Holy Week

With the celebration of Palm Sunday, also known as Passion Sunday, we enter into the celebration of Holy Week, a week that is different than every other week throughout the year. Holy Week is the most sacred time in the life of the Church. During these days we walk step by step with Christ through the final moments of his earthly life: from his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, to the Last Supper, to the suffering of the Cross, and finally to the glory of the Resurrection. At the beginning of the week, the crowds greet Jesus with palm branches and joyful shouts of "Hosanna!" Yet only a few days later, many of those same voices cry out, "Crucify him." The events of Holy Week reveal how quickly the human heart can change. They invite us to look honestly at our own hearts. Do we follow Christ only when it is easy, or are we willing to remain with him even when the path leads to the Cross? Holy Thursday reminds us of Christ's extraordinary love in the gift of the Eucharist and the priesthood. On that night Jesus kneels to wash the feet of his disciples, showing that true greatness is found in humble service. Good Friday then brings us to the foot of the Cross, where we see the full depth of God's love. Jesus freely gives his life for the salvation of the world. The Cross, once a sign of shame and suffering, becomes the sign of our redemption. But the Cross is not the end of the story. Holy Week leads us toward the great joy of Easter. Through his Passion and death, Christ conquers sin and opens the way to new life. As we enter these sacred days, the Church invites us not simply to remember these events, but to enter into them more deeply. By prayer, silence, and participation in the liturgies of the Triduum, we allow the mystery of Christ's love to touch our hearts. Walking with him through the Cross, we prepare to share in the joy of the Resurrection.

Con la celebración del Domingo de Ramos, también conocido como Domingo de la Pasión, entramos en la celebración de la Semana Santa, una semana diferente a cualquier otra del año. La Semana Santa es el momento más sagrado en la vida de la Iglesia. Durante estos días, acompañamos a Cristo paso a paso en los últimos momentos de su vida terrena: desde su entrada triunfal en Jerusalén, pasando por la Última Cena, el sufrimiento en la Cruz y, finalmente, la gloria de la Resurrección. Al comienzo de la semana, la multitud saluda a Jesús con palmas y gritos de alegría: "¡Hosanna!". Sin embargo, tan solo unos días después, muchas de esas mismas voces exclaman: "¡Crucifícalo!". Los acontecimientos de la Semana Santa revelan la rapidez con la que el corazón humano puede cambiar. Nos invitan a una mirada honesta a nuestro propio corazón. ¿Seguimos a Cristo solo cuando es fácil, o estamos dispuestos a permanecer con él incluso cuando el camino nos lleva a la Cruz? El Jueves Santo nos recuerda el extraordinario amor de Cristo en el don de la Eucaristía y el sacerdocio. Esa noche, Jesús se arrodilló para lavar los pies de sus discípulos, demostrando que la verdadera grandeza reside en el servicio humilde. El Viernes Santo nos lleva entonces al pie de la Cruz, donde contemplamos la profundidad del amor de Dios. Jesús entrega libremente su vida por la salvación del mundo. La Cruz, antes signo de vergüenza y sufrimiento, se convierte en signo de nuestra redención. Pero la Cruz no es el final de la historia. La Semana Santa nos conduce hacia la gran alegría de la Pascua. A través de su Pasión y muerte, Cristo vence el pecado y abre el camino a una nueva vida. Al entrar en estos días sagrados, la Iglesia nos invita no solo a recordar estos acontecimientos, sino a profundizar en ellos. Mediante la oración, el silencio y la participación en las liturgias del Triduo, permitimos que el misterio del amor de Cristo toque nuestros corazones. Caminando con él a través de la Cruz, nos preparamos para compartir la alegría de la Resurrección.
