly Hill joined Brethren Retirement Community in 2008 with 10 years of healthcare experience in the for-profit industry. In her 13 years at BRC, Hill was promoted to Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer where she has led the sales and marketing efforts of the organization, been the leader of the organization's World Class Customer Service program, focuses on driving strong customer growth, and leading key components of the organization's robust strategic plan. Holly is a graduate of Bradford High School and Miami University in with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and a minor in Gerontology. She currently serves on the Darke County Foundation Board, Area Agency on Aging Board, and is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Greenville. She and her husband, Jason reside in Bradford and have two children, Kendall and Hudson.

Jami Keen

VICE PRESIDENT, CCO

Jami has a long work history at Brethren Retirement Community where she started her career in long term care as an STNA in 1993. Jami left BRC to continue her education and graduated from Chamberlain University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. She is currently working to complete her Master of Nursing Degree at Northern Kentucky University. Jami has also worked as a charge nurse and most recently was our Director of Nursing. She resides in Union City with Chris, her significant other, and has two children, Cash who is 23 years old and lives in Troy and Natalie who is 15 years old and attends Tri-Village High School. In her free time, Jami enjoys reading and taking care of her dogs.

Curtis Enis

REGIONAL DIRECTOR
OF BRETHREN
MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Curtis Enis joined BRC in July of 2022 as the Regional Director of Brethren Management Services. Prior to BRC, Curtis was the Operational Manager and Director in the beverage distribution business. During his tenure at those companies, Curtis increased employee engagement, technology upgrades, and created business management system for overall yearly business improvements. Curtis is a graduate of Central State University in Wilberforce Ohio, where he majored in recreational business management. When Curtis is not keeping busy with family activities, you can find him volunteering in the Darke County area supporting the youth.

Ryan Gathard

REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF MISSIONAL
ADVANCEMENT

Ryan Gathard joined Brethren Retirement Community in 2023 with 20 of fundraising experience in healthcare and other non-profit organizations. Prior to BRC, Ryan was the Director of Development in the hospital and hospice industries. During his time at those healthcare organizations, Ryan has led many successful capital campaigns, and increased annual and employee giving. Ryan is a graduate of Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida, where he majored in Communications with a concentration in Broadcasting. He currently serves as a deacon at his church, and is involved the worship team and children's ministry. Ryan also is high school sports broadcaster for WTGR. Ryan and his wife, Katie reside in Greenville and have two children, Addisyn and Jack.

Leadership Team