Brethren,

Greetings and hallucinations! Having happily heard that greeting once again at our last extra meeting from one of our Past Masters, it occurred to me that our next stated meeting will be a special one where we honor those who have sacrificed their time, given freely of their talents, wisdom and provided lasting contributions to lead us to where we are today, a very strong leader and contributor to the success of our Masonic District. As we approach the close of our current Masonic year, I’m also reminded of the need for continuity of our Craft. With only one more meeting before upcoming elections, and the installation of new officers, it is fitting that we look to our Past Masters for inspiration and encouragement. Consider attending the upcoming Grand Lodge Annual at the Philadelphia Convention Center, December 27th. We need a head count to address cost and reserve seats. And certainly not least although last, don’t forget our spaghetti dinner fund raiser. This will help us with future cost increases as well as address other lodge needs. As we’ve done before, plan on bringing lawn chairs and cigars for socializing time after the meeting, weather permitting.

Fraternally,
– Olin R. Marth, II, W.M.
