TRAVEL TRAINING PROGRAM

Our Services

Go with Greenway is a Travel Training program that is one-on-one instruction designed to teach how to travel safely and independently using fixed route transportation. This free program provides you a travel trainer who will teach you from start to finish how to ride safely and independently.

Each travel training is tailored to the rider using a wide variety of techniques to accommodate each individual's needs and abilities. This program is designed to give riders more freedom to choose where and how they would go.

To reserve your spot call the Greenway Mobility Management office at 828-465-7640.

What is Travel Training

Travel Training is a valuable community resource to help overcome fear or hesitation surrounding Public Transit.

Riding transit can be intimidating for those unfamiliar with the system. Individuals will also learn how to modify their trips to take back personal independence.

Travel Training programs teach the basic travel skills to ride public transportation, and gives riders the confidence.

Who is it for?

Have you ever seen a bus passing by and wondered what it's like to ride?

Do you wish you had your own transportation independence?

Do you want to learn how to use public transportation, but are afraid you'll get lost or possibly miss your bus?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this program is for you!
