

Dear Joey,

If someone would have told me that the church I started would be the church we are experiencing today, I would have responded by assuring them they had the wrong guy. But through the years I have learned that God tends to use the wrong guy at the right time to do a new thing. This new thing that God is doing is simple at its foundation, but powerful in its nature. God is using our church to create a space where people can experience life change. The kind of life change that baptizes an entire family, the kind of life change where a wife would sit every Sunday without her husband in church, and they now enjoy attending and serving together as a family. The kind of life change where the addicted are set free. The kind of life change where someone who has walked with Jesus for a long-time finally goes all in.

Ashton and I wanted to take the opportunity to personally express our appreciation. Without your sacrificial financial backing, none of this would be possible. Your generosity has power; the kind of power that changes lives. You have allowed God to work through you in an awesome way as you have given, and we are so thankful.

We cannot begin to thank you enough or to express our sincere gratitude for your prayers and financial support. You truly are a life change partner.

Thank you for your generosity. Thank you for praying for us. Thank you for believing in the call to see Life Change Through Christ in our city. We appreciate you more than you will ever know.

With the utmost gratitude,

Pastors Mike & Ashton Santiago
