By Order of the R.W. Grand Master.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Mark A. Haines, R.W. Grand Secretary

From the desk of the Worshipful Master

Brethren,

The holidays are rapidly approaching, first Halloween, then Thanksgiving and before you know it, Christmas and St. John’s day next. As November approaches, focus on our flag and the veterans who served to defend her honor and the principals for which she stands. Think also of our very own Masonic principals and the oaths we’ve taken as Masons. I hope to see you in November for a special presentation of our flag, its history and care. One more important piece of business for this coming month, we must elect officers to serve St. John’s for next year. Don’t forget Casino Night, please reach out for tickets, it is a great night filled with wine, women and song, pick one, spouse or girlfriend, please not both together! We are fortunate to have a nice group attending the upcoming Grand Lodge Annual at the Philadelphia Convention Center, December 27th. There is still room, but we must have a head count by the end of October if we want to be sure to be seated together. And certainly not least although last, don’t forget our spaghetti diner fund raiser. We still have plenty of tickets. Even though it may be getting chilly, bring lawn chairs and cigars for socializing time after the meeting, weather permitting.

Fraternally,
– Olin R. Marth, II, W.M.
